VOL. XLIII—NO. 30. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1905. $1.00 PER ANNUM.

THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK of Chestertown, Md.

"The Only National Bank in Kent County."

Capital.....$50.000.00.
Surplus and Profits..... 32,000.00.
Stockholers' Liabilities..... 50,000.00.

Security to Patrons..... $132,000.00.

Being a National Bank, under the supervision of the National Government, we quote from the address of the Comptroller of the Currency delivered in Washington before the American Bankers' Association, Oct. 10, 1905:

"Of the seven thousand nine hundred and thirty national banks which have been organized four hundred and thirty-eight have failed, or five and one-half per cent. of the whole number, as against about seventeen and one-half per cent. of banks other than national in the same period. The national banks which have failed have paid their creditors over seventy-eight per cent. of the amount due them, while the other banks have paid only about forty-five per cent. Of the billions and billions of dollars they have had on deposit, the national banks have lost for their creditors in the whole period of their existence only about $30,000,000."

During the fifteen years of our existence, the management of this Bank has aimed to conduct an institution meriting the approval of the public. We think we are now better than ever qualified by reason of thorough methods, facilities and policy to give satisfaction to an appreciative public. We think the services of this Bank have been and are appreciated as the following figures show in the sworn statements made to the Comptroller:

Deposits Nov. 17, 1903..... $434,507.16
" Nov. 10, 1904..... ...$531,652.40
" Nov. 9, 1905..... $632,985.52

The three lines above tell their own tale.

We offer to our Depositors Security and Strength.
We are united in our Methods and in our Policy.
Our depositors share in our success.

"We Treat Everybody Alike."

More Room,
Plenty Goods,
Greater Business.

We have added five hundred square feet of floor space to our store, and have filled it up with one of the greatest lines of Clothing and Furnishings for Men and Boys to be found this side of the larger city stores, which better enables us to please every one in fit and fabric, and we mean it when we say that we can save you from 10 per cent. to 20 per cent. on your purchases less than the bigger expense houses would be obliged to ask you.

If you haven't been in to see the great change made in our building, you should do it now. It's worth your time to know what progress Chestertown and her merchants are making. We extend you a cordial invitation to call, and won't ask you to buy anything if you're not interested.

Yours for business,

SHOPPING DIRECTORY FOR CHRISTMAS.

Chestertown stores never looked prettier in their Christmas displays than now, and our merchants are busy preparing for a great rush next week. Much has been done to bring the people to town, in the way of advertising, and the selection of large and valuable stocks of goods, and for the benefit of the country trade and those desiring to make purchases in Chestertown the TRANSCRIPT this morning furnishes the following directory, which is absolutely correct in every respect.

J. H. Sides and A. Levine—Watches, jewelry, ornaments, clocks—everything there is of the finest stocks.

Sparks and Jefferson, Reed and Jarrell—Dress goods, notions, hats and coats—everything there on which a lady dotes.

Moody & Lusby and J. D. Lucas—hats and caps, coats and clothes—everything needed from head to toes.

Wroth and Carroll—Everything needed in foot apparel.

George Z. Roland has good meat and everything else that's good to eat.

J. K. Aldridge & Co., Smith & Graham—Stoves, knives and forks, lap-robes and guns, sleds that steer and give the boys fun.

M. A. Toulson and The Stam Drug Co.—Toys and books, pictures and games. These are the stores where there's always a jam.

The Dixie Fair—Glass and pictures, ornaments and books—everything pretty you'll find in there.

J. S. Bradley, the groceryman, has sugar and coffee, general merchandise and flour—he's busy all day and every hour.

Bartley, Needles and Fowler—the paint and paper men—They can make your house a snug little "den." There's furniture and paper and pictures galore—a splendid new stock in each fine store.

The Second National Bank will run your account till you get a snug amount of old cold cash.

Life Insurance—Insure your life and then get a wife.

Frank M. Miller and Wm. C. Sutton will give you a bath-room and heat of steam that will make your home one long sweet dream.

J. Waters Russell, real estate—He's there with the goods both early and late. He can sell your house; he can sell your land, for he's a hustler to beat the band.

France, Bacchus and Culp—The coal and woodmen—They keep those materials that keep us warm, and make our homes comfortable in time of storm.

And there's Sam Hicks with shoes and spikes, that can make travel safe over the turnpikes. He can sell you a carriage that is noted for its wearage, or he can try your case, when you get a smashed face. Judge is alright.

There are others, but these are all good enough.

WEDDING BELLS.

MORRIS—SHERIDAN.

