LOCAL MATTERS.

High Price for Land.—Mr. Robert G. Nicholson negotiated this week the sale of a small house and five acres of land adjoining Flatland School to Mr. Samuel C. Walters, of near Locust Grove, for $800. The land formed a part of Mr. Nicholson's fine estate near town and is very productive. The price is equivalent to $165 per acre. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., was the attorney in the negotiation.

A Victim of Typhoid.—Dr. James H. Curran, a well-known and popular member of the faculty of the Jacob Tome Institute at Port Deposit, died at the school at 9.45 A. M. on Tuesday, of typhoid fever, aged 33 years. He was unmarried. His father, mother and a sister, Mrs. J. H. Morgan, of Carlisle, Pa., survive him. Dr. Curran was head master of the institute and filled the chair of history and economics. The prevalance of typhoid fever at the Institute is said to be due to infected milk.

Electric Lights for School.—The Board of Trustees of the Chestertown Public School have contracted with the Chestertown Electric Light Company for the wiring of the public school building preparatory to installing electric lights. The assembly hall will be lighted by two large five light chandeliers and six three light and the corridors and recitations rooms will be lighted accordingly. The lighting of the building by electricity is done to provide for the holding of entertainments in the building. The work of wiring the building will begin at once.

To Our Patrons.—It is seldom indeed that we ask our patrons to "pay up," We have been fortunate in this particular, and yet we are compelled to do so now, for the reason that our moving soon to begin will necessitate the purchase of a new press and other machinery which will require a considerable outlay of money. We would therefore thank our patrons very much if they will render their accounts as soon as possible. We expect to move to our new building on Court street about Dec. 1, and we hope to have one of the best equipped and most convenient offices on the shore. Help us to do this, friends.

Boarding Place Purchased.—Mr. C. B. Jester, of Baltimore city, has purchased of Mrs. Mary E. Godwin and W. S. Godwin the boarding place near Tolchester known as "Hill Top." The price is $4800 and possession is to be given January 1st. 1906. Hill Top is one of the best known Boarding places in Kent county, frequently having from fifty to sixty Baltimore guests. There are about sixty acres in the place and Mr. Jester intends to run it to the highest limit next summer. Mr. Jester is a young man of energy, industry, perseverance and determination to succeed. May success crown his efforts. Mrs. Godwin enters into an agreement not to open a boarding house within three miles of Hill Top. J. Waters Russell, real estate, negotiated the sale.

Second National Bank Breaks Record.

That the Second National Bank, of Chestertown is fast becoming the largest and most influential bank on the Eastern Shore of Maryland is evidenced by the remarkable statement of its resources and investments, to be found in another column of this issue. The statement shows loans and discounts, bonds and securitits, etc., to the amount of $614,853.02, a surplus and undivided profits account of $39,071.80, and individual deposits subject to check of $632,985.52. This a remarkable and most gratifying statement, and it is the record for this prosperous institution. In the opinion of the National Bank Examiner, "the bank is clean and accurate in all its tranactions.'

The Second National Bank is one of the most liberal users of printer's ink on the Shore, carrying a large advertisement exclusively in the TRANSCRIPT which always brings large results to its patrons.

Fires in the County.

The outbuildings on the farm of Mrs. R. E. Feddeman, near Chesterville, tenanted by Mr. Andrew Vansant, were destroyed by fire last Friday evening. The barn, stable and all the farm implements, together with 1550 bushels of corn were destroyed. The loss is about $2000 covered by insurance in companies represented in Millington.

Some one set fire to the woods on Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson's Fancy Farm on Monday afternoon, and for a time the blaze looked dangerous. It was discovered by Mr. Nicholson while on his way to his son's farm, and he and his farm hands worked until nine o'clock that evening in extinguishing the blaze. It was thought that the fire had been put out, but the strong wind on Monday night fanned the flames again, and it was not subdued until a great many of the young trees had been burned, and 40 panels of fence belonging to Mr. Nicholson and 75 panels of Mr. James French's division fence had been destroyed. It is thought that a hunter set fire to the leaves in the woods.

The brick dwelling on the farm near Still Pond, tenanted by Mr. John Parrott, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday. This was one of the old landmarks of the county, having been the home of the late John Parrott and family prior to their removal to Still Pond. Since the building of the new dwelling in which the younger Mr. Parrott resides, the old dwelling had been used as a tenant house and was occupied by one of the farm hands at the time of its destruction. It was insured in the Kent Mutual.

Rev. Tilghman Smith, supply at Golt's M. E. Church, who has also been attending Dover Academy, has found it necessary because of failing health to relinquish his charge, and Presiding Elder W. G. Koors has secured Rev. Larry W. Long, also a student at Dover, to supply the work until conference.

Rev. W. L. White preached at Crumpton on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Robertson led the Young People's service at Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening, and gave a very interesting programme. Besides a talk by Miss Nettie Russell, there was a quartette by Mrs. Akers, Miss Addie Hurlock, Messrs. James P. Parrott and Fred G. Usilton, a solo by Miss Edith Fallowfield, a duet by little Misses King and Pennell, and recitations by Miss Bessie Wheatley and Miss Stephens, of Washington College, all of which were much enjoyed.

The revival services at Lynch's M. P. Church, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, are growing in interest and results.

