WILL BE OPENED NOVEMBER 24.

The New Parish Building of Emmanuel Church, will be opened with a service of benediction, on Friday evening, next, (November 24,) at 7.30 P. M. The rector, on behalf of the vestry and congregation of Chester Parish, extends a most cordial invitation to the citizens of Chestertown to attend this service. We earnestly hope that as many of our friends as can possibly do so, will be present on that occasion to share with us the pleasure and joy, at having secured so fine and much needed building. Rev. Dr. Greenfield and the Rev. Mr. White have kindly consented to be present and bid us God—speed.

Washington College Alumni.

Invitations are being sent out by a committe of the Alumni Association of Washington College, composed of President James W. Cain, Messrs. Hiram M. Brown, Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., and Thomas. W. Perkins, who are co-operating with the Baltimore Branch of the Alumni Association, to a banquet to be held at the Rennert Hotel, Baltimore, on Friday evening, Dec. 8th. The object of this banquet is something more than "a feast for the soul and inner man," and deserves the hearty co-operation and assistance of every alumnus and friend of the college. It was only recently that a Baltimore branch of the association was organized and since that time President Cain has been endeavoring to foster the growth not only of the association, but to bring the college into greater prominence throughout the state. It was with this object in view that a banquet to be held in Baltimore was planned, and it is proposed to have not only as large a representation of the alumni of the college present as can be secured, but prominent men in Baltimore city and throughout the state. Large improvements are in contemplation at the college, and the most successful way to secure the necessary funds for the securing of the improvements is through the co-operation of the Alumni Association and prominent men connected with the institution.

Members of the State Board of Aid and Charities will be invited to be present, and the object of the toasts at the banquet will be to impress upon these gentlemen the needs of the college and its facilities for accomplishing good work. The Board of Aids and Charities makes recommendation to the General Assembly of Maryland for colleges, schools, etc., and it is the purpose of the Association to make an especial effort to secure an appropriation for the completion of the fine administration building which the Board of Visitors and Governors propose to erect in the early spring. It is needless to say therefore that the co-operation of every alumnus of the college should be given. The cause is a most worthy one, and Dr. Cain should be commended for his earnest efforts to bring Washington College into prominence throughout the State and to provide facilites for education second to none in the State. Every alumnus should make the sacrifice to be present at the banquet in order to give his aid to the object of the meeting. It will no doubt prove an epoch in the history of the college and will bring the alumni of the Shore into closer social relations with the boys who have gone to other climes to solve the problem of life. The Baltimore alumni are making every effort to make the banquet a great success.

Game is Very Scarce.

Sportsmen who have been hunting since the season opened report both partridges and rabbits very scarce. It is almost as difficult to see a covey of partridges, according to the statement of some of our prominent sportsmen, as it is to see canvas back ducks in the Chester river, and while rabbits are a little more plentiful, yet they are so securely entrenched in the dense thickets and thick marshes that it is a difficult matter to rout them from their hiding places. Many gunners contend that this is due to the character of the dogs now in Kent county. It is a rare thing to see a first-class rabbit dog these days, and there is a movement on foot in the county to improve the present breed, which partakes more of the nature of the fox hound than it does the genuine rabbit beagle.

Our huntsmen complain that the present species of rabbit dog cannot work the dense thickets with the success that the beagle does, and until this breed is restored the sport will not be as profitable as it has been. Two young gentlemen went out the other day to a place where the rabbits are known to be plentiful, and after a desperate attempt to rout the rabbits from the branch they returned to Chestertown wite only five rabbits. Others have been out and have only bagged two in a whole day's hunt. So far as we have seen there has not been one rabbit in the local markets. The sportsmen should do something to improve conditions.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Little Dewey Kirby Shoots and Kills Himself at the Home of Capt. Jack Jester in Queen Anne's.

A terrible and fatal accident occurred at the home of the Capt. Jack Jester, living in Queen Anne's near Chester bridge, on Monday, when Dewey Kirby, the little seven-year-old-son of Mr. Jas. Kirby, whose farm adjoins that of Capt. Jester, and whose wife is Capt. Jester's sister, accidentally shot and killed himself. Capt. Jester had been to Chestertown on Saturday and purchased at the store of Mr. J. K. Aldridge a new single barrel breech loading gun for his son. He took the gun home, loaded it, and placed it in a corner behind some bags of potatoes, preparatory to trying it on the birds. Mr. Kirby and his little son went over to Mr. Jester's to do some work, and while sitting by the fire warming themselves Mr. Kirby, in the presence of his child and one of Mr. Jester's small children picked the gun up to examine it. He replaced it and he and Mr. Jester went out into the yard to sharpen an ax, leaving the two small children in the room. They had not been gone long when they heard the report of a gun. Mr. Jester's little child came running out of the house crying "Dewey has shot the gun off." Mr. Kirby ran into the room and found his child lying on the floor dead. He had picked the gun up to look at it, and the trigger got caught in one of the bags of potatoes, causing it to discharge. The whole load took effect in the child's face, tearing away a great part of the skull, and killing him instantly. The parents were prostrated at the terrible accident. Capt. Jester and his family did everything in their power for the stricken parents, and removed the little boy to his parents' home shortly after the accident.

