LOCAL MATTERS.

Horse Races at Millington.—The latter part of this month races will be held on the track, near Millington, at which time a number of the peninsula horses that have done good work on the turf this season will start in the races. Annie H., Barnett B, Hallock M., Ned Wilkes, Flora Bell, Joe Belton and other blooded horses will participate in this racing carnival.

Hanging to be Strictly Private.—John M. Simpers, convicted of the murder of Albert Constable, Esq., will be taken from the Maryland Penitentiary to the Elkton jail on Tuesday next, October 17, by Sheriff Biddle. The death watch will be placed over him immediately, and the execution will take place at the jailyard on October 20. In accordance with the instructions of the Court and in compliance with the law, the execution will be strictly private.

High Tide.—The tide in the river during the storm on Wednesday rose as high as the middle of the road on Front street. It was the highest tide for several years, but the water did not rise as high as it did many years ago, when the basements and cellars of nearly all of the residences on Front street were flooded. There was no damage to shipping or property save the depositing of a little mud in cellars and on grass yards. The tide did not cover the floor of the bridge.

Another Team Stolen.—A team belonging to Mr. Samuel Minner, living on the Stewart farm, near town, was stolen on Monday night, show night, from the rack in front of Mr. John Bartley's store. The team was found on Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. John McKee, in Morgnec. A colored man was arrested on Wednesday morning by Constable Chas. Gill, charged with stealing the team. He is in jail awaiting trial.

Fatal Accident.—Thomas Wrench, aged 15 years, was dragged to death by a colt on Sunday afternoon on his father's farm, about six miles from Smyrna. He had attached a rope to the colt and the other end around his body, while he ate some chestnuts and when his mother went to look for him, the colt was dragging him around the field, and may have done so for an hour, as the body was badly mutilated and the boy was almost dead. Death followed shortly. The boys father is well-known in the upper section of the county.

Gone Off With Circus.—When Mr. Robert Moffett went to his butcher shop early on Tuesday morning to prepare his meat for country delivery in his meat wagon, he found that his man who drives the wagon, Johnny Groves, had gone off with the circus. He learned that Johnny is to be the driver of the water wagon. Somebody will be singing after awhile, "When Johnny comes marching home." The show will close the season on Saturday, Oct. 21, at Dover, and then what will poor Johnny do.

Suit Against Jr. O. U. A. M.—The Funeral Benefit Association formerly conducted in connection with the fraternal organization, the Jr. O. U. A. M., has instituted suit in the Kent county court against Rock Hall Council for $270. If we are correctly advised the Benefit Association has become inoperative, but prior to its failure the Rock Hall Council withdrew its connection therewith. The Benefit Association claims the withdrawal was illegal and brings suit to recover for subsequent assessments. Rock Hall Council has employed M. deK. Smith, Esq., as counsel.

Mr. Vickers Loves Forestry.—The Baltimore City News, in commenting upon Bankers and the Bankers Association at Annapolis last week has the following to say of one of Kent's most prominent bankers and citizens: "Bankers have all sorts of fads from dominoes to golf, but few get any more pleasure out of them than Harrison W. Vickers of Chestertown. His fad is forestry. Mr. Vickers went out from his town about a mile and a half, and, about 20 years ago, built a house on an attractive spot where there were no trees. Now he has between four and five hundred. He has given every tree a name, and this idea has proved a source of unending interest."

Capt. Eliason a Hero.—Capt. Wm. C. Eliason, the genial manager of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, proved himself to be a real hero on Monday morning. A drove of cattle was being put aboard the steamer Annapolis at her Light Street Wharf, when John Bull became excited and fell overboard. He got wedged in between the boat's guards and the wharf, with his tail stretched out on the wharf. Capt. Eliason marshalled his forces, and started for the rescue. Capt. Eliason is as much at home in the bow of the boat as he is aft. But when it came to the question of John Bull, the captain made a dive for the tail, and in a stentorian voice, yelled to the deckhands to pull on the horns while he tugged at the tail. It is needless to say the bull was speedily rescued. Had it been a mule instead of a bull we would like to know which end the genial captain would have tackled.

Telephone Company's Good Service.—That the earnest efforts of the Diamond State Telephone Company to meet the wants of all patrons by giving them the best possible service, is appreciated by the public, is demonstrated by the constantly increasing patronage. Today Chestertown has a telephone service equal to any town of its size in the country and the utility of this service is being increased by the addition of new subscribers almost every day. We now have continuous service at the Chestertown office.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Court begins on Monday.