Ground was broken last Wednesday morning at 7.30 o'clock for the erection of a new Sunday School annex to North Baltimore M. P. Church, Rev. F. C. Klein, pastor. Mr. Klein broke ground with a pick-ax, and interesting ceremonies were held, including an address by Daniel Baker, Esq. The church is in a flourishing condition under the pastorate of Mr. Klein

Sunday, Nov. 26th., will be observed throughout the world as "Temperance Day," and the churches of the town have been asked to arrange suitable programmes for the day. Special sermons will be preached in the Methodist churches in the morning, interesting programmes will be rendered in the Sunday Schools in the afternoon, and there will be special exercises at night. Let the church people bear this in mind and make their arrangements to attend church during that day.

Reopening exercises will be held at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church on Sunday, Nov. 26th. The church has recently undergone extensive repairs and furnishing and it is now one of the handsomest places of worship in this county.

On World's Temperance Sunday which occurs on Nov. 26, all pastors, Sunday School Supts. and Pres. of church societies are respectfully requested to observe the day with appropriate exercises.

The usual services will be held at Christ Meth. Prot. Church. The pastor's sermon theme in the morning will be, "The Chaff and the Wheat;" in the evening, "The First of the Saviour's Dying Words." The Christian Workers' Meeting at 6.45 P. M.

Wedding Bells.

The Locust Grove M. E. Church, this county, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8th, at 5 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and chrysanthemums and potted plants by the many friends of the bride. The contracting parties were Mr. Murray H. Boyer, son of Mr. William J. Boyer, and Miss Hattie A. Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hill. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin, skillfully rendered by Miss Ethel Brown Clements, and were met at the altar by Revs. A. P. Prettyman, of Galena, and W.C. Poole, of Church Hill. Misses Susan and Florence Hill, sisters of the bride, attired in white Paris muslin with lace and ribbon trimming, opened the gates for the wedding party. First came the ushers, Messrs. J. Coburn Clark, of Philadelphia; Charles W. Harrington, of Centreville, and Leon Clark, of Kenton, Delaware. The bride's maids were Miss Emma Harrington, of Centreville, and Miss Anna S. Matthews, of Chestertown. Their costumes were white chiffon over green and carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums tied with ferns. Miss Nellie Barwick was maid of honor and wore white chiffon over pink and carried pink and white chrysanthemums. Little Helen Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter, acted as flower girl and was daintily attired in white mulle and carried an armful of white and yellow chrysanthemums. The groom and ushers wore black suits with white ties, white carnation bouttonnieres and gray gloves. The bride was tastefully attired in white peaude cyne silk en train with princess lace and messaline trimmings and carried a huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums and ferns tied with white chiffon. The ring ceremony was used. The bridal party retired to the strains of Mendelshon's wedding march. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Boyer left for their home in Queen Anne's county. The bride was the recipient of many costly and beautiful presents.

POLITICAL SNAP SHOTS.

Sheriff-elect Andrew Medders was in town on Tuesday and made arrangements with Deputy Sheriff Startt to remain in his present position. This is a wise move on the part of our new sheriff, as Mr. Startt is one of the most efficient deputies the county has ever had and deserves to be retained in his present position.

The official returns, published elsewhere is this issue show slight changes in those published last week. The Amendment was carried in the county by only 8 votes instead of 27 as at first published. The Democratic ticket shows about the same majorities.

The newly elected officers will assume their duties as soon as their commissions arrive from Annapolis, which is usually about December 1st.

The people of the Fifth District are very much incensed at the publication of the statement that voters were bought in the District on election day at the rate of two for a quarter. They state that there is absolutely no truth in the statement, and resent its publication as an insult.

There is much speculation in State political circles as to the organization of the next Legislature. For President of the Senate the following names have been prominently mentioned as probable candidates: Senator John P. Moore, of Worcester; Senator Marion V. Brewington, of Wicomico; Senator-elect Joseph B. Seth, of Talbot, and Senator Arthur P. Gorman, Jr., of Howard county. For the Speaker of the House Dr. Richard S. Hill, and delegate Ray, of Prince George's, delegate Murphy, of Baltimore city, and delegate Carville D. Benson, of Baltimore county. It is quite certain however, that both houses will be organized by the Democrats and that there will be a harmonious co-operation with Gov. Warfield in matters of legislation.

With Our Advertisers.

Read John Bartley's advertisements in this issue. He has something important to say to housekeepers concerning furniture and wall paper that will prove of interest. He is headquarters for all that is needed in house furnishings etc.

Read Harry F. Jefferson's change of advertisement this morning. He has employed extra help—Miss Bessie Ball, in his millinery department, to supply the great demand for hats. Read his advertisement and you will find something to interest you.

B. S. Sutton is still doing business at the old stand at Black's. He writes us that his business is growing apace. Know why? He sells good goods at right prices, and this catches the trade every time.

Messrs. Needles Bros. have recently papered the I. O. O. F. lodged room in the TRANSCRIPT building in a very tasty and artistic manner. The Messrs. Needles have an enviable reputation for neat and artistic work and they are doing a large business in consequence.

Clifton L. Jarrell is paying 33c per dozen for eggs to-day.

HOPE FOR THE SICK.

MRS. HENRIETTA MARSH.

A VICTIM OF LA GRIPPE.

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, 769 W. 16th St., Los Angeles, Cal., President Woman's Benevolent Ass'n, writes:

"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks, and nothing I could do or take helped me until I tried Peruna.

"I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and I kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored, and I am glad that I gave that truly great remedy a trial, I will never be without it again."

In a letter dated August 31, 1904, Mrs. Marsh says: "I have never yet heard the efficacy of Peruna questioned. We still use it. I traveled through Kentucky and Tennessee three years ago, where I found Peruna doing its good work. Much of it is being used here also."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.
