THE Democratic State Convention will probably be held September 18.

NEARLY all of the recent graduates of Washington college have received responsible positions for next year. This is a most excellent showing for the college.

GOV. WARFIELD and the State-Militia are "tenting on the old camp ground" at Belair this week, and the hearts of Belair's fair maidens are sounding "taps."

ADDICKS has at last found a way to get even with his enemies in Delaware. He owns the Dover Sentinel and it is reported that he is to become editor-in-chief of the paper. He'll make things interesting now.

COMPTROLLER Gordon T. Atkinson is receiving hearty indorsement for renomination from all the county conventions. Comptroller Atkinson has made a most excellent public servant, and his reelection will be most gratifying to the people of the state.

THE REPUBLICAN State Central Committee for Kent county will issue a call for county primaries on Saturday, Sept. 2, and the county convention will be held on Monday Sept. 4. The names of some prominent men are mentioned as candidates.

THE PRIMARY CONTEST in Montgomery county closed on Saturday last after one of the hottest contests in the history of the county. Hon. Blair Lee defeated Senator Spencer C. Jones for nomination for the State Senate. Mr. Lee's victory is supposed to eliminate Senator Jones from the Gubernational race.

C. E. CONVENTION.

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather there was a good attendance at the 13th Annual County Christian Endeavor Convention in St James M. P. Church last Thursday. The program as given in last week's TRANSCRIPT was rendered in full, and all the papers and addresses breathed the true spirit of the great movement. Addresses were made by Rev. D L. Greenfield, D. D., Miss Miriam Vansant, Miss Julia Nicholson, Mrs. Ralph Barnett, Mrs. C. J. Reiche, Miss Mabel Nicholson, Rev. T. Holmes Walker, Rev. C. E. B. Ward and State President, Mr. Frederick Ohrenschall. At the evening service Mr. J. Frank Wheatley led the Model C. E. Service, at which a large choir discoursed sweet music, and the very profitable day was closed with a Quiet Hour service led by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Sheridan. The round table conducted by Rev. C. E.B. Budd, the address of State President Ohrenschall, and the Workers Conference in the afternoon were very enjoyable parts of the program. The church was beautifully decorated in red and white.

While this feast for the souls was in progress the ladies of St. James did not forget the feast of good things for the inner man, and a sumptuous dinner and supper of all the season's delicacies were served splendidly under a large tent. This convention comprised delegates from Chestertown, St. James, Lynch's and Wesley Chapel. The following are the officers for the ensuing year: president, Wm. A. Wheatley; vice-pres., Walter R. Gale; secretary Miss Bessie Nicholson; treasurer, Miss Lizzie Hepbron; junior superindent, Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche; missionary superintendent, Mrs. Chas. N. Satterfield; temperance superintendent, Mrs. J. L. Smyth. The heavy rain prevented a very large attendance.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

We were incorrectly informed last week as to the appointment of Miss Louise Carroll as assistant at Fairlee. No appointment has been made yet, and we understand that Miss Carroll is and applicant for the principalship of Broad Neck School.

Mr. Lewis Robinson, a recent graduate of Washington College, in the Collegiate Department has been appointed principal of the Union Schools, Queen Anne's county.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. E. P. Roberts of Easton, occupied the pulpit in Bond Chapel on Sunday morning and preached a very forcible sermon.

Rev. Wm. N. Sherwood, of Wilmington, preached an able sermon in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening at the "Twilight Hour."

St. James M. P. Sunday School will picnic at Worton Manor Beach next Thursday. It goes without saying that every one will have a good time and enjoy a sumptuous dinner served a la Worton.

Rev. A. Norman Ward, pastor of North Carolina Avenue M. P. Church, Washington, D. C., has accepted a call to first Church, Seattle, Washington State, and will leave for his new field of labor as soon as he can arrange affairs at his present charge.

Bishop Adams who is spending a few days with Rev Albert Ware, will preach at St. Clements Church, Massey, on Sunday morning next at 10.30.

Christ Meth. Prot. Church.—Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor. 9.30 A. M. Testimony Meeting. 10.30 A. M. Rev. W. A. Melvin, of Cumberland. 2.30 P. M. Sunday School. 6.30 P. M. Vesper Service of Old Methodist Melodies.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with the small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggest.
