GRAND
Democratic Mass Meeting
IN CHESTERTOWN,

On Wednesday, October 25th,
at 2.30 and 7.30 P. M.

Prominent speakers of national and state reputation will address the meeting.

A full band of music will be in attendance. Everybody invited to attend and hear the issues discussed. The Constitutional Amendment will be fully and clearly explained and every voter in Kent county should avail himself of the opportunity in order that he may cast a ballot intelligently upon this important change in the Constitution of the State of Maryland.

SPEAKERS :
DR. GORDON T. ATKINSON, candidate for Comptroller of the Treas.
HON. L. IRVING HANDY,
ex-Congressman from Delaware.
HON. GEORGE BYRNE,
ex-Congressman from West Virginia.
COL. J. E. R. WOOD,
Frederick county.
HON. LLOYD WILKINSON,
Worcester county.
LEWIN W. WICKES,
JAMES W. IVENS,
JOHN C. REDMILE,
State Central Committee for Kent county.

THE EXCELLENT ADDRESS delivered by Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., director of the Second National Bank, of Chestertown, at the State Bankers' Convention in Annapolis recently, is published in this issue at the request of the bankers and others who were not present at the convention. It abounds in beautiful rhetoric and valuable information. Read it.

IF THE Constitutional Amendment is working with great satisfaction in the State of Virginia, where negroes have been disfranchised, why should not the Maryland amendment which is identical in all respects to the Virginia law, give equal satisfaction. The proposed amendment to the constitution in Maryland is identical in all respects to that of Virginia, and should be voted for by all white voters.

DO NOT FORGET the Democratic meeting to be held in Chestertown next Wednesday. Speakers of State and national reputation will be present to address the meetings, both afternoon and evening, and all the local candidates will be here to meet the voters. The speakers will explain the Constitutional Amendment, which will be the theme of all the addresses, and we urge the voters to come out and hear the important subject discussed. Dr. Gordon T. Atkinson, our efficient and popular State Comptroller, whose re-election is already assured, will be here to greet his many friends, and let us give him and all the local candidates a rousing reception. The names of the speakers are appended to the notice of the meeting on this page.

REPORTS from all parts of the county point to a handsome majority for all the candidates on the Democratic ticket at the approaching election. The candidates are all men of integrity, and have always been honest and straightforward Democrats, and there is no reason why Kent should not give a larger majority for the ticket than ever before. Local affairs have been managed so systematically by the Democrats for the past two years that there is no disposition whatever on the part of the people to return to Republican rule and extravagance. A party that can administer the affairs of the county for two years without furnishing a single campaign issue for their opponents is certainly worthy of the support of every man who desires good government economically administered. Our county administration is an honor to the Democratic party.

GOV. A. J. MONTAGUE, of Virginia, in a letter received on Monday by the Constitutional Amendment Committee, commented on the operation in Virginia of the "understanding clause" of that Constitution, which clause, it is claimed, is identical with the one in the pending Maryland amendment, as follows:

"This provision of our Constitution was operative between July 10, 1902, and January 1, 1904, during which time the negro vote was quite largely eliminated. The effects of this elimination have, of course, been very beneficial to our people, and we look for much greater advantages as time progresses. The elimination of this vote was necessary to insure fair elections in our State and to bring about a general toning up of the ethics of our politics, an end greatly promoted by our new Constitution."

A Catechism of the Amendment.

Question—Why are we justified in trying to eliminate the negro as a political factor ?

Answer—In violation of every principal of home rule, he was forced upon us a voter by the Republican party of other States. At every election the Democrats are compelled to place in the ballot boxes of this State sixty thousand to count in our effort to secure a majority of the white vote in this State.

Q.—Will the pending Amendment disfranchise the negro ?

A.—In a large measure, yes.

Q.—Is any white man's right to vote involved ?

A.—Not at all. The Democratic party platform is as distinctively and clearly committed to the registration of every white man, as it is against the registration of the negro.

Q.—If the pending Amendment is passed, what will be its practical operation ?

A.—A white man, whether native or foreign born, Democrat or Republican, would be allowed to register without objection, both Democrats and Republicans being committed to this policy.

Q.—In what does the pending Amendment differ from other Amendments that were proposed ?

A.—The pending Amendment will permit the registration of every white man in the State, no matter what his politics, or where he was born.

