MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Miss Fannie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cole, of Queen Anne's, near town, and Mr. William Taylor, also of Queen Anne's were married at Asbury M. E. parsonage Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 15, by the Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor of Asbury.

Mr. F. C. Numbers is building a large double dwelling on his lot at the north end of Crane street. The building is up to the square. Mr. Numbers contemplates having the building completed by the new year, if the weather continues favorable for the workmen.

The gunning law was out in Queen Anne's last Wednesday, Nov. 15. The sport was enjoyed by a great many who took advantage of the invitation extended by their friends. A number came from the cities, and guns could be heard in all directions in the vicinity of town.

Mr. Frank Dixon, son of Mr. George H. Dixon, who resides about one half mile north of town, met with an accident last week which for a time was thought to be very serious. He was hauling corn fodder from a field on the opposite side of the railroad from which the house stands, and in crossing the tracks the wheels of the wagon struck a block of wood which caused the horses and wagon to come to a sudden standstill, and jolted him from the load where he was riding. His back struck some railroad ties, and for a time it was feared his back was broken. He was rendered unconscious and was taken to his home in that condition. Dr. N. Comegys was summoned, and after a thorough examination it was found no bones were broken, but he was badly shaken up and bruised. We are glad to say he is able to sit up, and hope he will not suffer any ill effects from the fall later.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weist attended the 80th birthday anniversary of Mr. Weist's mother, Mrs. ——— Weist, of Philadelphia, Nov. 3rd. Mr. Weist has returned home, but Mrs. Weist is still in Phadelphia visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peacock, of Philadelphia, have been registered at Vansant's Hotel part of this week. Mr. Peacock has many friends here, He was born here and lived in this vicinity until grown to manhood. He now resides in Philadelphia and had not visited his native town for over 16 years. He had grown out of the recognition of some of his friends, but after the acquaintance was renewed they were old friends again, and his friends welcomed him back right heartily.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jarrell and little daughter, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Jarrel's mother, Mrs. Gillespie, of Sudlersville, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Gillespie's sisters, Misses Vic and Helen Power, on Cypress street.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared." For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist.

The Jr. O. U A. M. held their anniversary in K. of P. hall on Monday eve. It was purely a social gathering and was enjoyed by all.

Colds and throat troubles are very prevalent but no diphtheritic troubles.

Mrs. Jennie Rich, of New Jersey, is visiting friends in Rock Hall. She formerly resided near Gratitude wharf.

Chesapeake lodge K. of P. has thrown off her lethargy and is busy exemplifying the mysteries of Knightism. Jack (the mean man) came in with flying colors and was shorn of his meanness. Others are asking admission, and if the ladies are permitted to solicit, the fat goat will become emaciated. Jeff is a hustler, and leads the van.

The wrapper factory began operation Thursday. Now, girls, don't become discouraged if you do not make but a few cents when you begin. Some who are now receiving $9 per week made 3 cents a day and 89 cents a week when they began. Go at it with the determination to succaed, then be content to climb the ladder step by step and you will soon find yourself at the top.

Master Charlie Tremble was a happy boy on Monday morning when he found a rabbit in his gum, but was afraid to take it out. Bob Ayres delights in catching wee bits of rabbits.

Two of our town ladies (one a school marm) went to the city to do some shopping at Stewart's, and being busy purchasing, forgot to consult the time. When they did they found they had 20 minutes in which to reach the boat. One had selected a pair of shoes, but the clerk was so slow in wrapping them she took one in each hand and made for the street. So rapid was their exist, that business on that floor was suspended and their attention attracted to the fleeing girls. They ran down the street winding in and out among the people and cars, and workmen stopped to let them pass. Finally the teacher, being the better runner, began to lead the other. The former cried, "come on!" the latter cried, "tell the boat to wait!" At last they reached the boat, both exhausted, but in time. But business was suspended from Stewart's to Pier No. 7.

The trustees of the M. E. Church have granted Brother Burr a month's vacation. Rev. Conway filled the pulpit last Sunday, and the Rev. Grise will preach on the 19th inst.

Wesley Chapel will hold its reopening on the 26th inst. The interior has been remodeled, and presents a beautiful appearance.

One of the boys who connect Fairlee with Rock Hall every Sunday was not content with one day in seven, but took the advantage of the other by making a visitation here.

Windy days are fatal to hogs. Squealing porkers could be heard in every direction on Tuesday, but little is mentioned concerning their weight. Jeff or Slimmey may have something to say in the near future.

Fish law, oyster law and all other laws are dormant for the present, and so is Squire Jewell. No fish, no oysters and no violations.

Rock Hall extends its congratulations to Betterton for their efforts to stop the violations of the fish law. They also deeply sympathize with your officer who lost his commission on those nets.
