Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Good Security.

"Mister, do you lend money here?" asked an earnest young voice at the office door.

The lawyer turned away from his desk and confronted a clear-eyed, poorly dressed lad of twelve years, and studied him keenly for a minute. "Sometimes we do—on good security," he said gravely.

The little fellow explained that he had a chance "to buy out a boy that's cryin' papers." He had half the money required, but he needed to borrow the other fifteen cents.

"What security can you offer?" asked the lawyer.

The boy's brown hand sought his pocket and drew out a paper carefully folded in a bit of calico. It was a cheaply printed pledge against the use of intoxicating liquors and tobacco. As respectfully as if it had been the deed to a farm the lawyer examined it, accepted it, and handed over the required sum.

A friend who had watched the transaction with silent amusement laughed as the young borrower departed.

"You think I know nothing about him?" smiled the lawyer. "I know that he came manfully in what he supposed to be a business way, and tried to negotiate a loan instead of begging the money. I know that he has been under good influences or he would not have signed that pledge, and that he does not hold it lightly or he would not have cared for it so carefully. I agree with him that one who keeps himself from such things has a character to offer as security."—Exchange.

Reason For Teaching.

At the Seward county teachers' meeting held at Seward the other day each teacher was called on to answer the question, "Why am I a teacher?" Here are some of the replies:

Because I thought I might do more good than by being a preacher. It was a choice between those two professions.

Because I wanted to be respected. Teachers are all respected by children.

Had nothing else I could do, so I tried teaching and like it.

I am a teacher because I like power. I still long for more power. My ambition in that line is not yet satisfied.

Because I could make better wages than by working out as a hired girl.

Because my friends and relatives said I would make an ideal teacher and old maid.

Because it runs in the family and I love children.

Because I think Carnegie will pension wornout school teachers. Only way to get on pension rolles, since wars are all over.

Because it is such an easy way to make a living. Sit three hours every morning and hold a little book and ask questions. Do the same thing for three hours in the afternoon. Then just have a good time for the remaining eighteen hours. Nothing to do on Saturdays or Sundays and a rest of four months and more every year during the hot weather.

Because I need the money.—Kansas City Journal.

The Gallant Sailor.

A theatrical manager told this story recently:

"It was a benefit performance," he said, "and at a table in the lobby souvenir programs were being sold by Miss Lillian Russell, Miss Ethel Barrymore, Miss Anna Held, Miss Edna Wallace Hopper, Miss Edna May and two or three other actresses.

"A stunning table it was, undoubtedly. A young blue jacket passed before it. He stood quite still for some minutes, with his bronzed young face and his neat nautical togs, staring with the most ardent and respectful admiration at the young women before him. Then, with a half sigh, he laid a piece of silver down and turned away.

"'Won't you have something for your money?' one of the women called.

"The gallant sailor smiled and answered:

"'I've had more than my money's worth already, thanks.'"—New York Tribune.

The secret of success is no secret at all. It is intelligent, industrious, persistent effort to do a thing promptly and do it well. A pithy writer puts it in this way:

Do not shirk. lead the ven;
Plan your work, work your plan.

What It Means.

We're tired of answering questions! "Fewer Gallons; Wears Longer" means that you don't have to paint your house so often and you don't have to use so much paint. Costs less for the job, and you don't have to do the job so often.

The new paint is not new at all. Its the biggest-selling paint in the United States, and the firm that makes it is 152 years old.

Devoe Lead and Zinc—fewer gollons than mixed paints, wears twice as long as lead and oil.

Subscription to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

THE above picture of the man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion, and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold in almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

If the cod fish became extinct it would be a world-wide calamity, because the oil that comes from its liver surpasses all other fats in nourishing and life-giving properties. Thirty years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion found a way of preparing cod liver oil so that everyone can take it and get the full value of the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak, backward children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.

The Pursuit of Happiness.

The man who begins on Jan. 1st to seek his own happiness is in a fair way to miss it altogether. Happiness is an elusive sprite. The more she is pursued the swifter she flies. There is doubtless for those who make pleasure their business a sort of gratification in their diversions, though it can scarcely be called happiness. Happiness is not the chief object of our existence. As Beecher once put it, "Man was not made to be everlastingly fiddled on by the fingers of joy." Character is the end of life. Happiness is incidental. Let a man look well to the ordering of life in its relation to other lives, seeking to make them happy, and he will find himself wearing the garland.—Rev. Frank G. Tyrrell.

Brain Leaks.

A smiling face is a great road maker through life.

Last summer's pleasures are always brightest when the winter is coldest.

This world is good enough; the trouble is that so many people are not living up to it.

A lot of men claim credit for being good when they are only afraid of doing wrong.

Some people look on joining the church as a sort of vaccination against eternal punishment.

The love a labor lightens the load.

When the congregation yawns the preacher needs awakening.

There are housewives so awfully neat that they will not be content in heaven unless they can peer into all the corners.

Life's Greatest Reward.

The bearing of children is full of inconvenience, and the rearing of a family is full of toil and heavy responsibility. Yet the steps of this great progress are all set to the divinest music. With every new care come a new reward. The result once achieved, what joy and pride can excel those of parents who see around them a group of sons and daughters who are true and loving companions and helpers, who will one day stand in their places, to hand down to posterity the high inheritance of character, enriched by the added wisdom of the latter experience?—Julia Ward Howe.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist.
