ROCK HALL ITEMS.

The pupils and teachers of Piney Neck High School will hold a festival on the school grounds on Saturday, October 14.

Wednesday was a red letter day in the history of Rock Hall. The 1500 lb. bell was placed in the belfry of the M. E. Church. All day crowds were grouped here and there watching the preparation of the contrivances used by the workmen.

The Messrs. Coleman are applying the cement to the outside of the church, representing blocks of stone 32 inches by 10 inches. When completed will be one of the finest churches in the county.

The school building is completed, and now awaits furniture, which will soon be supplied.

Miss Fannie McIntyre, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Maude Miller at the Miller hotel.

Mr. Frank Stevens suffered a slight stroke of paralysis on the 26th ult. We are glad to report him better. His mother and brother, of Baltimore, are with him.

Dr. A P. Sharp was in Rock Hall last week on business. The doctor is looking well and thoroughly enjoys the atmosphere of his old home.

Mrs. Samuel Wickes returned from Baltimore on Saturday, where she has been visiting friends.

Mr. Joseph Kendall, Sr., caught six dozen fish on Saturday with hook and line, besides three bushels of oysters. Rock of fine size are plentiful on the bar. They follow the tongs up from the bottom in large numbers. Many of the oystermen take their fishing tackle with them and bring home large quantities. With shrimp for bait, it is fine sport.

The change of schedule by our steamboat company works a hardship on the citizens here. Round trips on Saturdays are a great convenience to the shoppers, especially the ladies.

St. John's festival was well attended and quite a sum was realized. It is surprising from where the money comes.

Master Lloyd Rollison celebrated his 7th birthday Saturday, Sept. 30, by inviting some of his little friends to his home. Those present were: Leona Elbourn, Claud Elbourn, Mildred Williams, Louise Ashley, Charlie Rodney, Howard Beaver, Nelson and Joseph Coleman, Anna Rodney, Mary and Alice Dowling. Refreshments were served at 4 o'clock consisting of cake, lemonade, candies and fruits, in abundance.