St. James M. P. Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Wednesday when Miss Mary Owings, the popular daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Sheridan became the bride of Mr. Walter T. Morris, a prosperous farmer of near town. The church rarely looked prettier in its beautiful decoration of potted plants, holly and evergreen and with the soft rays of many candles casting their mellow light over the scene. Promptly at the appointed hour, 1.30 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, skillfully rendered by Miss Caroline Fenby, of Baltimore, the bridal party entered the church. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Ridgely Sheridan, of Baltimore, by whom she was given away. She was attired in a beautiful gown of amethyst messaline chiffon over taffeta, trimmed with Persian lace, with picture hat to match. She carried a large bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns.

Mr. John Aspril, of Sparrows Point, cousin of the groom, was best man. Harvey Morris, nephew of the groom, and Jarrett Sheridan, brothers of the bride, were the ushers. They wore the conventional black with gray gloves and white carnation bouttonieres. The groom wore the usual black with white vest. The party was met at the chancel by the Rev. J. M. Sheridan, father of the bride, who performed the ceremony in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives. A bridal breakfast preceded the ceremony. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Morris were driven to Worton Station where they took the afternoon train for a bridal tour to Philadelphia, New York and Niagara Falls. The bride's going away gown was garnet broadcloth with hat to match. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents, among them a handsome silver service, the gift of the bride's parents, silver candleabras, bric-a-brac, etc. The groom's gift to the bride was was a handsome gold watch and chain. They will reside on Mr. Morris' valuable estate near town after Jan. 1.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Skirven, Miss Mae Sheridan, Miss Caroline Fenby, Miss Riggs and Mr. Ridgely Sheridan, of Baltimore.

Sale Date Changed.—The date of the sale of the personal property of Mr. Joseph H. Porter on the Reese Beck farm near Worton Manor has been changed from Thursday Dec. 28, to Thursday Dec. 21. Please bear this fact in mind. The advertisement is on the editorial page.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE ON THE BAY.

Twelve Young Men From Baltimore Caught in the Gale Last Sunday and Blown to Kent Shore.

Twelve young men left Baltimore last Sunday morning in a gasoline launch for Middle River, expecting to spend the day there. Shortly after leaving the harbor they were caught in the heavy gale that swept the bay, and their frail bark was soon a prey to the wind and waves. The gasoline tank became unmanageable, and without oars or means of propulsion, they drifted about with the tide and wind all day, until finally they went ashore on Swan Point on the farm of Mr. Chas. Strong. The young men knew their location and after landing three of them proceeded to Rock Hall where they telephoned to relations in the city that they were alright, and prepared to spend the night with prop. Lewis. The remainder were kindly cared for by Mr. Strong. They were taken to Bogles wharf on Monday where they boarded the steamer Ford for their homes in Baltimore. The men told Capt. Clarke that the gale was the heaviest they had ever experienced on the bay, and while there was no real danger of their craft capsizing they did not know where they would finally land, or whether it would be a case of perishing from cold and hunger. They were mighty glad to get to shore and to civilization again, and they were still more delighted when their feet touched the cobble stones of old Baltimore again. They left their little boat on Swan Point shore for the time.

Chestertown Camp P. O. S. of A.

Mr. Wm. B. Coleman, president of the 16th District of the P. O. S. of A., contributed the following to "Sons of America," the organ of that body in the State, in regard to the Chestertown Camp:

"Camp No. 34 takes great pleasure in giving expression of its appreciation for the new torch which lit up our homes a few weeks ago, known as the "Sons of America," a welcome messenger, indeed; and whose message we will look foward to with great interest, coming into our home once a month, thus being in touch with all the camps in our beloved state. A name, like no other name, has clustered about it; a kindred spirit that animates the breast of every American born creature from the cradle to the gray locks of old age, a golden chain that knows no north, no south, but "God, Our Country, and Our Order," ever sparkling with "Harmony and Hustle." Camp 34 has taken on new enthusiasm, to dig about the roots of the old apple tree, our beloved Camp, that she bear more fruit, that this year may be the best year in the history of our Order, for now we have a most splendid organ to assist us in getting the grand principles of our Order before the people, and a most excellent chief at the head, to send forth to the high and to the low, to the rich and to the poor, charming notes of true patriotism and fraternity, for in my estimation our beloved order has no equal upon the face of God's green earth, outside of the church. Camp 34 has placed upon the wall of our Camp room, a most beautiful black frame, with a death roll chart, artistically arranged within, with white flags projecting the back grounds, symbol of peace and rest, setting forth the date of a brother's coming into the Camp, and his translation to the better world that though he be dead yet shall he live, and will ever live in the minds and hearts of all Sons of America. Camp 34 is like a flower with the morning dew upon it, is taking a new life for increase, in her ranks."

