KENT COUNTY BOY IN LUCK.

A Strong Illustration of What Brains and Energy Can Accomplish When Put to Proper Use.

Brains count for far more than money every time, and he who has a plenty of the former and puts it to the proper use is far better equipped to baffle with the world than he who has a bountiful supply of money, for after all it is brains that make money. This is strikingly true in the case of Mr. George Boone, formerly a young resident of Kent county. Young Boone was raised on a farm near town, and yet was always exceedingly fond of mechanics and working around machinery. He proved himself a genius in the use of a chisel and with the various parts of which engines and machinery are constructed. Some years ago the engineer in the electrical department of the Johns Hopkins University resigned, and Mr. Boone applied for and was appointed to the vacancy. He did not spend his time idly but during all these years of employment he has been applying himself to study and allowing his mechanical genius to have full sway. It is said that there was no part of the machinery of the electrical department of the University that he did not learn to adjust and repair, and his mind has constantly been employed upon intricate mechanical problems. Mr. Boone has an inventive mind, and when the smoke nuisance in our large cities was agitated by the newspapers, Mr. Boone was struck with the idea that he could remedy the nuisance by the invention of a device for the consumption of smoke. He labored diligently, meeting with discouragements along the way, but never a traitor to his great genius, he at last succeeded in producing a "smoke cendensor," which it was claimed by him would rid the great cities of a great nuisance. The invention has been given a thorough test, and has been pronounced by mechanical experts as a most successful invention. The product of Mr. Boone's brain had suddenly become his financial fortune. Several capitalists became greatly interested in the value of the condensor and they offered Mr. Boone some weeks ago $50,000 for the patent right. Mr. Boone refused the offer. He was approached again last week by the same capitalists who offered him $50,000 and a royalty of $2,000 a year on the sales of the generators. This offer Mr. Boone has accepted, and from the condition of a poor boy, he has risen to a man of fortune and fame, all because he had brains and put them to a most excellent use. Kent county should be proud of George Boone. He has made as great an invention as many of those that have immortalized their names in other climes, and yet how many more George Boones there may be in Kent! There are many young men of excellent intelligence and genius who are simply waisting their time and their brains upon a course of life that counts for nothing, and yet if they would but apply their knowledge to the proper channels they might be a power in the world of mechanics, merchandise or the professions.

Mr. Boone is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Boone, whose home is near the mill. Her son's industry and intelligence is an honor to her in her old days, and we are quite sure that his good fortune will insure for her a life of ease and plenty.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Today, Oct. 21st, W. C. faces the strong Delaware College team on the home grounds at 10.30 A. M. The boys have been through a week of hard practice and hope to make the game interesting as well for spectator as for Delaware.

It is with great delight that the boys accept the report that shower baths are soon to be put in the basement of East Hall.

Since the electric lighting plant has been under repairs we have indeed burned the midnight oil.

The boys and girls under the guidance of Dr. Micou and Prof. Hau, were treated to a chestnut hunt last Saturday afternoon. Though chestnuts were few, all enjoyed themselves, for there were other things to consider as well as chestnuts.

Mr. John R. Brittingham spent several days this week in Baltimore transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Steadman Cross, of Queen town, paid a visit to their son, Urie, last Sunday.

At a meeting of the Glee and Mandolin Club last Tuesday the following officers for the coming year were elected: Mr. A. S. Garrison, president; Mr. D. Stam, treasurer; Mr. T. K. Bordley, leader Mandolin Club and Mr. E. F. Hitch, leader Glee Club.

Wedding Bells.

TODD—TOWNSEND.

Miss Maggie Townsend and Mr. Chas. J. Todd were quietly married on Sunday evening at the home of the bride's father, Mr. George P. Townsend, in Millington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor of Millington M. E. Church. They will reside in Chestertown, where the bride conducts a confectionery store, and the groom is engaged at the Marvel Package Company's basket factory.

ALBAUGH—REISLER.

Miss Hilda Reisler, daughter of Prof. Edward M. Reisler, formerly principal of the Chestertown High School, was married on Saturday last to Mr. Carroll Albaugh, a prominent business man of Westminster. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents in Baltimore, by Rev. L. F. Warner, pastor of Westminster Methodist Protestant Church. After an extended northern tour Mr. and Mrs. Albaugh will reside in Westminster.

MOORE—FORD.

Galena M. E. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday at high noon, the contracting parties being Miss Hattie Estelle Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ford, of Galena, and Mr. G. Herbert Moore, of Baltimore, son of Capt. G. W. Moore, of Betterton. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white lansdowne with trimmings of Dutchess lace and chiffon, and veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Sadie Lewis, of Elkton, cousin of the bride, wore white eolienne and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Adele Ford, of Still Pond, and Miss Etta Whitaker, of Galena. Their gowns were of mull chiffon over blue silk and pink silk. The best man was Harvey B. Moore, of Betterton, brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. John H. Bowen, of Baltimore county, George Young, of Baltimore, Robert A. Shallcross, of Galena, and Charles Ford, of Still Pond. The bride entered the church while the wedding march was being skillfully played by Mrs. Brice, of Betterton, leaning upon the arm of her father and was met at the altar by the groom. While standing neath a bell of evergreen they were pronounced man and wife by Rev. A.P. Prettyman, of Galena, assisted by Rev. T. C. Smoot. The church was darkened and beautifully decorated with potted plants and evergreen. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. The menu consisted of fruits, cakes and ices. After the reception the bridal couple, amid a shower of rice and congratulations, took a train for Florida for a month's stay. Upon their return they will reside at 1914 E. Baltimore St., Baltimore, Md.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. H. C. Layman and son, Mrs. Wm. J. Ogden, Mrs. Robert C. Young, Misses Mary, Katherine and Anastasia Maloney, and Miss Elizabeth Brice, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice, son and daughter, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Alfred Layman, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Brown, of Elkton, and Mr. and Mrs. Hambleton, of Cecil county.

