ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Miss Mary Shuster, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Middleton.

Miss Hallie Middleton, formerly of Rock Hall, but now of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Middleton.

Diphtheria has made its appearance in Piney Neck in a mild form. Disinfectants are being used in the school to prevent spread of the disease. No adult cases, chiefly among children.

Mr. Med. Taylor has been very sick, but is convalescing. Miss Reese is no better, she left for home to-day (Tuesday.)

Miss Alrich's parents paid her a visit Friday, she returned with them and came back on Monday.

Mr. David J. Moore visited his friends in Fairlee. He clerks for Mr. Miller.

Mr. Leo. Durding went to Baltimore to consult his physician. Mr. Durding has been in poor health for sometime.

Oysters selling for 50c but very scarce. Many have been unable to sell and have bedded them and are waiting a norther, thereby causing a rise in price.

The K. of P. hall was crowded to the door on Monday night. The following program was rendered; prayer by Rev. Parriss, solo Miss Clara Downey, recitation Miss Edna Durding, recitation Miss Lulu Thomas, solo Rev. J. W. Parris. Master Trew Durding enlivened the intervals beween the acts with selections from his Grapohone. Then came the jug breaking, these contained from 5c to fifteen dollars, total from jugs $117, from door $9.56, for private subscriptions $12 and from Bazaar $192, total $331, cost of bell $287, surplus $44. Bro. Conway in a feeble voice started, "Praise God from whom all blessing flow," the audience took it up and never was it sung with more feeling and with more sincerity of thankfulness. Bro. Burr could not contain himself, he tried to thank the people but words failed him.

Good attendance at K. of P. hall to hear Bro. Burr on Sunday, he preached from these words: "Men do not fade as a leaf." That men here on earth were simply occupying an infant department, as a school of discipline; from which God taught us from three great volumes; 1st the word of God, 2nd nature, 3rd His various providences. As the leaf changes from a healthy appearance to its autumn color so does man from the disolution of union of soul and body. All is not sad as his text would suggest, for as man begins to live he begins to die. History proves this as it also proves that the process is a gradual one. As leaves change their appearance so does man change in character; some characters are beautiful and worthy of imitation, while others are just the opposite. He exhorted his hearers to put their trust in God's love, which will not fade.

The Juniors held their 10th anniversary on Monday evening. The State Conductor, James Smith, of Cecil county, was present. Mr. Max Alexander gave the address of welcome, he said the council numbered 152 members had not lost a member during the past year. Mr. Smith followed and spoke of the advantages of the order and especially R. H. Council. He called it the banner council and said that the harmony existing among its members was unsurpassed as shown in the communications to him, from this he never received a word of abuse against its members, while from others it was general. Miss Anna Leary gave one of her best recitations which was enjoyed by every one present. A duet by Misses Anna May Ayres and Lillian Taylor captivated the house. The most entertaining features were recitations of Masters Lloyd Scott and Willie Clayton and Mistress Olevia Clayton, these little folks were the least embarrassed. Supper was then served, room cleared and floor exercise in the fantastic step was enjoyed until wee small hours.

Messrs. Mendall Bros., of Baltimore, are endeavoring to establish a wrapper factory here, if he can get the citizens' co-operation. He offers to employ 100 female laborers and more if he can get them, provided the citizens will furnish him a building for 3 years and an engine, all without cost to him. He will furnish experts to teach the laborers, and assume all other expenses. The following merchants were present: Messrs. Kramer, Crew, T. B. Durding, Joseph Downey, Miller, Casey and Alexander. All seemed favorable to the project. The general impression was that if any enterprise was to be established here the citizens must be represented in order to insure success. The undertaking building of the late James Blackiston could be secured and opperations could begin early in November.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Miss Nettie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mallalieu, and Mr. John Higman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Higman, of Queen Anne's, were married very quietly at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday evening, Oct. 12th. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wm. M. Warner, grandfather of the bride. Only the families of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Higman will reside in Millington. Mr. Higman is in the milling business here. He and his bride have many friends here, who extend their most hearty congratulations.
