MARYLAND CRUISER FUND.

With possibly few exceptions, there has not been a more patriotic movement started in Maryland within recent years, than the one which is now being presented to the residents of the State by the Maryland Cruiser Fund Commission, which is raising a fund with which to purchase a suitable testimonial to be presented to the Amored Cruiser which bears the proud name of this state.

Thousands of letters, appealing for contributions to the fund, are being sent out through the counties, and this county has not been forgotten. The Chestertown Bank of Maryland in this county have been named as the depository by Governor Warfield and Mayor Timanus of Baltimore City, for funds which might be contributed in this section. It might also be stated that the office of this paper, is open at any time to receive contributions, no matter how small the amount, for this worthy and patriotic cause.

Nearly $2,000 has been raised to date, and it is the desire of the commission to swell the amount to at least $5,000. Every resident in this county should contribute to the fund. Even the public school children ought to feel sufficient interest in the cause to contribute even a 5-cent piece. Other States have presented their namesakes in the navy with handsome gifts. Why should not Maryland do the same?

Contributions in this county can be left at this office, or at the following banking institution: Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

The appeal, which is being sent out by the commission, follows:

TRANSCRIPT, CHESTERTOWN, MD.,

DEAR SIRS—On July 13, His Excellency, Governor Warfield, and His Honor, Mayor Timanus, of Baltimore city, named a Commission to have prepared a proper testimonial to the Armored Cruiser that bears the proud name of our State. This custom has prevailed not only all over this country, but has been handed down from the world through centuries, and we citizens must not stand back, and be the first to break such a happy and fitting expression from the people of our State.

We appeal to you to contribute to this fund, and lend us the aid of a small part of your time, by presenting this question to those of your associates that it would be impossible for us to reach. Do not let the Cruiser Maryland sail one day longer, without carrying with her the symbols of good-fellowship given by the people, whose blood should run quicker whenever the name of their native and dearly loved State is mentioned. Let us all join in doing the right thing by our namesake, so that when the good old State song, "Maryland, My Maryland" is sung on her decks, every man in her may be proud of the name she bears.

We appeal to you to help us make this movement as successful as such a worthy cause deserves. Kindly forward any subscriptions to Col. William A. Boykin, Treasurer, 1326 Greenmount Avenue, Baltimore, or to the depository nearest to you that has been named by Governor Warfield and Mayor Timanus.

Very truly yours,

E. STANLEY GARY, Chairman.
RAYMOND N. HOBLITZELL, Secretary.

The commission, which was named by Governor Warfield and Mayor Timanus, is as follows: Chairman, E. Stanley Gary; treasurer, Col. Wm. A. Boykin; secretary, Raymond N. Hoblitzell; Gen. Francis E. Waters, Gen. Felix Agnus, Col. Wm. H. Love, Messrs. Jos. R. Ford, Wm. B. Hurst, Walter W. Abell, Charles H. Grasty, J. Harry Tregoe and Frank F. Foard.

Members of an auxiliary committee to assist in the worthy cause have been appointed in every county in the State by the Governor and Mayor Timanus, of Baltimore city.

Bedworth, Jr., Breaks Track Record.

The last day of the Peninsula Fair Association at Tasley, Va., proved to be the most interesting four days' meet held last week. Two-thousand people witnessed the races that day, the most interesting feature of which was the wonderful race of Bedworth, Jr., the fastest horse in Maryland. He won the free-for-all class on Saturday with ease and lowered the track record, already held by himself from 2.12 to 2.11½. Mysotis, in the first two heats and Conway were right at his heels all the way, both going a very creditable race. The three went to the quarter pole in 30½ seconds in the third heat, the pair getting the pole from Bedworth around the first time. He passed around them however and came home an easy winner in the record time of of 2.11½. The time of the three heats was 2.12, 2.13, 2.11½. Bedworth, Jr., received $50 extra for lowering the record. Adversity, 2.27½, Mr. H. P. Skipper's fine racing stallion, was not in condition on Friday and was distanced at Tasley in the 2.26 trot, in the time of 2.26. Supt. Noland is making overtures to Mr. Bell, owner of Bedworth, Jr., to have him entered in the free-for-all at Tolchester on Big Thursday during the fair, and it is likely that he will be offered inducements to come to Tolchester.

Fine for Purse Netters.—The trial of the first of the purse-net cases, growing out of the recent raids made by assistant Game Warden, Oregon Milton Dennis, was held before Justice Robert C. Rhodes, in Baltimore on Monday. The case was that of the schooner Rebecca, of Rock Hall. The captain and crew of six entered a plea of guilty, and the justice fined each $50 and confiscated to the State the schooner, two 24-foot yawl boats and one purse net of about 135 fathoms, the whole penalty amounting to about $1,800. The accused were represented by State Senator Clarence W. Perkins. The fine has since been reduced to $10 each and the property returned to the owners.