A Chance for Boys and Girls.

A gentleman interested in mathematics in the county offers a pound box of Lowney's chocolate candy to the first boy or girl 12 years of age or under that brings the correct answer to this office to the following problem:

MAKING CHANGE.

A lady bought some goods for 34 cents, but had just one dollar and five cents in three coins. The store keeper had only a 50-cent piece and a 25-cent piece in his till. But a bright newsboy, who had two dimes, a five-cent piece, a 2-cent piece and one cent, showed the way to financier the transaction so that all three got their correct change. How was it done?

Now, boys and girls, here's your chance to get a nice prize. Try it. Answers received until next issue, Saturday, Dec. 23.

*†*Capt. Wm. Crew, of Betterton, who was accidentally shot in the foot recently, is very much improved.

RE-OPENING OF WESLEY CHAPEL.

After a series of disappointments, due entirely to conditions of the weather, Wesley Chapel M. P. Church was reopened for service last Sunday. Notwithstanding the disagreeable day, the loyal congregation was undaunted, and from morning till evening there were interesting services and large congregations. The exercises of the day began with a song service at 10.30 o'clock by the choir. The morning sermon was delivered by Rev. L. F. Warner, of Westminister M. P. Church. Bro. Warner is an earnest speaker and made a most favorable impression by his excellent sermon. At 2.30 in the afternoon the Sunday School Rally was held. The programme consisted of inspiring music and a very able address by Capt. Columbus A. Leary upon the "History of Wesley Chapel Church." Capt. Leary in his usual able and forceful style told the history of the church from its begining to the present time, which proved exceedingly interesting to the large audience. The evening service consisted of a song service by the choir and another strong sermon by Bro. Warner. Wesley Chapel has recently been thoroughly renovated and repaired at a cost of $853.59. The energetic people of the congregation have labored faithfully to raise the necessary funds to pay the indebtedness and when the services closed on Sunday evening they were able to announce that every penny of the indebtedness has been paid and the church is practically free of debt. Rev. J. W. Parris and his loyal band of workers deserve the highest praise, and they now have one of the most attractive and comfortable churches in the county. The day was a most enjoyable one, and everybody was happy because of their beautiful and comfortable surroundings.

CHURCH NOTES.

At a meeting of the officials of Christ M. P. Church last week it was decided to improve the vestibule of the church, repaint the walls where stained by rain, and to make some other changes.

Dr. H. L. Elderdice, of Westminster, will preach in Christ Church, Chestertown, next Sunday, and, by special invitation, will address the student body of Washington College in the evening.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Public worship with preaching Sunday, Dec. 17th, at 10.30 A. M. and 7 P. M. Text for the morning: As a very lovely song, etc." Text for the evening: "As the fishes that are taken in an evil net, etc."

Mrs. Badara, born in Bethlehem, and principal of a school and orphanage in Beyrout, Syria, delivered an address in Christ Church, Chestertown, Sunday evening to a large congregation.

Chestertown M. E. Church. Preaching at 10.30 A. M., subject, "Take no thought for to-morrow." Sunday-school at 2.15 P. M. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 P. M. At 7.30 P. M., Mrs. Badara, who is a native of Beyrout, Syria, and was reared at Bethlehem Judea, will speak on customs of the people of Palestine. All are cordially invited.

Rev. W. L. White preached a temperance sermon in Kennedyville last Tuesday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of that place.

The congregation of Christ M. P. Church gave their pastor, Rev. D. L. Greenfield, a bounteous donation on Monday evening. The company gathered at the home of Mrs. W. J. Vannort and proceeded to the parsonage laden with baskets and packages of provisions, etc. The popular pastor received a purse containing $32, and his pantry was filled to overflowing.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Coleman, of the Diocese of Delaware, delivered a splendid lecture in the Parish House of Emmanuel P. E. Church last Wednesday evening to a large and appreciative audience. The Bishop is a fluent and interesting speaker, and his lecture was replete with interesting incidents in connection with his recent European tour.

There was no preaching at St. James and Lynch's last Sunday owing to the absence of the pastor Rev. J. M. Sheriday who was assisting in the re-opening services of Wesley Chapel.

Will Receive College "W."

The following athletes of Washington College have been awarded the College "W" as a result of the football season: McGinnis (capt.), McMaster, Voss, L. Moore, Maddox, Gibson, White, Long, Rasin, Wilson, A. Hitch, Gill, G. Moore, Huey, Porter and Brittingham. The football season has been a most succesful one at the college. The team was strong at the close of the season, and by its defeat of the Maryland Agricultural College, which had just previously defeated St. John's, football at the college took a decided brace. This year's football team was decidedly the best the college has had in years.
