WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the Change of Life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter-box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. ENGLEMANN, 2032 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N.Y.

For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that time.

Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of nearly fifty years of service and thousands of women praise its merit, as does Mrs. Englemann.

You should give it a fair trial now.

BLIZZARD OF 1888

Luther Francis, of Annapolis, during the big snow storm of Tuesday indulged in some reminisctnses which was published. No doubt they will remind many readers of experiences they had.

The blizzard we had on the 10th of March, 1888, started with a thunder storm on Sunday night. The wind blowed for 94 hours, the bay froze over and the roads was blocked. I lived where Elwood Burgess lives now, on the old Vanlavier Farm. I was at Walter Sutton's house and could not get home that night. He lived in the old Asher house at Edesville. Walter Francis spent Sunday with his first wife before he was married on the old Eades Farm in sight of his home and he did not get home until Wednesday. He and I lived together. The old famous mare Topsy, died in the blizzard. Some of the old heads can recall the time.

QUEEN ASNE'S ASSESSMENT

The assessment which has just been completed in Queen Anne's county, brings to light the fact that the increased valuation of property, both real and personal, amounts to $1,699,745.00. This increase will give an additional income to the schools of $11,388.30 and to the county $12,-748.09. This increase is exclusive of all stocks, bonds, securities and rolling railroad stock. It is made up from the following:

Total increase in personal property	$173,075.00
Total increase in land	1,046,078.00
Total increase in buildings	480,592.00

The increase in each district is fairly in proportion to each other, which fact speaks well in proving that the assessment has been made on a strictly equitable basis. Below is tabulated the figures of both the old and new valuation in all districts:

1—1,794,709.00	1—2,130,785.00
2—1,654,935.00	2—1,911,647.00
3—3,022,495.00	3—3,494,081.00
4—1,278,005.00	4—1,474,830.00
5—1,758,350.00	5—1,913,670.00
6—1,483,814.00	6—1,640,075.00
7— 885,380.00	7—1,012,345.00

OYSTER BEDS IN DEMAND

The recent high price of oysters has stimulated interest in leasing bottoms located in the tidewater sections of the State, according to the Conservation Commissioner Harrison W. Vickers, and many applications for leases have been received.

Most of the applications have come from counties where extensive leasing has been done in the past, but it is hoped that the demand for oysters will result in leasing bottoms in counties which hitherto have been inactive in this respect.

Under the Oyster Culture law of Maryland, the Conservation Department issues a lease for a period of 20 years, and the rental, which is $1 an acre a year, is payable in advance. If a lessee fails to pay his rent for a period of six months after it is due, the lease is subject to cancellation and the bottom reverts to the State.

WILL THEY CAN HOT ROLLS NEXT?

Celebrating Canned Foods Week, which began throughout the country Saturday and continued until today, there was a banquet where they had canned tomato soup, canned veal loaf, canned beef, canned sweet potatoes, canned corn pudding, canned peas, canned beets, canned beans, canned asparagus, canned plum pudding, and canned milk and coffee. In fact, everything was canned but the hot rolls.

Perhaps the day is coming when even the rolls will be canned. So surprising has been the development of this great industry that, whereas a can of food was almost a curiosity to our great-grandmothers, no other country now equals the United States in the consumption of canned foods, and in no other country is the output and variety of canned foods so large. A fairly complete list of these canned foods comprises thirty-four vegetables, twenty-nine fruits, thirty-one meats, eighteen fish, four milk, and ten soups, making a total of one hundred and twenty-six different food products available for immediate use. The total annual output of canned foods in this country, it is estimated, has now reached the enormous figure of five billion cans.

IN MEMORIAM

James A. Casey

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, who departed this life five years ago February 26, 1918.
Love in life, in death remembered.

Sleep on, dear father, and take your rest,
God called you home;
He thought it best.
By his children, Nellie and Hattie.

Not dead to us, we love him still;
Not lost, but gone before.
You live with us in memory,
And will forever more.
By his grandchildren, Florence, Catherine, Frances and Franklin.

The hands that did so much for us
When helplessly we lay—
God knows they worked continouslly,
But they are gone from us today.
By his great-grandchildren, Irvin, Jr. Frances.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, John A. Jacquette, who departed this life one year ago today, March 10, 1922.
If love and care could death prevent,
My dear husband's life would longer been spent,
But one thought comes to us in our sadness,
He is free from all sorrow and pain,
The only link death cannot sever
Is love and memory, which lives forever,
Surrounded by friends we are lonesome,
In the midst of pleasure we are blue
With smiles on my face and aching heart,
We are always thinking of you.
Wife.

To the memory of John S. Jones.
No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that's borne in silence
For the one I loved so well.
Each hour there comes to me
A new and bitter sense of loss,
Oh, God, in mercy have pity on me
And help me to bear my cross.
Susie.
