MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Divine services will be held by the P. E. congregation of North Kent Parish in Trinity M. E. Church (South) next Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock, and communion will be administered by the Rector.

The building committee are receiving bids on the P. E. Chapel. The plans are all ready and several contractors are at work on them. The plans were drawn by architect W. D. Brinkle, of Wilmington.

Mr. J. E. Hurlock had a valuable work horse stolen from his pasture field last Monday night. The horse was a dark roan, heavily built. Mr. Hurlock has not recovered the animal up to this writing. This is the second offense of this kind in this section recently, as only a few weeks ago Mr. Howard Stevens had a horse stolen, which he recovered after a diligent search of several days in the lower part of Queen Anne's county.

Miss Bessie Hurlock entertained a number of her friends at a watermelon party given in honor of her guest, Miss Enright, of Frederick City, Md., last Monday evening.

Misses Mattie and Mary Hazell entertained a number of their friends at their home on Sassafras street on Tuesday evening at a card party. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing euchre and flinch, at each several prizes were won. A collation of various ices and cakes were served.

Miss Emma Gillespie spent part of this week with Miss Evelyn Cochran.

Miss Susie Watson, of Blackbird, Del., spent last Sunday and Monday with Miss Marion Lockerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Cacy and children, of Dumont, N.J., are visiting Mr. Cacy's sisters, Mrs. R. E. Feddeman and Mrs. W. F. Collins.

Rev. Edwin Gardner and family are visiting friends in New Jersey. Dr. Gardner is having a well-deserved vacation.

Miss Marie Gambrill, of Havre de Grace, Md., spent several days last week with friends in and near town.

Mr. Gilbert Clark, of Philadelphia, spent several days last week with friends in town.

Miss Sue Taylor, of Hursley, Md., has been the guest of Mrs. Joseph Mallalieu several days this week.

Miss Margaret L. Smith, of Smyrna, Del., spent several days last and this week with relatives in town.

Miss Lucy Jones spent several days this week with Miss Gertie Turner, near town.

Mrs. Jennie Bryan and daughter, Miss Clara, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Clendaniel, near Kennedyville.

The Misses Pennington, of Baltimore, are the guests of their uncle, Mr. Liston Pennington, near town.

Mrs. J. Heigh Hill and daughter, Miss Heigh, of near Baltimore, spent several days this week with friends in town.

Mrs. S. R. Sparks, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Julia A. Mallalieu, several days this week.

Miss Julia Cacy has returned after a weeks visit to Atlantic City.

Quite a number from our town spent last Sunday at Marydel camp.

Several young people from our town, "all lovers of dancing," visited Dewey Park last Wednesday evening regardless of the threatening clouds. The German was to be danced and all were anxious to learn the dance which is considered somewhat difficult.

WORTON ITEMS.

The picnic held by the Worton M. E. Sunday School at Betterton on Friday last was a decided success, in every way.

Through the kindness of our superintendent, B. F. Rash, a large four horse wagon loaded with teachers and scholars left Worton, at one o'clock, arriving at Betterton, at three P. M. Refreshments were served in abundance, after which a number enjoyed a delightfull trip in the fine steam launch owned by Mr. Jamie Brice.

Mr. N. B. Gears, our blacksmith, is making a decided improvement in his house, by the addition of porches and back building.

Mrs. Catherine Thomas, of Rock Hall, is spending some time with her son, Captain John Thomas.

Miss Hallie Crew, of Baltimore, has been spending some time with her cousin, Mrs. A. S. Turner.

Mr. J. B. Merrit, of Easton, has returned home after a pleasant visit with his grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Merrit.

Master Hugh Mullin and sister, Miss Ethel, of Wilmington, are rusticating at the pretty home of Mr. B. F. Rash.

Miss Florence Crew and little sister, Laura are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Carter.

Little Miss Sara Turner is visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Habbart, of Fairlee.

Miss Clara Cooper has been visiting Miss Evelyn Carter, of near Lynch's.

STILL POND ITEMS.

A melon party was held at the home of Mr. Joe Bowers last Friday evening, Those present were: Misses Lydia Hackett, Lucille, Bessie and Gladys Parr, Jennie and Annie Bowers, Daisy Ford, Lillian Walters, Messrs. Walter Ford, Clarence and Elwood Ford, Thos. Underwood and Holten Parr.

Mr. Ben Quimby has been spending his vacation with his sister, Mrs. Joe Bowers.

Misses Lucille, Bessie and Gladys Parr are visiting in Galena.

Mr. Herbert Watson is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rasin.

Mrs. Shawn and daughter, Miss Nan, and friend, Mr. Dulin, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Severson and Mr. and Mrs. James Warren.

Mrs. Ryle and two interesting children have returned to their home after visiting Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Holt.

Mrs. Samuel Coleman and daughter, Miss Jennie, are visiting in Baltimore.

Mr. Cougil Allston, of Wilmington, visited Mr. George Covington Tuesday.

Quite a number of our young folks enjoyed a straw ride which went from here to Black's Station Friday evening. Among those who were present were: Miss Anna Smyth, Miss Avis Dodd, of Chestertown; Miss Lynora Davis, of Middletown; Miss Ethel Mullen, of Wilmington; Miss Beula Thompson, of Baltimore; Mrs. Norris, Misses Lydia Hague, Mary Capps, Mabel and Laura Norris, of Still Pond; Miss Lena King, of Warwick; Messrs. Dame Rumor is whispering of a few weddings this fall. BE WISE.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The Betterton baseball team played the strong Port Deposit Club on Tuesday morning with a score of 1 to 0 in favor of Betterton. Much credit is due to Littleton Moore who pitched a fine game. On Tuesday afternoon Betterton defeated Chesapeake City resulting in a score of 2 to 1. Chesapeake's short stop made a home run. Reynolds and Bowse, Betterton's battery, did exceptionally good playing.

It is said by old residents of Betterton that there are more boarders here at present than ever before. On Saturday there were nearly five hundred turned away from the different hotels and cottages.

Miss Elizabeth Brice, of Baltimore, is spending her vacation with her parents.

Miss May Emerson, of Cecilton, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Gertrude Emerson.

Little Misses Marie Brice, Mabel and Maude Jester spent last week with friends at Galena.

Miss Marguerite Kennedy, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kennedy.

Miss Clara H. Bryan, of Millington, is visiting Mrs. W. M. Clendaniel.

The Millington base ball team came to Kennedyville last Saturday to play our boys. They had played but four innings when the rain stopped the game, score standing 1 to 0 in favor of Kennedyville. Come again, boys.

Mrs. Dunlap, of Kenton, Del., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. Boggs.

Rev. and Mrs. Jamison and children are visiting relatives in Baltimore and Western Shore.

*†*A valuable young mare belonging to Mr. John Bell, of Rose Hill farm, got one of its fore-feet caught in a fence, Tuesday and tore the hoof completely off. The fine animal is permanently injured and worthless.

A little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Anyone who makes it a rule to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand knows this to be a fact. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggest.