*†*Mrs. Scott and daughter have removed from Rock Hall to the dwelling over the postoffice.

*†*Mr. A. Levine, the jeweler, has rented Mrs. S. F. Smith's store room on High street, for next year.

*†*Trainer Frank Johnson, it is reported, expects to winter his horses in Chestertown, and is looking for suitable quarters.

*†*Mr. Hiram M. Brown has removed his office to the Kent Mutual Insurance office, next door to the Chestertown Bank.

*†*The next improvement for Chestertown is a candy manufactory. There is a good opening here for such an industry.

*†*The stores of Messrs A. Levine, A. Blum and Harris Kaplan were closed on Monday, in observance of the Jewish Day of Atonement.

*†*The law for shooting rabbits and partridges will be out Nov. 1. From reports there is a plentiful supply of game in the county.

*†*There were more people in town on Monday, show day, than for many years. Good order prevailed throughout the entire day.

*†*The Chestertown High School will shortly be supplied with an up-to-date fire escape apparatus. This is most commendable on the part of the School Board.

*†*The rain on Wednesday was a great blessing to the farmers and traveling public. We have scarcely known the fields and county roads to be so dusty.

*†*Mr. A. S. Turner, the grain dealer, shipped the first carload of new cob corn on Thursday morning from Worton Station. He is now bidding on new shelled corn for delivery regardless of grade.

*†*The circus drew a record crowd both afternoon and evening. The performances were very creditable, as was also the street parade. The bicycle ride and leap was the most thrilling feat.

*†*At the Janvier School, Miss May Pennington, principal, 23 pupils are crowded into a room 16 feet square. This school was closed last year because of a small attendance. The school board will take steps to relieve the congested condition.

† The new bridge over Fannel's Branch is nearly completed, and will soon be ready for travel. Contractors Culp have set the railing this week, and all that remains to be done is to fill in the road bed with dirt. The masonry work, done by Mr. S. J. Coleman, is one of the best pieces of work ever seen in the county.

*†*Sheriff Keyser lodged in jail this week the prisoner, Howe, who stole Mr. Herbert Matthews' team several weeks ago. The sheriff caught Howe in Philadelphia, and was compelled to secure extradition papers before he could bring him to Chestertown. These he secured from Gov. Pennypacker of Pennsylvania last week.

*†*Mr. Jas. A. Russell's dayton wagon was completely wrecked in a runaway accident on Monday. Mr. Russell had left his team temporarily unhitched in his stable yard when the horse attempted to enter the stable. The door closing caught the animal in the side and caused it to run away. The vehicle was upset and dragged against the corner of the stable.

*†*Cashier Wm. Bradford Copper, of the Second National Bank, has been attending the National Bankers' Association in Washington, D. C., during the week. The Second National Bank is a member of the National Bankers' Association, and Cashier Copper was sent by the directors of the bank as a delegate. He was a guest at the New Willard Hotel while there. Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, one of the directors, was also a delegate, and was in attendance. The delegates were accompanied by their wives.

Overall Plant.

A meeting of the directors of the Overall plant was held in the office of Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., on Monday evening. Dr. H. B. Simmons was elected president for one year and Mr. J. Waters Russell, secretary and treasurer. Mr. T. D. Larrimore was made manager of the plant, and during the week has been engaged in the preliminary work in connection with the operation of the plant. The old school building has been rented from Mr. Charles S. Smith and the company has been purchasing machinery etc. Work will begin about Nov. 1.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Kings Daughters of Emmanuel P. E. Church have issued invitations to a Silver Offering Tea to be held on Monday evening next, Oct. 16, in the handsome new parish house. This will be the first assemblage in the beautiful new building, which is and ornament to the town and a monument to the energy and liberality of the congregation and friends.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of Christ M. P. Church held a very interesting service in the lecture room of the church yesterday evening. A splendid programme of music and addresses was rendered. Rev. E. D. Stone, the popular pastor of Centreville M. P. Church, was the speaker of the evening and delivered a fine address. Mr. Stone has a charming voice, and he delighted the large audience with a beautiful solo.

Mrs. J. Walter Skirven represented the St. James C. E. Society and Misses Sarah Copper and Ida Biggers the Lynch's Society at the C. E. Institute held last week at Mardela Springs.

