LOCAL MATTERS.

Realized Good Prices.—The sales of personal property advertised in the TRANSCRIPT by Messrs. Henry C. Powell and Joseph Edwards, near Kennedyville and Chesterville, respectively, attracted large crowds of spirited bidders. Horses sold as high as $150, and cattle and farming implements sold well at each sale.

Boy Drowned.—Joseph Hodges, colored, was drowned from the schooner Cecelia, Captain Middleton, lying off Bachcus' and Usilton's wharf, sometime Thursday night. It is supposed the boy went to sleep on the deck. He awoke and started down the forepeak when he stumbled and fell overboard. His body was recovered yesterday.

Buys His 33d Farm.—Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, last week purchased the Sheffield farm, containing 454 acres, situated in the first district of Cecil county, for $18,000. This makes thirty-three large and very desirable farms now owned by Capt. Woodall in Kent and Cecil counties. Capt. Woodall is by far the largest land owner in this section.

Contract Awarded.—The building committee of the Millington P. E. Chapel has awarded the contract for the building of a new chapel to replace the one destroyed by fire last year to Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp, of Chestertown. The chapel will be a handsome frame structure and will be an ornament to our sister town. The above firm is also a bidder for the contract to erect the handsome opera house in the town of Centreville.

An Afflicted Family.—Another death from typhoid fever occurred in the family of James Tribbitt, a farmer living near Henderson, Caroline county, early Monday morning, when his oldest daughter, Miss Mary, succumbed to the malady. She was 20 years old. This makes two deaths in this family within three days, the mother dying on Friday of last week and was buried Sunday. There were nine members of this family, five of whom were ill with typhoid fever at the same time. Four of the children are now very low and are not expected to recover. The father, James Tribbitt, is almost heartbroken over his great affliction.

Annual W. C. T. U. Convention.—At a meeting of the executive committe on Wednesday, Aug. 23 the date of the convention was fixed for Sept. 7th, at Kennedyville. Rev. Anna Shaw, of national repute, will deliver an address in the evening. No charge will be made for the lecture, but a supper at 25 cents will be served to defray the necessary expense in securing so eminent a speaker. To give ample time for convention matters, it was decided that all provide their own box lunch at noon. Full program to be announced later. Prizes to students of Washington College for temperance essays will be continued next year.

Mr. Moffett Meets With Accident.—Mr. Robert Moffett met with a singular and painful injury last Friday at the home of his brother. Mr. Moffett had taken a valuable mare and her colt to the farm and when he went to give them some water the mare it is supposed suddenly knocked Mr. Moffett up against the sills of the carriage house making an ugly cut on his forehead and bruising his eye. The blow rendered him unconscious. His brother Mr. Wesley Moffett hurriedly summoned Dr. Frank Smith, who took about 12 stitches in the cut. Mr. Moffett is now under the care of his physician, Dr. H. G. Simpers and the wound is healing nicely.

Slight Fire.—A gasoline stove at the home of Capt. Curtis E. Crane caught fire on Monday afternoon causing a slight blaze. The cook started to light the stove when the gasoline became ignited and made a big blaze. Little Miss Louise Crane gave the alarm of fire by telephoning to the drug store, and Mrs. Thos. W. Perkins whose handsome home adjoins the fine home of Capt. Crane telephoned to her husband at the Savings Bank, and he sounded the alarm as he ran home. When the fire department and the crowd reached the scene, Capt. Crane and Mr. Nesbitt Trenchard were coming out the front door. The fire was extinguished before the fire bell rang.

He Loves Chicken.—A prominent waterman of Chestertown went fishing one day last week with a party of young men. They had prepared to spend the day at the sport, and were "loaded up" with delicious fried chicken, etc. Fishing did not prove exciting on the fishing grounds and while some of them, the waterman among them, were eating lunch, the captain of the vessel made ready to change grounds. The waterman was sitting proudly in the stern of the boat on the guard, with a piece of chicken in one hand and a flask of water in the other. The boat suddenly went forward under three bells and a jingle, and Mr. Waterman went overboard, got tangled up in the live box and spluttered around like a whale. He came to the surface and was hauled aboard, holding the piece of chicken with a deathlike grip. He said he loved that chicken too well to let her go.

