WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

124th Session to Begin on Wednesday—Enlarged Faculty—Bright Prospect for Large Enrollment of Students.

The 124th Session of Washington College will begin on Wednesday next, September 20, under very favorable auspices. Dr. James W. Cain, president of the College, has been making a tour of the peninsula during the summer, and has been attending educational gatherings in the interest of the College, and he has brought the institution before the public in such a manner as to induce a larger number of students to attend the college during the coming year than formerly. The prospects therefore for a larger enrollment than last year are very bright.

During the summer vacation three new instructors have been added to the faculty: Dr. Gault, Prof. Hau and Miss Townsend. Dr. Gault will be in charge of the Normal Department with the title of professor of psychology; Prof. Hau takes Miss Burchinal's chair of modern languages, she having been granted a two years leave of absence in order to attend Bryn Mawr. Miss Townsend will have charge of the vocal and instrumental music. All of these instructors will be valuable acquisitions to the already efficient faculty, as they have had a number of years experience in college work and are graduates of universities and conservatories of high standard. Nearly all of the faculty have returned to Chestertown, and will be ready for work upon the opening of school on Wednesday.

With Our Advertisers.

Mr. Arling L. Sparks has a change of advertisement on page 5 which our readers will do well to read this morning. Mr. Sparks has secured the services of Miss Taylor, of Baltimore, who is an expert trimmer of years of experience. She will assist Miss O'Connor in the millinery department. Read his advertiement.

Read Wm. A. Carroll's advertisement in this morning's paper about school shoes. It will save you money if you need anything in his line.

Tuesdays and Saturdays are bargain days at Clifton L. Jarrell's. You can get real bargains and a great variety of them.

Take a look at Medders & Co's, 5 and 10 cent department. It is filled with good values in all lines of goods. See advertisement on page 8.

Sept. 18 is the date of the manufacturers display in Baltimore. Hochschild Kohn & Co. will be in it and Baltimore's best store will be headquarters for all visitors.

Mr. J. M. South will reopen the photograph gallery on Queen street for 90 days beginning Sept. 25th. See advertisement in this issue.

Change in Rural Routes.

Postmaster M. W. Thomas has received instructions from the Postoffice Department to direct changes in routes of rural carries No 1, 2 and 3, effective on Sept. 15th, as follows:

Carrier No. 1, Mr. Kendall will have his route shortened, and will receive his mail at the Chestertown office.

Carrier No. 2, Mr. Willis will serve Tolchester Beach, but will not go round Rees' corner.

Carrier No. 3, Mr. Woods, will serve Cliff City.

Mr. Thomas is also directed to supply the postoffice at Tolchester Beach with locked pouch by rural carrier No. 2.

OBITUARY.

MRS. LAURA KENDALL.

Mrs. Laura Kendall, wife of Mr. Arthur Kendall, died at her late home near St. Paul's Church, last Thursday morning. The funeral services were conducted at the house at 11 A. M. Saturday, interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. Besides a husband, five children survive, Walter R., Spencer, May, Georgie and Elsie Kendall.

Mr. Burgess's Sunflower.—Mr. Samuel Burgess, of Edesville, has a sunflower in his potato patch that is probably the most prolific blooming plant of its species in the State. Sometime ago Mr. Burgess read an article in the Baltimore Sun, which stated that a person somewhere in the State had a sunflower which had 17 blooms upon it. This prompted Mr. Burgess to count the blooms upon his plant. He and his wife and daughter counted the blooms, and there were 104 upon it. If any one can beat this anywhere in Maryland, let's hear from them. We have always claimed that Kent county is far ahead of the rest of the world.

*†*The town clock has been put in thorough repair by jeweler A. Levine, and is now a reliable time-keeper.