Mr. Harry Parsons has been elected a delegate to represent St. James M. P. Sunday School at the Anti-Saloon League Convention to be held in Baltimore Nov. 2.

The first of the Christian Workers Services was held last Sunday evening in Christ M. P. Church. Mr. Fred G. Usilton was the leader, and a large crowd of young people enjoyed the service. The topic was "The Model Young Man." Mr. J. Waters Russell will have charge of the service to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

The leaders for October meetings of the St. James C. E. Society are : Oct. 15, Rev. J. M. Sheridan ; Oct. 22, Miss Katie Fowler ; Oct. 29, Mrs. Walter Fowler.

The annual supper and festival at Sacred Heart Church will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Oct. 17 and 18. The ladies of this church know how to prepare and serve a sumptuous supper.

Bishop Wm. Forbes Adams held confirmation services at St. Paul's P. E. Church last Sunday morning and at I. U. in the evening.

Rev. Albert Jamison will preach at Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, next Sunday at 10.30 A. M., and at Worton at 8.00 P. M.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Public worship with preaching on Sunday, October 15th, at 10.30 A. M. and 7.15 P. M.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman, of Galena, occupied the pulpit of the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday morning, during the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. L. White.

The Chestertown W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. M. A. Toulson on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Adele France, president of the Woman's Literary Club of Chestertown, gave a charming reception at her home on High street last Saturday afternoon to the members of the club with a few of their friends. The occasion was the first meeting of the year, known as "President's Day" when it is the custom of the president to give a reception to the club and such friends as the members consider interested in the clubwork. Invitations in this instance were limited to fifty outside of the club, and forty or forty-five guests responded. The decorations were yellow and green. The parlor of the home was decorated in goldenrod and ferns. Upon the dining-room table was a beautiful centerpiece, a green basket with high handle tied with green bow filled with large yellow dahlias. The same color scheme was carried out in the refreshments. Miss France was assisted in receiving by her mother and Mrs. Paul Turner, of Baltimore.

Members of the club assisted in the dining room, in the parlor—ushering guests into the dining room, at the punch bowl. A charming innovation of the reception was several beautiful solos sung by Mr. George Sabourin, of Washington, D.C. In the evening Miss France entertained several gentlemen friends with the club.

Among those present were : Messrs. Thomas Massey, Raymond Simpers, Wilbur Eliason, George White, Dr. C. P. Gilpin, Mr. George Sabourin, of Washington, and Mr. Theodore Martin, of Baltimore.

It was "An Evening of Quotations." Each guest was given a booklet in the form of an autumn leaf, to be filled out with various quotations: "My favorite quotation," a quotation descriptive of one's partner, misquoted quotations, Shakespearean quotations, etc. Prizes were given for the best booklets. Miss Culp received the lady's prize and Mr. Martin the gentlemen's prize. Mr. Martin is a splendid violinist, and delighted those present with his selections on the violin, exquisitely rendered. Mr. Sabourin also sang several beautiful solos.

The members of the club are Misses Julia Burchinal, Irma Eliason, Anna Smith, Louise Stam, Susie Belle Culp, Hallie and Mabel Toulson. It was in all respects a charming "President's Day."

Miss Lillie Fowler entertained a few little folks very pleasantly last Friday evening at her home on High street in honor of her little niece, Miss Ethel Fowler, of Baltimore. The little folks had a delightful time. Those present were little Misses Catherine Fowler, Helen Kendall, Emily Lusby, Evelyn Russell, Louise Nugent and Master Charles Davis.

Miss Eloise Ringgold entertained a number of her friends very pleasantly on Saturday evening at her home on Front street in honor of her guest, Miss Josephine Harvey, of Washington, D. C.

OBITUARY.

DR. OSCAR B. B. EWELL.

Dr. Oscar B. B. Ewell died at his home in Marion, Somerset county, on Friday last, aged 49 years. Dr. Ewell was the son of Rev. Dr. J. E. T. Ewell, who was one of the most prominent Methodist Protestant ministers of his day. He was a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, and settled in Crisfield 30 years ago, where he built up a large and lucrative practice. Under President Cleveland's first administration he was postmaster at Crisfield. Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of the Maryland Conference, is a brother. His funeral was held on Sunday conducted by Rev. S. B. Tredway, of Marion, and Rev. W. S. Phillips, of Crisfield.

