HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
To find relief and cure?
No reason why any reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Lots of men recede from ultimatums.

You might as well say a man steals as to say he is frightened.

Any quarrel is unpleasant, but a domestic difficulty is the worst.

Haven't you said a thousand times you wouldn't stand certain things and then stood them?

Some people complain because they can't get justice who should really be grateful because they don't get it.

It doesn't require as much patience to put a baby to sleep as it does to fish, but the men can't see it that way.

How often do you know you are right, and yet the man you are arguing with is convinced you are not! And he half convinces you that you are wrong.—Atchison Globe.

A Straight Tip.

A congressman was lunching alone in a Cincinnati cafe. Near by sat a dignified gentleman, who casually asked his waiter, "How is business?" The man said he was not doing well, upon which the dignified individual expressed regret, saying, "Personally I have always treated your craft in this house generously." The waiter was assiduous in his attentions and helped the guest on with his coat. The dignified man laid his hand on the waiter's arm and said: "Young man, you seem to be discontented with your lot, and I am going to give you the best tip you ever received. Get into some other business." And he strolled away, leaving the waiter speechless.

Economy.

The following letter was received from his sister by a New Yorker who was away from home on a visit:

I am sending by mail a parcel containing the golf coat you wanted. As the brass buttons are heavy I have cut them off to save postage. Your loving sister,

J.

P. S.—You will find the buttons in the right hand pocket of the coat.

United.

English Rector (to parishioner)—Good morning, Thompson! I hear you have a son and heir. Parishioner—Yes, sir; our household now represents the United Kingdom. Rector—How so? Parishioner—Why, you see, I am English, my wife's Irish, the nurse is Scotch, and the baby wails.—Harper's Weekly.

His Terrible Accident.

Admiring Young Listener—And how did you lose your leg? Old Salt—Well, young man, one night in the dog watch, while I was carryin' the baby jib, I stepped on a starboard tack, and blood plsin ensooed.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Large Mortgage.

—The largest mortgage ever offered in Cecil county, was filed on Saturday by the McCall's Power Company, and is executed to the Knickerbocker Trust Company, of New York. The proceeds, $10,000,000, will be used to establish the proposed hydro-electric plant to be erected at McCall's Ferry on the Susquehanna. A dam, rivalling the famous one built on the Nile, in Egypt, will be erected at the ferry.

AMERICA IS NOW AHEAD.

Mr. Hutzler says Europe must get Ideas Here.

Old Country Surpasses Us In Building Streets And Handling Traffic On Them, But That's All.

"The time is not far distant when Europe will come to the United States for new ideas," said Mr. David Hutzler, of Baltimore, this week. Mr. Hutzler, with his family, returned last week from a sojourn in Europe.

"We are far ahead of Europe in almost everything," continued Mr. Hutzler; "and the business people over there can't keep up with the American. I visited the biggest retail store in Berlin, and the cash-handling system in use there wonld not be tolerated in this country for a minute. The people here won't waste the time they have to waste in Europe."

"What did you see in Europe that you considered worthy of adoption here?" was asked.

"Well, the streets were well-paved in every European city we visited. No matter where we went, the streets were smooth and solid. I noticed particularly that wherever a street was being opened for any purpose the foundation was found to be very deep and substantial. I asked how such substantial and durable pavements were secured, and was told that the Government always looked after the matter of street-paving and saw that there was no graft. Not only were the streets solid and smooth in every European city I visited, but the roads leading to the cities were just as good. This is just as true of the ordinary byways as of the military roads. In this connection, I learned while abroad that London has recently appropriated 25,000,000 for the opening of a few streets. This means that the work will be done in a substantial and permanent manner."

LARGE EXPORT TRADE.

Prospects Encouraging For Grain Merchants.

City grain merchants look for a large export trade in corn this fall. Up to the present the prospects have been most encouraging. The crop is large, and foreign buyers have already shown a disposition to place orders in Baltimore.

"I do not know whether the yellow-fever scare in New Orleans has anything to do with it or not," said Mr. James A. Clark, president of the Canton Export Company, "but it is certain that some of our old friends on the other side have begun to look us up. Inquiries have been received from old customers who have not dealt with Baltimore for several years. Unless the unexpected happens, Baltimore will do a big export trade this coming year."

Death Of Mr. Wm. H. Richardson.

Mr. William H. Richardson died of a complication of diseases on last Saturday at his home, 1527 Myrtle avenue Baltimore, where he had been confined for six weeks. Mr. Richardson had been in bad health for several months. He was 67 years old. Mr. Richardson had been the editor of the Argus, a weekly newspaper, for a number of years. Earlier in life he took an active interest in politics, having at one time been sergeant at arms of the Maryland Senate. His newspaper was considered somewhat unique. Presidents, United States Senators and Governors of Maryland were raked over the coals by Mr. Richardson in a choice assortment of words. Some of the epithets he applied to those that displeased him still cling to them. His favorite way of showing contempt for a man was to spell his name in small letters. A widow, who was Miss Catherine R. Hanson of Chestertown, Md., survives Mr. Richardson. He had five children, all of whom are dead. One son—William K. Richardson—was connected for several years with the Baltimore dailies. Rev. C. Herbert Richardson, presiding elder of the Baltimore district, Methodist Episcopal Church, is his brother. Mr. Richardson was buried on Monday.

Deadly Cigarettes.

"Coffin nails," William C. Werner called his cigarettes, of which he smoked on the average 50 a day.

He died at his work on Thursdy in the office of Rheinhart's Express, 14 Lafayette street, Newark. A half-consumed cigarette was between his fingers as he fell from his chair.

"Cigarette smoking to an abnormal degree" was written in the death certificate as the cause of death by County Physician McKenzie. He said that nicotine had undoubtedly caused the formation of a clot on the brain.

Not for My Own Interest

ENTIRELY,

But for Yours, Too.

I am going to make a change in store-room and location. I have fully decided to move from the store I am now occupying to a much better store and location, and will add to the Jewelry business a very salable line of goods. In order to carry this out I am compelled to reduce my stock that I have on hand, and the only way to sell it is to sell it for what it will bring, and therefore I have decided to have regular sales on Saturday and Saturday nights. Will sell my entire line of Clocks, Silver-plated hollowware, Rogers' Tableware, Domestic Sewing Machines. Will also sell Watches and Jewelry, mostly for ladies, Spectacles and Eye Glasses, etc. The sale will begin next Saturday, July 8th.

Read this advertisement carefully and bear in your mind that opposition is the life of trade. I ask the patronage of the public. I remain with all my strength to serve the public.

Respectfully,

A. LEVINE
