LOCAL MATTERS.

Names to go on Ballot.—The Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county has decided that the names of the three independent candidates for County Commissioners, Messrs. John C. Smith, Charles L. Goodhand and John H. Evans, must go upon the official ballot. The case will be appealed.

Fall Strawberries.—Mr. Daniel S. Richardson, of Townsend, Del., has developed a new autumn—bearing variety of strawberries which bids fair to make both fame and fortune for its originator. The peculiar trait is that it bears a large second crop in the fall without any diminution of the first crop in the spring. Mr. Richardson now has a large quantity of berries ripening for which he is receiving fifty cents per quart.

Team Stolen.—Last Saturday night Mr. Herbert Matthews, living near Worton Station, loaned one of his white hands a a team, ostensibly for the purpose of driving to town. He did not return Saturday night or Sunday and Mr. Matthews notified the authorities of the law. The man was caught in Philadelphia on Wednesday with the team. Mr. Matthews went to Philadelphia on Thursday to identify the man and to recover his team.

Better Train Service.—A letter from the Postoffice Department in Washington states that, through the efforts of the TRANSCRIPT and those citizens of of the town who signed a petition and forwarded it to the department asking for better mail facilities, the matter has been brought to the attention of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and better service is promised in the future. Chestertown should have as good service as Easton or Centreville, and it is hoped the Pennsylvania Company will give us a passenger train in the morning as well as in the afternoon.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*The circus is coming Oct. 2.

*†*These are autumn days now. The sun enters Capricorn to-day.

*†*Miss Avis Dodd has received a scholarship to Washington College.

*†*Frost was reported in this locality for the first time last Friday.

*†*Old corn is quoted at 59½ cents in Baltimore. Anybody in Kent got any to sell?

*†*Look where you will nowadays you will see someone with a fishing rod and line.

*†*Mr. Milton Baker's house is being painted a pretty pearl color with white trimmings and green shutters.

*†*Mr. Claude F. Parks has rented the house on Queen street now occupied by Mr. Clark and will move there Jan. 1.

*†*Contractor Downey is putting the finishing touches on Rock Hall school's new addition. It will be ready for occupancy Nov. 1.

*†*Mr. Louis C. Ayres has sold his property in Rock Hall, formerly the W. S. Maslin property, to Mrs. Mary E. Saunders for $825.

*†*The new fences recently erected around the jail property have been painted a pretty color this week by Mr. Thomas B. Elliott.

The strawstacks on the farm of Mr. Alfred DuShane, near Black's, were destroyed by fire last Tuesday night. It is supposed they were accidentally fired.

*†*Mrs. Mamie E. Wilkins has purchased the Young property in Rock Hall for $1,810 instead of $1812.50 as heretofore reported. The sale was negotiated by Wm. W. Beck Esq.

*†*Mrs. S. A. Copper and family have removed from High street to Seaford, Del. Their former residence will be occupied next year by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Clements, of near Chesterville.

*†*Mr. Starr, of Western Pennsylvania, has purchased of Mrs. R. H. Nourse, her pretty country home near Pomona. Price $2200. Sale negotiated by Sidney P. Townshend and J. Waters Russell.

*†*Several of the Eastern Shore towns are infested with burglars, Easton and Ridgely in particular. Our officers will be on the lookout for any suspicious characters araund Chestertown and vicinity.

*†*There was on display in Mr. Arlington L. Sparks' pretty show window on Thursday evening a beautiful night blooming cereus, belonging to Miss Etta Edwards. It attracted a great deal of attention.

*†*Mrs. Thomas W. Eliason had on exhibition at her home an Spring Ave, on Wednesday evening a magnificent night blooming cereus. Many friends called to view the beautiful plant which was replendent with large blooms.

*†*The warm weather of the week has affected considerably the price and catch of oysters. Large oysters are reported very scarce, and some of the oystermen have "pulled out" and gone to Steelton for employment.

*†*The ladies are complaining greatly of the scarcity of all kinds of fruits and vegetables for canning. Tomatoes are so scarce that it is difficult to get a basket for canning, and as for peaches, well, they are worth their weight in gold. So different from ye olden times.

*†*Mr. Edward Lusby's sale of personal property advertised in the TRANSCRIPT was attended by a large crowd and auctioneer Hurlock got good prices. Horses sold as high as $100, and cows $50. Farming implements sold correspondingly well.