Foot Ball.

The first team of Washington College played its first game of football this season against the strong and seasoned team of Western Maryland College at Westminister on Saturday. The Western Maryland boys had the advantage of good practice, having played three games with strong teams before they tackled the W. C. boys. From the call of "play" to the end of the game it was seen that our boys were outclassed, and the more they attempted to defend their positions, the more aggressive became the boys of the western hills. W. C. could do nothing with their opponent's line and were compelled to resort to kicking to make any gains. Western Md. made her first touchdown in the first half with only nineteen seconds to play, but it was in the second half that the onslaught proved so disastrous to the boys from W. C. In the last half Western Maryland made two touchdowns in 5 minutes of play, proving that their practice had stood them well. The final score was 32 to 0 in favor of Western Maryland. It was reported in one of the Sunday papers that one of our boys had his collarbone broken. This we are glad to state is uncorrect. The boys returned by the way of Betterton all right physically, but just a little sore because they did not win. This team will line up this morning on the College Campus at 10.30 A. M., against the strong team from Delaware College, and they hope to pocket this game with as much ease as Western Maryland did them. The game will have to be called this morning at 10.30 o'clock to enable the Delaware College boys to return to Newark this afternoon.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

Chestnut hunting for the week past has been the pastime of a good many young folks. Large quantities, of chestnuts are found everywhere in the woods around, which predict, a severe winter; but we hope that this will not be the case this time.

On account of a break in one of the locks of the Chesapeake & Delaware canal, the Ericsson Line boats have been delayed this week.

A good many from Betterton attended the Moore and Ford wedding at Galena, on Wednesday.

Mr. George Jess fell from a wagon one day last week dislocating his knee cap.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice and children, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. George Moore.

Misses Mollie, Annie and Katie Maloney, of Baltimore, are visiting friends here.

Mr. Reese Young, of St. Michaels, is on a trip to his daughter, Mrs. Walter Crew.

Miss Elizabeth Brice is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brice.

Mrs. Robert Young, of Baltimore, is the guest of relatives here.

Miss Hannah Gooding, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home, near Chestertown.

The Betterton base ball team held their festival Saturday night at the Chesapeake House. A large crowd was out and success resulted.

The Junior League of Betterton Church was reorganized last Saturday afternoon.

WORTON ITEMS.

Revival services are being held in Union M. E. Church. Our pastor has been ably assisted during the past week by Rev. Ford, of Betterton, and Rev. Holt of Still Pond.

Mr. Thos. Parsons and family, of near Hanesville, are very much improved at this writing. We are glad to hear this.

Mr. Geo. Porter lost his valuable cow last week, from eating kieffer pears.

Miss Stevens, of Washington College, visited Miss Mabery Rash last week and favored the congregation at Union M. E. Church with a beautiful solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Turner and Mrs. Robert Kennedy visited Baltimore this week.

Miss Mary Cooper visited her sister, Mrs. Geo. Ashley, of Rock Hall, this week.

Mrs. James Jester spent a few days of last week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rash visited friends in Quaker Neck last week.

Mrs. Lillie Clase is entertaining friends at her home in Smithville.

Mrs. N. B. Gears has returned home after a long stay with her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Duyer, of Coleman.

Rumor has it that we are to have a festival here on the 28th of the month.

GALENA ITEMS.

Mr. Harry Dempsey and wife visited Baltimore on Wednesday.

Mrs. Johnson is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Tarbutton.

Mrs. William Spry who has been visiting a school friend in Pennsylvania is now visiting her sister, in Baltimore.

Mr. Edward Peacock visited Wilmington last week.

It is rumored that Mr. Wm. Spry has rented the Whitaker house on Main street and will open a hotel the coming year.

School Notes.

Mr. Benjamin W. Duling has received the contract for building an addition to the Massey School. The school has grown so large as to require an addition and another teacher.

The School Board has decided to relieve the congested condition at the Millington Academy by the building of an addition. They are receiving estimates for the work and the contract will likely be awarded at the next meeting of the Board.

The new additions to the Rock Hall High School have been furnished during the past week, and Prof. Greenwood and his valuable assistants are happy in their enlarged facilities for work.

The appointment of a teacher for the Melitota School to succeed Miss Mary Nicholson, who goes to Worton School as principal, will be made to-day likely.

Miss Myrtle Durding has been substituting for Miss Middleton at Rock Hall High School during the week. Miss Middleton has been on the sick list.

The festival and supper held by the teachers and pupils of the Piney Neck High School last Saturday on the school grounds, was largely attended and a good sum was realized for the benefit of the school.
