BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

Howard and Lexington Streets

We prepay Freight Charges to all Points Within 125 Miles of Baltimore on All Purchases Amounting to $5.00 or More.

WE ARE HOLDING A SALE OF THE ENTIRE STOCK OF

THE

CHAS. SIMON'S SONS CO.

208 NORTH HOWARD ST.

We have acquired the building and the entire stock of the Chas. Simon's Sons Co., 208 North Howard Street—next door to us.

This is not news to most of you—the papers told of the acquisition at the time it was made—some weeks ago.

The Simon business is the oldest retail dry goods business in Baltimore. It has an honorable past of 90 years—three generations.

It has always been a high-grade business—never an element of the sensational or the shoddy has entered into it.

By reason of the decision of the members of the firm of The Chas. Simon's Sons Co. to retire from business, there are opportunities to buy the fine goods for which the store is famous at much less than former prices.

Every course of action that has earned for The Chas. Simon's Sons Co. the good-will and respect of the public will be continued for time to come; every tradition that has endeared the store to its patrons will be preserved.

The sale will continue until the entire stock is sold—possibly a month.

The child of seven makes obeisance to the patriarch of ninety—hand-in-hand they will go into the broad future together.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Rock Hall was visited by another fire Sunday morning and found no provision had been made for its reception. Herbert Wilkins lost dwelling and store room. In his efforts to extinguish the fire, he was prevented from saving either his household goods or stock. Mr. Winfield Scott who was the first to see the fire said with one more tub of water he could have easily put out the fire. Hundreds visited the scene of destruction during the day.

The K. of P. held its anniversary on Saturday night, refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake to quite a number of its friends, among whom were many young men—all expressed themselves as having a good time.

Mr. Jack Davis who owns a house and lot in South Rock Hall, rented the house to a colored man and the lot to Mr. Will Carter. In drawing lease for colored man he used "property" instead of house. Mr. Carter planted the lot in potatoes and when he went to dig them the colored man informed him that he had no right to trespass on his property. The colored man brought suit with the result of Mr. Carter having to pay $7.

Prof. Judifind filled Rev. Burr's pulpit on Sunday morning and gave a discourse from the story of Queen Esther, which was well received.

Work was begun towards completing the church on Monday morning. This week the outside will be given a coat of cement and next week the inside will receive attention. After Sept. 3 services will be held in K. of P. hall.

Mr. Joseph Downey has a force of workmen erecting an annex to the school house. Foundation laid and frame raised.

The all absorbing topic is oysters, plenty of them and are in good order. Messrs. Trimble and Parks are kept busy making shafts and Mr. George Ashley is kept constantly engaged in forging tongs.

Mrs. Lee Durding and her daughters Edna and Ruth are visiting friends in Delaware.

Mr. William Ayres is the guest of his nephew, Mr. J. D. Ayres.

Mr. Jeff Ayres has several peach trees well laden with fruit, and a pen of shoats which will dress a thousand lbs. Who can beat it?

Summer boarders are taking their departure and many have engaged rooms for next year. Keeping boarders has been a profitable business especially so those who reside near the water; while our Hotels have not been crowded, the proprietors seem satisfied. Several of Baltimore's teachers are enjoying our salubrious atmosphere, among them we notice Miss Hines of the Kindergarten department, Miss Saunders of Latin in one of the High Schools. These latter obtained permission to inspect the school building as they had heard to much of country schools. They were surprised in not finding three legged stools, hickory birches and John Comnley's speller.

Miss Allie Bordley, daughter of the late William Bordley, of Savannah, Ga., is registered at Hotel in Gratitude.

No one will miss the boarders more than our genial baker who has been supplying them with bread, cakes and buns. He and corner druggist have shaken off that feeling of lethergy and now step with elasticity, their face illumined, exclaiming eureka!

Rev. T. B. Gardner, of N. Y., formerly of this county, with his wife are visiting friends in this town and vicinity.

Resolutions of respect to the late Wesley K. Ayres was passed by the K. of P. at a special meeting on Monday night.

We are glad to report Mrs. Benj. Coburn convalescent.

Fishing pays! Capt. James Middleton has enclosed his yard and lot with a substantial and beautiful fence, which adds much to the appearence of his comfortable home.

Mr. Frank Parsons, who until recently has been employed by Mr. Miller, has invested in oystering paraphernalia in order to obtain blistered hands, swarthy complexion and acheing limbs.

Mr. Thomas Warren, our village shoemaker, is contemplating the disposal of his goods and going to the hospital. He is a great sufferer from Hernia.

We shall envy your town next week, when beauty, wit and lore will gather within your educational halls, but nevertheless, we extend greeting and hope that you, Messrs. Editors, will use some restraining method to prevent Cupid from sewing seed, which, when germinated, give the School Board and Supt. trouble in the future.

Mr. Thomas Ayres, who has long been a sufferer from rhumatism, thinks he has discovered a remedy which produces a permanent cure.

The channel will soon be completed. Shall we have a steamer at Sharps wharf or will it, like the trolley and the railroad, end in talk?

Misses Carrie Dear, Julia Kaschner, Mary Lonax and niece, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. James Walmsley.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mrs. William Stanley has returned home after visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Mary Harper, of New York, has been visiting the Misses Lena and Florence Rasin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walters.

Little Beatrice Daulton, of Philadelphia, is visiting her cousin, Hope Hackett.

The Epworth League was led Sunday evening by Rev. Mr. Holt.

Miss Jennie Bowers and Miss Alla Price are visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Urie.

Mrs. Thomas Norris, wife of our postmaster, has been quite sick the past week. We hope she will soon be well and out among her pretty flowers.