*†*Messrs. J. Roland, J. Wilbur and J. Westaway went fishing last Thursday off Mr. J. Westcott's shore, near deep point. They spent a pleasant day and came away with 234 fine rock and perch. This is certianly the way to spend a pleasant day and pull the finny tribe that come from the bay.

*†*It is currently reported that Mr. R. G. Nicholson, one of our most progressive farmers, near town, has a field of the largest corn in the county. It is uniform all over the field, and Mr. Nicholson expects to get close to 100 bushels per acre. The field contains 35 acre.

*†*The directors of the Kent County Savings Bank met at their banking house on Wednesday and re-elected Mr. J. K. Aldridge president and Mr. Milbourn Toulson vice-president. The newly elected directors, Mr. Wm. F. Russell and Dr. G. Irvin Barwick, qualified.

*†*Messrs. Max Alexander and Stanley Downey, two prominent young men of Rock Hall, had a thrilling experience last Sunday while making a trip in a canoe from Rock Hall to Love Point. The young men were caught in a heavy windstorm at the mouth of the river, and their boat came near being swamped. They were towed to safety by a gasoline launch.

OPENING OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

Washington College opened its 124th session with an increased attendance in both the Collegiate and Normal Departments. The attendance on opening day numbered 145, with the probablity that it will exceed 150 when all have reported. This represents a gain in attendance of more than twenty per cent. in the last two years.

There are several gratifying features in connection with the attendance this year. Practically all the old students have returned, the few that have withdrawn being forced to do so by peculiar circumstances at home. Of the new students, an unsual number comes from the larger towns of the State, and are graduates of the high schools or other advanced schools: nearly one-half of those applying for admission are of this class. They will, therefore, enter college or higher normal classes, and be more inclined to remain until graduation. Among those who had not graduated there are several who had nearly completed the high school course, and will probably be able to enter the collegiate classes on examination. Many of those who had an opportunity to enter the Baltimore Normal School applied, either through their county Boards or the State Board, to be assigned to Washington Normal. So far as these requests could be granted without injustice to those who were entitled to enter here, the wish was complied with.

The accommodations for students is greatly overtaxed. The halls for the young men are filled to the unmost, and the lack of more rooms has lessened the attendance of boys. Normal Hall is not sufficient to accommodate the young ladies, and boarding places had to be found for eight who could not be taken into the hall.

The new instructors have all reported and have taker up their duties in a manner to indicate that they will be valuable additions to the faculty. During the summer the Visitors and Governors appointed Dr. Gault, Professor of Pedagogy; Professor Hau, French and German, and Miss Townsend, vocal and instrumental music.

The resignation of Mr. Burris has made it necessary to appoint his successor in charge of Physical Training. An excellent man has agreed to accept the position, and will doubtless be appointed at an early meeting of the Board. He is not only well qualified to take charge of the gymnasium, but is known as one of the best foot ball coaches of last season, a base ball player and all-round athlete. Among the new students are several heavy men who will make good material for the foot ball team.

The following new students have matriculated:

Anderson, Eva Virginia, Church Hill, Md.; Beck, Margaret Louise, Worton, Md.; Bounds, Lillie Wolford, Quantico, Md.; Bowers, Jennie, Still Pond, Md.; Breeding, Thomas Mark, Federalsburg, Md.; Briscoe William Norwood; Brown, Ethel Jane, Pomona, Md.; Clarke, Mary Reed, Church Hill, Md.; Clough, Mary Rebecca, Church Hill, Md.; Coleman, Myrtle Ella, Coleman, Md.; Cooper, Edythe Jarrell, Goldsborough, Md.; Corddry, Harris S., Snow Hill, Md.; Corddry, W. IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of William Ralph, son of William and Bessie Davis, who died Sept. 2, aged 1 year, 8 months and 12 days.

Fold the little hands so waxen,
O'er the pulseless baby breast,
For our little one is sleeping,
In death's long and dreamless rest.
Press the gold-fringed eyelids gently,
O'er the sunny trusting eyes,
Eyes that, closed on earth forever,
Open up in Paradise.

Vain we question why it happened,
How it can be for the best?
Asking why those feet so early
On their journey, needed rest?
But though hearts are aching, broken,
With the dull, unceasing pain;
Though the light of life seems vanished,
Never to come back again,

Yet, oh! who would wish to call him,
From his home of light above?
Who would ask that God had left him
Here, to cheer us with his love?
Even with our love to guide him,
In the paths of good and right,
Would he still have entered heaven,
With a soul so pure and white?