Q.—Who then should favor the pending Amendment ?

A.—Every man who believes a majority of white people should control the State Government.

THE "GRANDFATHER CLAUSE" OF THE SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

Under this clause every man, white or black, native born or naturalized, who, on the first day of January, 1869, was entitled to vote by the laws of any State of the Union wherein he then resided, is entitled to be registered as a voter in Maryland, provided he has been a legal resident of Maryland for one year.

Under this clause also all adult male lineal decendants of persons who were thus entitled to vote on the first day of January, 1869, under the laws of any State of the Union where they then resided, are entitled to be registered, provided they have had a legal residence in Maryland for one year.

There should be no difficulty in understanding this Grandfather Clause. The right to registration is conferred by it, not only on all males who on the first day of January, 1869, were entitled to vote by the laws of any State in the Union where they then resided, but it is conferred upon all their lineal descendants.

The term "lineal descendants" includes male lineal descendants of every degree, whether they claim descent on the paternal or maternal side.

Every applicant for registration under this Grandfather Clause is entitled to be registered, provided he has been a resident of Maryland for one year, if he was entitled to vote anywhere in the Union on the first day of January, 1869, or, if he is the lineal descendant, either on his father's side or his mother's side, of any man who on the first day of January, 1869, was entitled to vote by the laws of any State in the Union where he then resided.

The Understanding Clause or Educational Test has no application whatever to persons applying for registration under the Grandfather Clause.

HOPE H BARROLL, Attorney.

Order of Publication.

Elmer E. Leary, Antone Gagalski, vs.
Bertie May Besowsky, John A. Besowsky, Rosa Besowsky, Fanny Besowsky, Willie Besowsky, Daisy Besowsky, Effie Besowsky, Margie Besowsky, George Besowsky, Annie Sewell, Marlion Sewell, Hope H Barroll, new administrator in the place and stead of Robert F. Jewell, late administrator.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.
No. 1565.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of Rudolph Besowsky deceased, to pay the debts of the said deceased.

The bill states that Rudolph Besowsky, late of Kent county, departed this life intestate leaving no widow surviving him but leaving the following children and heirs at law, viz.: Annie Sewell, who married Marion Sewell, who reside in Rock Hall, Kent county, Maryland, John A. Besowsky, adult, who resides in the State of New Jersey; Bertie May Besowsky and Rosa Besowsky, adults both of whom reside in the city of Baltimore, Maryland; Fannie Besowsky, adult, who resides in Morristown, New Jersey, and the following children not of age; Willie Besowsky and Daisy Besowsky, both of whom reside in Baltimore, Md.; Effie Besowsky, who resides in Talbot county, Md.; Margie Besowsky, who lives in Wilmington, Del., and George Besowsky, who lives in a Catholic schoo ilin the State of Delaware.

And the bill further states that there is some uncertainty as to the residence of some of the defendants, and as a precaution the bill alleges generally that all the defendants are non-residents so that if it is impossible to serve personal notice on any of the defendants, due notice may be given to those who do not reside in the State of Maryland, by means of an Order of Publication.

And the bill further states that the said Rudolph Besowsky was in his lifetime indebted unto Elmer E. Leary in the sum of $22.45, and unto Antone Gagalski in the sum of $18.45, and the said Rudolph Besowsky, being so indebted, departed this life intestate, leaving but a small personal estate, not sufficient to pay his debts, and letters of administration have been granted unto Hope H. Barroll.

And the bill further states that the said Rudolph Besowsky left real estate at a great value situated in Kent county, Maryland.

To the end therefore that the real estate of the said Rudolph Besowsky, deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary may be sold for the payment of the debts of your orators and for the payment of the debts due the other creditors of the said deceased,

It is thereupon ordered this 14th day of September, 1905, by the Circuit Court for Kent county as a court of Equity, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 16th day of October, 1905, giving notice to the said Bertie May Besowsky, John A. Besowsky, Rosa Besowsky, Fannie Besowsky, Willie Besowsky, Daisy Besowsky, Effie Besowsky, Margie Besowsky, George Besowsky, Annie Sewell and Marion Sewell, all of whom are alleged to be non-resident defendants, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in person or by solicitor on or before the 6th day of November next, to show cause if any they have why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