To Give Exhibition.—Mr. A. R. Whitelock, an expert engineer, of Baltimore, will be in Chestertown week after next, at the invitation of several prominent citizens, with a $1000 chemical fire engine and two firemen to give an exhibition of the good qualities of the engine as a fire fighter. A large house will be constructed on the outskirts of the town, and the alarm of fire will be sounded by the town clock and bells and the engine, drawn by two fine city fire department horses, will rush to the scene to show how quickly the engine can extinguish the flames. The exact day has not yet been determined. The exhibition will be given with a view to inducing the town to invest in more adequate fire apparatus. It would be advisable for the commissioners of Millington who are contemplating the purchase of fire appartus to come to Chestertown to see the exhibition.

Drank Turpentine.—As a result of drinking turpentine last Thursday, Edith, the two year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rawleigh, laid in an unconscious condition for several hours. Mrs. Rawleigh had left the child up stairs, and had gone below, when the cries of the older daughter, Louise, who was confined to the bed with typhoid, brought her to the scene. Medical aid was summoned at once. The child is much better.

Mr. Wroth Sells Property.—Mr. Thomas G. Wroth sold on Monday to Judge Joseph A. Wickes the house on the corner of High and Front Sts., now occupied by Mrs. Connelly and daughter, Miss Eva, together with a portion of the lot in the rear for $1,050. Judge Wickes, it is said, will remove the house on the corner and make a beautiful grass plat of the lot, which adjoins his fine home. Mr. Wroth has four excellent building lots left, upon one of which he is now erecting a handsome home. Messrs. Duyer Bros. are the contractors.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Popular Firm Expanding.

After eight years of unprecedented success and increase in the volnme of business, which has necessitated the building of no less than five additions to the original five-story structure occupied by it, the firm of Hochschild, Kohn & Co. is once more forced by their immensity increased volume of trade to seek more floor space for their stock, and have purchased the stock and good will of the business, as well as the three-story building occupied by The Charles Simon's Sons Company, at 208 North Howard street.

The firm of Hochschild, Kohn & Co., although only engaged in the department store business in Baltimore for a little less than eight years, has enjoyed the enviable record of have each successive year's business show an increase in volume over its predecessor. After its organization in November, 1897, when it occupied the five story structure at the northwest corner of Lexington and Howard streets, with a frontage of 60 feet on Howard street and 75 feet on Lexington street, it straightway began to take high rank among the department stores of Baltimore, and early acquired a prestige which it has maintained to this day.

By it most recent addition the firm will be able to avail itself of the floor space as well as the stock and good will of one of the oldest firms in Baltimore, the Charles Simon's Sons Company having been in continuous businsss for almost ninety years.

The reason for the purchase of the additional property is the constantly increasing demand for more floor space.

The members of the firm of Hochschild Kohn & Co. are Messrs. Max Hochschild, Louis H. Kohn and Benno Kohn. They were never associated in business until the establishment of the present firm. For many years Mr. Hochschild conducted a retail business under his own name on Gay street, and the Messrs. Kohn were members of the well-known wholesale house of B. Kohn & Co.

The firm is now having a special sale of the stock of the firm of Chas. Simon's Sons. See adv. on eighth page.

Every Woman in America is Interested in This Young Girl's Experience.

PELVIC CATARRH WAS DESTROYING HER LIFE. PE-RU-NA SAVED HER.

Miss Maria Ducharme, 182 St. Elizabeth street, Montreal, Can., writes:

"I am satisfied that thousands of women suffer because they do not realize how bad they really need treatment and feel a natural delicacy in consulting a physician.

"I felt badly for years, had terrible pains, and at times was unable to attend to my daily duties. I tried to cure myself, but finally my attention was called to an advertisement of Peruna in a similar case to mine, and I decided to give it a trial.

"My improvement began as soon as I started to use Peruna and soon I was a well woman. I feel that I owe my life and my health to your wonderful medicine and gratefully acknowledge this fact."—Maria Ducharme.

"Some 12 years ago (1892), while engaged in active practice, I was suddenly attacked with a hemorrhage from the kidneys, accompanied by pain and a sickening, bearing-down sensation. I attributed it to the passing of a 'gravel stone' and the worst would soon be over, but not so. I was treated by some of the best professional talent in America. The case was published in medical journals and brother physicians offered suggestions, but the disease continued until, at last, in despair, after nine (9) long years of the tortures of the damned, I gave up and went to my room to die.
