NOTICE OF MEETING AND THE CHANGE IN BY-LAW.

The annual meeting of the policyholders of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Kent County, Md., will be held at the Company's Office in Chestertown, Md., on at 10 o'clock a. m., for the election of directors and also there will come before the stockholders for ratification a recommendation from the Directors to amend No. 32 of the By-Laws of the Company so as to read as follows:

No. 32.—All sums collected from cancellation fees, from charges on cancellation of policies from gasoline, building, repair and other permits and all gains from increased value of real estate, bonds, stocks, and other securities and all amounts not distributed in the annual distribution of income, shall at the option of the Board of Directors, be carried to a surplus fund; which fund shall only be drawn upon when the fire losses and expenses and any other losses of the company shall exceed its annual income. But said fund shall in no case exceed twenty-five per cent of the company's premium notes.

Said change having been considered and proposed at the January meeting of the Board of Directors.

E. F. PERKINS, Secretary.

W. W. BECK IN HOSPITAL

Former State Senator W. W. Beck, chairman of the State Tax Commission, has been taken to the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Some weeks ago Mr. Beck had a severe attack of flu and his convalescence has been so slow that his friends have been much alarmed about him and reports from the hospital yeterday were that he was very ill.

CAPT. APPLEGARTH TO RESIGN AS ROADS ENGINEER.

Capt. Gault Applegarth, who, for seven years, has been Road Engineer for Kent county, has, according to Mrs. Applegarth, accepted a similar position at Frankford, Kentucky, at a salary of $3,600. He left Chestertown last Saturday for this new appointment accompanied by Arthur Deputy, of Fairlee.

The mercury was down to 15 degrees on Thursday.

SHAREHOLDERS SEEK PIGGLY WIGGLY FUNDS

The three Piggly Wiggly stores in Delaware, two being in the city, and one in Middletown, will be closed to conserve the assets of the company as a preliminary to learning what has become of the $90,000 secured from the sale of common stock. This action was taken at a meeting of 150 of the 350 stockholders of the Piggly Wiggly Delaware Corporation, held Monday afternoon in the Hotel du Pont, in response to a call from the new officials, who have held office only a month and who have been delving into the mysteries of the organization. They are George W. Moreton, president; P. J. Carpenter, secretary-treasurer and Robert P. Robinson, co-director, all connected with financial institutions in Wilmington.

The Delaware corporation is on a one-half of one per cent basis as far as the national Saunders' Piggly Wiggly concern that has been in the Wall street spotlight recently—that amount of the profits being paid as royalty for the use of the catchy name and the use of patent rights. In this case $1,000 was paid for the franchise. The stock was all held in relatively small amounts—no one has more than $5,000 of the total of $150,000, common and preferred. The corporation was organized last March with Elwood S. Bartlett, former cashier of the Atlantic City National Bank, and at present a director of the Union National Bank of Atlantic City, and D. H. Weissman, of Philadelphia, and J. G. Hostutler. Bartlett was president-treasurer; Hostutler was vice president and Weissman was secretary.

"In the early days of the company, the directors, Bartlett, Weissman and Hostutler voted the common stock to themselves as promoters," said one of the principal stockholders. "But they publicly represented that half the proceeds placed in the treasury and the remaining half to be held by themselves as payment for the franchise to do business under the Piggly-Wiggly system, cost of sale of stock, salaries, etc. Subsequently all of this stock was sold and $94,000 was placed to the credit of the company in the Union National Bank in Atlantic City, and almose immediately withdrawn and placed to the credit of E. S. Bartlett as trustee for himself and his fellow-promoters.

It is said the three stores have been operated at a loss of $15,000 during the year. The audit shows about $27,000 in assets besides the $94,000 gotten by Bartlett and which will be sued for at once. Stock was sold all down the Peninsula and contracts entered into for 7 stores, but only 3 were opened. About $10,000 worth of stock was sold in Kent.

Representatives of the company last Fall took a five-year lease on the large store room in the Lyceum Theatre building and posted signs that the store here would be opened "in the near future." Recently the owner of the building received a communication from the "new" president of the concern that "the former president had taken leases on a number of properties to assist him in selling stock, which he did to his own profit and the disadvantage of the company." The writer also very considerately suggested that the lessors look for another tenant for the property.

BARNYARD ON FIRE

The barnyard on the John P. Nicholson farm, Fairlee, took fire at noon Thursday. Crowds from the village reached the scene in time to save the buildings. The blaze caught in the fodder and straw and was progressing toward the stable when the firemen arrived and smothered the flames.

COOLING STATION SOLD

Sale of the cooling station at Millington, operated by the Quaker City Dairy Company, of Philadelphia, was made last week to the Breyer Ice Cream Company, connected with the Sharpless Ice Cream Company, of Philadelphia. The deal was closed through John Palmer Smith. local attorney.
