MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Owing to the absence of Rev. Albert Ware, rector of North Kent Parish, who is visiting friends in Virginia, there will be no service in the parish next Sunday. Mrs. Ware accompanied Mr. Ware. They will be away until the middle of next week.

The P. E. Chapel which is under course of erection is progressing finely and is nearly ready for the pebbledash and roof. It will be a beautiful edifice when completed. Every one seems pleased with the progress of the chapel and the fine appearance it will make when completed.

Mr. F. A. Emory's fine hotel which is under course of construction is progressing very rapidly and will be ready for occupancy before Christmas. It is a large three-story building and will surely be an improvement to "new Millington." When it is completed there will not be a town of equal size which can boast of two finer hotels on the Eastern Shore. It will be equipped with every modern improvement and convenience necessary for the comfort of the public.

The kieffer pear crop in this section is exceptionally good this season and several cars will be loaded from this station. Messrs. R. W. Moffett, of our town, and J. T. Dodson, of Greensboro, Md., are buying and good prices are being paid, from twelve to fifteen cents per basket. The way the teams line up with the pears is almost a reminder of the old peach days several years ago.

Mrs. Martha A. McWhorter is visiting friends in Chestertown and Baltimore for an indefinite period.

Miss Nettie Brumell, of Philadelphia, spent several days last week with Miss Gertie Turner, near town.

Miss Etta Jones, of our town, is the guest of Mrs. Alday Clements, near town.

Mr. F. Price Vansant spent this week with his sister, Mrs. F. Ford Phillips, at Centreville.

Mr. Walter Voshell has returned to his home in Chester, Pa., after a prolonged visit with Mr. George Gordon, near town.

Dr. Lee Pennington, of Baltimore, spent Sunday and Monday with his brother, Mr. Liston Pennington, near town.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Capt. Samuel D. Sewell, son of Capt. George T. Sewell, died at his residence in Baltimore, Oct. 8th, aged 33 years. He was of a sunny disposition, jovial and courteous in manner which won friends. Ambitious for success in his avocation that he often overtaxed his strength. I crossed the bay with him a few weeks ago and his general conversation was what he intended to accomplish. All extend our sympathy to his bereaved father and mother.

Mr. Thomas Warrem, the village shoemaker, died at the hospital in Baltimore, on Saturday. He was one of our oldest citizens, aged about 75. He was somewhat of a recluse, but when well aquainted with him he was a man of fine sensibilities, a man who strictly attended to his own business. Though addicted to drink, in later years he tried to overcome the habit and partially succeeded. We shall miss him, he was not a bad man, he tried to do right but his infimities produced a weakness he could not control. May he now rest in peace.

Brother Burr was unable to fill his pulpit on Sunday. Rev. Samuel Stevans officiated. If brother Burr does not husband his strength he will fail to carry on the noble work he has undertaken.

Mrs. Charles Trimble is visiting her aunt, Mrs. McCommons, at Aberdeen, Hartford county.

Miss Nora Litz has secured a position in Baltimore. We shall miss Nora, but someone will be lonely.

Miss Camp and Miss Reese are on the sick list. Mr. Frank Stevens is very much improved. Miss Edna Durding is substituting for Miss Reese.

Jug breaking, recitations and singing will be a special feature at K. of P. Hall on Monday evening. Proceeds for bell.

Squire Jewell was called upon to decide a point on Monday, but he could not do so. Ask him what it was and why.

Mr. B. H. Coburn has been spending a few days with friends in Havre de Grace.

Miss Grace Thomas, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Lillian Willson.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

An unusual high tide visited the bay on Wednesday. The water rose over the boardwalk in front of the Chesapeake Hotel but very little damage was done.

On account of heavy freight the steamer Annapolis was 2½ hours late in arriving at Betterton on Wednesday evening.

The Epworth League held its monthly business meeting and social at "The Atlantic" on Tuesday evening. A large crowd was out and enjoyed themselves very much.

Misses Rosa Brommell and Lydia Somers spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.

Rev. Habbert and wife, of Worton, and Rev. Ford and wife, of Betterton, spent Monday evening very pleasantly with Mrs. Frank Clark.

Mrs. Trott and granddaughter, Miss Lillie Harrison, are the guests of relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Howard Owens is visiting her parents in Queen Anne's county.

The Betterton baseball club will hold its fall festival this Saturday evening October 14th.

WORTON ITEMS.

Death entered the peaceful home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sheats on Sunday night at half past ten and claimed for its own their dear little baby daughter, at the tender age of six weeks. This darling little baby was a great sufferer from spinal trouble, and had grown doubly dear to the loving parents and devoted grandmother, Mrs. Jas. Sheats, because of the affliction which caused her death.

Miss Sara Janney and Mrs. Margerite Sheats spent Thursday of last week at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Joseph Duyer, of Coleman.

We are sorry to state that Mr. Guy Turner is quite sick at this writing.