GEORGE W. GAIL

Mr. George W. Gail, Sr., the founder of the old Gail & Ax tobacco firm, of Baltimore, died in midocean, on the return trip from Germany, October 5. The deceased was one of the wealthiest residents of Baltimore, and is the gentleman in whose family Prof. Howard Fowler, son of Mr. Lewin S. Fowler, of Chestertown, was a tutor, while attending John Hopkins University. Mr. Fowler accompanied the Gails to Europe the past summer, but returned before the party in order to fill his engagement at Williams College, Mass.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wheat, of near Worton, died at the home of its parents on Sunday, and was buried on Monday.

With Our Advertisers.

The "Exposition Gazette" published by Hochschild, Kohn & Co., Baltimore's best store, furnishes shoppers with valuable information concerning the many departments of this marvelous store. Baltimore's best store is the store of progress. Its aim is to please, to satisfy, and it never loses sight of the mark. The establishment has grown wonderfully. From 100 employes in 1897, to 900 in 1905 is a long leap, but there is not an idle person in the house, they have every facility for waiting on customers with promptness and their clerks are as courteous as can be found in Baltimore. Send for a copy of the Exposition Gazette and note their advertisement in the TRANSCRIPT each week.

Read Clifton L. Jarrell's big advertisement on page 8 this morning. He has some valuable information for the ladies, and his bargains should prove exceedingly attractive.

The hustling clothing firm of Moody & Lusby is prepard for the fall and winter trade with a large and stylish line of fine clothing and furnishings. Call early before they are picked over. They are ready today. See advertisement on page 4.

Wedding Bells.

BLAKENEY—MATTHEWS.

Mr. Maxwell Blakeney and Miss Jessie Mathews were quietly married on Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of Fairlee M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Habbart. The young couple will make their home in Chestertown, where they are well known and popular.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS WITH A COMPLICATION OF FEMALE DISEASES.

Robust Women Who Owe Their Restored Health and Usefulness to Pe-ru-na.

Read the Letters of Grateful Women Cured by Dr. S. B. Hartman's Free Advice.

Thousands of Testimonials Received Every Year.

An Ideal Medicine.

MISS LOUISE MATHER, 13 Church St., Burlington, Vt., Vice-President Bureau of Exchange, writes:

"Your medicine is an ideal woman's medicine and by far the best I have known to restore lost health and strength.

"I suffered for several years. My back ached, I had bearing down pains, and frequent headaches.

"I would often wake from sleep in such pain that I would suffer for hours before my eyes would close again. I dreaded the long nights as well as the weary days.

"I consulted two physicians, hoping to get relief. Finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me, a friend advised me to try Peruna.

"I am certainly glad that I followed her advice, for Peruna was the only medicine for me. Every ache and pain disappeared in four months and I am in perfect health now.

"My earnest advice to suffering women is to try Peruna, for I feel sure they will not be disappointed in it."—Louise Mather.

Enjoying Splendid Health.

Mrs. L. E. Tyler, Santa Monica, Cal., Secretary Santa Monica Musical Society, writes:

"I was troubled for over three years with systemic catarrh, complicated by female weakness and inflammation.

"This induced frequent headaches, nervousness, hysteria and sleeplessness, which nothing could relieve until I tried Peruna.

"I began to feel better after I had taken the first bottleful and improved from week to week until at the end of about eleven weeks I was entirely well.

"I am pleased to say that I have enjoyed splendid health now for nearly a year. I have a fine appetite, enjoy sound sleep and do not suffer from any more headaches or other pains."—L. E. Tyler.

Completely Regained Her Health.

Miss Edith Reams, 726 North Main St., Dayton, O., writes:

"I suffered for some time with both lung and female troubles.

"I had been under the treatment of a good physician for about nine months without obtaining any relief, when Peruna was recommended to me. After taking twelve bottles of this medicine I have completely regained my health.

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna to any one suffering from the above ailments."—Edith Reams.

No testimonials published without written consent of the writer.

America is the Land of Nervous Women.

The majority of women are nervous because they suffer from some form of female disease.

The greatest obstacle in the way of recovery is that they do not understand that catarrh is the main source of their illness.

Women who are in doubt as to their ailments should write to Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O. Give him a full description of your symptoms, previous treatment and age.

He will promptly reply with full directions for treatment, free of charge.
