Latimer G. Satterfield

Latimer G. Satterfield died at his home near Townsend, Del., Wednesday morning, March 7th, after an illness of four days, aged 30 years. Mr. Satterfield was a prosperous young farmer and his sudden death was a great shock to the whole community. He was an active member of Salem M. P. Church and had just recently been made a trustee of the church. Business came first with Mr. Satterfield, but he always found time for pleasure and he had a pleasant word and a sunny smile for every one. He was esteemed by all who knew him, and his death leaves a gap that will be hard to fill. He was closely devoted to his home and leaves a wife, small daughter, a devoted mother and a host of friends to mourn his untimely death. Funeral services were held at his late home at one o'clock Sunday afternoon and were in charge of Rev. C. M. Cullum, interment was made in Galena Cemetery. The following young men acted as bearers: Preston Shockley, Stanley Townsend, Ralph Carrow, Harvey Carrow, Raymond Maybrey and Charles Pryor; Lester Daniels, undertaker.

Worthy of Its Praise

The Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine actually improves with use. It is even smoother and more powerful at 5,000 miles than when new. Carbon only makes it better. Many owners report 50,000 miles of brilliant performance without engine adjustment. And a Willys-Knight engine has never been known to wear out.
