MILLINGTON MATTERS.

The corner stone of Holy Cross P. E. Chapel was laid last Tuesday evening at 5.30 P. M. by the Right Rev. Leighton Coleman, Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware, assisted by Rev. Mr. Edson, of Shrewsbury Parish, Rev. Mr. Schouler, of Elkton, and Rev. Albert Ware, rector of North Kent Parish of which Parish Holy Cross is the chapel. The Bishop is extremely interisting, and his address was greatly enjoyed by everyone, as he is much beloved by everyone in the parish. He had preached in Holy Cross just before the fire destroyed the chapel last year, and was greatly grieved at the loss, as he is a dear and personal friend of the rector. Everyone enjoyed his remarks of encouragement, and hope we shall have the pleasure of hearing him very often when the chapel is completed; quite a number missed the laying of the stone.

Mrs. Frank L. Smith entertained the Woman's Auxiliary of North Kent Parish at her home on Sassafras street, last Thursday afternoon at 2.30 P. M.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Just before the oyster season opened very flattering reports were circulated concerning the oyster; recent developments prove these a myth. Small oysters are plentiful and if they were not disturbed for 2 years, oystering would be a lucrative business. This is the general opinion of the oldest tongers. Rest is what they need and unless the bar receives it very soon the occupation of the oysterman is gone. Why not come together and agree on some plan now. If continued these young oysters will be gone and it will take more than that time to recover. Several have beeched their boats and left for Steelton where they have found employment. The question, what shall we do while waiting, can be better answered now than it will next spring. Some are advocating a strict enforcement of the Cull-law, others the Haman-law and when the next legislature meets to decide this question they too will be divided. Get together, decide what will be the best for the majority, then instruct our delegates as to your decision.

"What have you done," was the question from which the Rev. Burr preached on Sunday morning. The question was so pertinent, and so emphatic that the audience are made to realize how little they had contributed to the upbuilding of the Master's kingdom.

The work on the church has been deferred owing to a peculiar demand made by the contractor, not exactly a strike. Contractor Downey has been rushing work on the school building, and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mr. James Warmsley has been quite a sufferer from an abcess on his foot, caused by removing a splinter with a needle.

One of Mr. B. I. Ashley's boys was burned severely by the overturning of a cup of boiling coffee, while on a visit to Baltimore.

School opened with 33 new pupils. Each room is full. Miss Alrich occupies the room with the principal, Miss Middleton with the vice-principal.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the Convention held at Kennedyville last week:

WHEREAS, Our all-wise Father has permitted us to assemble in Convention to sum up the year's work, to review failures and recount victories, also to prayerful deliberations as to its future actions, we beg to offer the following:

Resolved, That we deplore the condition of affairs existing in our villages, especially on Saturday nights when the traveling saloon is so much in evidence; also that our prominent business men seem to ignore the fact.

WHEREAS, recent disasters and menancing conditions on board sailing vessels are traced to the use of liquor,

Resolved, that we ask owners and masters of them, as a means for the protection of our local option county and for the safety of seamen, not to permit the transportation or use of liquors.

Resolved, that we appreciate the recommendation of the recent Grand Jury to merchants to keep within the limit of the law in regard to the sale of cigarettes and tobacco.

Resolved, that conditions in Chestertown and other villages warrant our taking steps toward the securing of a Curfew Law.

Resolved, that we wish to express our appreciation of the efforts made for our pleasure and comfort during the convention, much of which is due to Shafer, Redmile & Co., for use of hall for serving meals.

Resolved, that to the Womans Christian Temperance Union, the church officials, the choir and those who have contributed to the success of the convention, we extend our hearty thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE.

*†*The canneries at Lynch's and Still Pond are being operated by Bohemian labor. One of the prominent employees of the Numsen cannery at the wharf said on Sunday, if we should have a long rain the coming week, it will be "all up" with the tomato crop. We guess it's "all up" as the "long rain" come the next day.