Mrs. Hill and Miss Silcox, of Pennsylvania are the guests of Mrs. and Miss Vansant.

Mr. Robert Stevens, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mr. Page Strong, of Edesville.

BE WISE.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mr. James Sawdon, Jr., a respected resident of Wilmington, Del., died at his home in that city last Thursday of paralysis, aged 75 years. Mr. Sawdon was a familiar figure in this vicinity, and was well-liked by everyone and his manner was always pleasant and genial towards everyone, both old and young. Mr. Sawdon was a very successful butcher in Wilmington, many years ago, and amassed considerable wealth, but he met with reverses, and the prolonged illness and death of his first wife was the cause of his wealth disappearing. In later years he connected himself with the firm of Johnson Brothers, and spent a greater part of his time travelling through the country purchasing live stock, poultry and other country produce for the firm. He was well-known through Queen Anne and Kent county, but always made Hotel Bailey his headquarters. His death came as a shock to the many friends he made here, as he had been in town all the preceeding week, and only left here Friday afternoon before his death occured in apparently good health. His second wife and two sons survive him. His funeral took place from his late residence in Wilmington Monday afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. Fletcher Devnish took place Tuesday at his home near Barkley, and interment was made in Massey cemetery. Mr. Devnish was formerly a blacksmith at Massey, but was injured in shoeing a horse several years ago which impaired his health to such an extent that he gave up blacksmithing and started in the merchandise business. He bought the stock of J. J. Morris, Jr., here, and continued in the business until his health compelled him to give up such an active life. He then went to live on his farm near Barkley, but his health has been continually failing. Mr. Devnish had many friends here. He was very active in Asbury M. E. Church and Sunday School, where he had a class of young boys. His wife and one son survive him.

The festival which was held in the large new store building of Mr. D. J. Hall last Friday and Saturday was a decided success. Friday evening the inclement weather kept a great many away, but Saturday evening the building was crowded, and a good sum was realized. Everything was sold out by 10 P. M. but a small quantity of confectionery which was auctioned off. The proceeds were for the benefit of the P. E. Chapel.

A great number of persons attended the fair at Tolchester this week. Every morning vehicles of every description could be seek driving to Fredericktown to take the boat for the fair grounds.

Mr. F. A. Emory, of Centreville, has made arrangements for the erection of a large modern, convenient hotel on the corner of Sassafras and Cypress Sts. It is to be a large frame structure. Mr. Garner, the contractor, is to begin work at once as the lumber is now being hauled. When the hotel is completed it will be a great improvement to that part of the town, and there will be very few towns on the peninsula who can boast of prettier hotels and finer stores than our little town.

Dr. Frank Gardner, of Smyrna, Del., and Mr. R. W. Moffett, of our town, spent this week at Tolchester as witnesses to the fair.

Mr. T. A. Vansant and daughter, Miss Fanny Foxwell Vansant, spent a few days with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Mary Miller, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Annie Bailey at the Hotel Bailey.

Mrs. Celia Webb, of Chester, Pa., spent several days with Mrs. Martha A. Price.

Miss Julia Benson is visiting in Baltimore county.

Mr. Dukehart, of Baltimore, spent last Sunday with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. T. K. Dukehart.

Miss Edith Foster, of Baltimore, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Eva Comegys.

Miss Marion Lockerman is visiting relatives in New Castle county.

Mrs. Lizzie Brickman and son, Master Arthur, of Baltimore, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Jeter.

Mrs. Emma Jerman, of Smyrna, Del., spent Monday with Mrs. F. Crouch.

Mrs. Anna L. Whitehouse, of Wilmington, Del., and her brother-in-law, Mr. Whitehouse, of Augusta, Maine, spent several days this week at the Hotel Bailey, the guest of her brother, Mr. D. J. Hall.

Mr. J. L. Smith, of Philadeiphia, spent Tuesday with his aunt, Mrs. Martha A. Price.

Master Victor Pennington spent last week with relatives in Baltimore.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The large crowds which have lingered at Betterton for the past two months are commencing to slowly thin out. There has been more people here the past season than ever before and all have been pleased with their treatment and return to their city homes regretfully.

Betterton baseball team won its tenth successive game on Tuesday by defeating the Perryville Stars. Winning batteries were Owens and Moore. Score 5 to 4.

A unique dance was held at the Betterton Casino on Wednesdoy evening. Ladies were charged ten cents and gentlemen were admitted free.

Miss Elizabeth Gallagher is the guest of Mrs. Horace Brice.

Miss Evelyn Ford, of Lambson's Station is visiting friends here.

Mr. Henry Davis has been visiting at the parental home near Still Pond.

Miss Annie Somers was called to Balby the illness of her aunt.

Miss Gertrude Emerson has returned home from a pleasant visit to relatives in Cecilton.

Rev. Neal, of Philadelphia, occupied the pulpit on Sunday morning preaching a very instructive sermon. On Sunday evening Presiding Elder Koons was with us and held Second Quarterly Conference. Our pastor, Rev. Ford, is away on a two weeks vacation.

Miss Nina Scott, of Baltimore, has returned home after a delightful visit to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Canby, of Betterton, Md.

Dr. Louis Seyman a well-known society man, of Rhode Island, is visiting Mr. L. Harris Crew, Still Pond. The Doctor and Mr. Crew were friends at college.

Miss Mary Strong, of Rock Hall, has been the guest of Miss Nan Price, of near Betterton.

Miss Mary Hyland, of Cockeysville, Md., is visiting Miss Charlotte Wilson, of Rock Hall.
