Sale of Lace Curtains and Portieres

The Chas. Simon' s Sons Co. Stock and Our Own Stock

With new goods coming in, the Upholstery Store is put to it for room. We' re cleaning out the current stocks in preparation for the fall opening, not so much because of radical changes to come in styles, but so as to be able to say "It's New,"—for, said a man who makes a study of upholstery styles, " if you didn' t know which was which you couldn' t tell the old from the new." And this applies to lace curtains as well as to the tapestries—not literally, you know, but largely so. So much so that to buy at

Savings That Run From a Fourth to a Third of Regular Prices

means to save handily on Lace Curtains and Portieres that—it may very well happen—are not distinguishable from incoming styles, unless one is "up" in the business. And even so, given a handsome pattern in a lace certain, for example, it always holds its own by virtue of the dignity of its beauty—and the beautiful never grows old.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Messrs. Culp, the contractors and builders, who secured the contract for the erection of the P. E. Church, began work Monday morning, and are making rapid progress laying the foundation. The weather is delightful for such work. The contractors say they will have the church completed in November.

Mr. F. A. Emory is having his lot cleaned up preparatory to building the hotel, which is to be erected at once. Mr. Garner, of Warwick, contractor and builder, is to build the hotel. It is a difficult matter to get the debris hauled, as horses and carts are scarce, and just now the farmers and their teams are very busy hauling grain, plowing, etc. The hotel is to be ready for occupancy by the new year. The brick and lumber are being hauled, and the old cellar being cleaned out.

Mr. J. E. Higman has purchased the flour and feed mill formerly owned and operated by Mr. E. W. Spear. He also purchased the meadow and land adjoining the mill, and lot where the house stood before the fire. His son, Mr. J. W. Higman, is running the mill, Mr. Higman taking possession Sept. 1. They have retained Mr. Spear's head miller, Mr. Walter Tolson.

Mr. J. E. Hurlock has recovered the farm horse which was stolen from his pasture field on Aug. 15. The man was arrested near Cordova by Sheriff Geo. A. Whiteley and Constable Robt. Coursey, of Queen Anne's. Constable Frank Lockerman had been searchlng for him but it seemed his search was fruitless when he received word the miscreant was safe in the hands of the authorities who made the arrest. Wednesday, Aug. 30, he was brought to Millington and placed in the lockup. After having a hearing and being placed under $500.00 bail, he confessed to having stolen Mr. Hurlock's horse and several others, and seems to have made a living at it. Thursday evening he was handcuffed, and about to be placed in a carriage to be taken to Chestertown jail when he made a dart and ran with great speed to a branch which runs through the town. Constable Lockerman, with a posse, had been searching for him until late Monday night, when it was learned he had been recaptured and landed in Centreville jail. Mr. Hurlock's horse was a fine farm horse, highly prized by his owner, who feels greatly grieved at the treatment it has received, as he says it looks like an old race horse, it is so thin and poor. He feels he was very fortunate to recover him at all.

Mr. Lewis S. Price has given in his resignation as assistant postmaster, and will follow the pursuits of farming. He has sold his new home on Cypress street to Mr. W. J. Hurlock, who will take possession at once, and Mr. Price and family will move to Mr. Hurlock's farm, which is about three miles north of Millington. His resignation was accepted by Postmaster Dr. F. A. Walls, and he has secured the services of his nephew, Mr. Paul Harrison, of Crumpton, and installed him in the postoffice as assistant. Mr. Price made a very efficient assistant postmaster, and rendered excellent service to the public, always being at his post and serving the public with great promptness. We hope our present assistant will be as attentive to the public as his predecessor has always been.

The schools open here next Monday, Sept. 11th.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Slebourne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist.