Turkeys Will be High.

Now that Thanksgiving and Christmas are near at hand, the farmer's wife is turning her attention to the condition of that source of considerable wealth to her—the turkey crop. There is every indication that the prices of this luscious fowl will be even better than they were last year, for while there may be a fair crop of turkeys, ducks and geese in Kent county, the supply is said not to exceed the demand for poultry anywhere in the state. Our advice to the farmer's wife is to "go slow" in the shipment of her poultry to the city markets, because, as the holiday season approaches, there is danger of glutting the city market and causing a severe slump in prices. This is generally the case at this season of the year, and it invariably results in a loss to the shipper. At present turkeys are bringing 15 cents per lb. wholesale, which is 3 cents higher than at this time last year. By Thanksgiving they will be at least 3 or 4 cents higher, if the predictions of certain dealers come true. Chickens and ducks are going at 11 cents a pound, and guineas at $1.25 a pair. "There will be almost a turkey famine," say some dealers, while others declare there will be so many on the market that there will be a terrible slump in the price. Our advice is to "go slow" and watch the city markets. Keep your local markets well stocked where you will always find good prices prevailing.

Young Men's Club.

A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Chestertown Social and Literary Club was held in the office of Wilbur W. Hubbard on Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing plans for the opening of the club room for the winter. It was decided to open the room for the young men next Wednesday evening when the Literary Committee of the club will present a fine programme. Mr. Hubbard has recently had the room thoroughly cleaned and put in excellent condition, and the surroundings are very pretty indeed. The Board of Managers also revised the bylaws, so as to exclude all persons under 16 years of age. It is hoped that the young men of the town will avail themselves of the excellent advantages of the clubroom, and that they will take a great interest in its perpetuation. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected next Wednesday evening. All the members and those interested in the success of the club are urged to be present.

OBITUARY.

MR. EDWARD LUSBY.

Mr. Edward Lusby, son of the late John and Elizabeth Lusby, died at his home, near town on Monday, of paralysis, aged about 51 years. The deceased had been in failing health for sometime but it was not until the latter part of last week that the final stroke prostrated him. "Ned" as he was familiarly known to a host of friends in the town and county, was born and raised on the fine estate near town, which his industry and thrift as a farmer had raised to one of the most productive and valuable tracts of real estate in the county. He was of a retiring disposition, and seldom left his home, except on business. He loved the farm and loved to be at work with his implements and stock, and yet he was always delighted to entertain friends, and so large was his heart that he would give his last farthing for the benefit of his friends. In this respect he displayed that peculiar characteristic of that family which has always been noted in the county for its generosity and hospitality. He will be missed for his many excellent traits of character. He is survived by a widow who was before marriage Miss Lydia Jacobs, and three sons. He also leaves one sister, Miss Eleanora Lusby, and three brothers, Messrs. William, H. Clay and Herbert Lusby. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, conducted by Rev. D. L. Greenfield, of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. The choir of the church rendered several favorite hymns during the service. The pall bearers were Messrs. R. D. Hynson, George S. Biddle, Charles L. Dodd, Harry Nicols, Wm. T. Nicholson and Henry S. Deford. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. SAMUEL TODD.

Mr. Samuel Todd, one of Kent's most highly respected citizens, died at his home in Galena on Monday morning after an illness of several months, aged 75. The deceased was one of the most prominent men in the upper section of the county. Mr. Todd was a communicant of the Episcopal Church for a number of years. He loved the church and was always in his place in the little church at Galena being very fond of music always assisting the organist. The church will miss him. The family and friends have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement. The deceased was long prominent in the councils of the Democratic party, and had held offices of trust. He was once elected County Commissioner and was frequently urged to become a candidate for various other offices in the county. Mr. Todd was truly an exceptionally popular man, whose disposition and manner was such as to bring cheer and sunshine wherever he went. We have never met him without noting his pleasant smile and cordial greeting. He will be missed in the county. He is survived by a widow, who was before marriage a Miss Ireland, sister of Mr. James T. Ireland, of Chestertown, and Miss Etta Ireland, of Galena, and two children, Mr. Harry Todd and Mrs. Irving Dempsey, of Galena. Funeral services were held from his late residence in Galena on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Samuel Edson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Smoot. Interment was made in Galena cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. S. G. Caldwell, L. C. Hayes, Theo. Dempsey, John N. Vansant, J. T. M. Woodall, and B. F. Merchant. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Handy, wife of Mr. Luther Hany, of Baltimore, formerly a prominent agriculturalist of this county were brought to Chestertown on Saturday evening and taken to the home of her nephew, Mr. Philip G. Wilmer, whence they were conveyed to St. Paul's on Sunday for interment. The deceased was 81 years of age, and was wellknown in Kent county where for a number of years she and her esteemed husband made their home on their farm, known as Handy's Point, in Worton. Undertaker Jno. N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. Following were the pall-bearers: Herbert Stimpson, Esq., of Baltimore; Messrs. George and James Bell, George Beck, Tilden Brice and Charles Jessup.
