"HOW D'Y DO."

I am thinking 'bout that neighbor
Next to you,
Who is calculating daily
What to do;
For he has an obligation
Nearly due.
It would give him lots of pleasure—
Just how much you couldn't measure,
If you'd hand him out a cherry
"How d'y do."

If it happens he's a stranger
Next to you,
Who has lately come from far off
Kal'mazoo,
And has fetched along his daughter
"Sister Sue,"
I'd advise you to get busy,
Just ride over in your "Lizzie,"
And be first to hand him out your
"How d'y do."

There's your neighbor who is toiling
Next to you,
But his age is much against him—
Eighty-two;
And there's little that he's able
Now to do.
He is yearning more and more
For the friends he knew of yore.
So be sure to hand him out your
"How d'y do."

There's a Fairy that is dwelling
Next to you,
Slyly watching ev'ry kindness
That you do,—
Busy checking up the credit
That is due.
He will make your life auspicious,
And the old world most propitious,
If your atmosphere is full of
"How d'y do."

Galena, Md. FRANK H. RUTH.

The work of the Grand Jury for Kent County with John P. Ahern as foreman was accomplished in one and a half days. This is a record-breaker in the history of Kent county courts. The News joins with the Court in congratulating these gentlemen upon the expeditious work.

The report of a Mr. Fisher on conditions in Maryland jails and published in afternoon city papers, as far as it refers to Kent, was a malicious falsehood. There is no question but what there is room for improvement in all our penal institutions but their correction will not be brought about this manner.

In another column is noted the resignation of Dr. C. P. Gould and Prof. Shaunessy. Miss Cecil Ramsey and Mr. Spezer have also decided to discontinue their services at the venerable institution. The college is getting on a firm foundation and others will be named to fill vacancies.

Governor Ritchie Thursday appointed Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico county a member of the State Tax Commission, to fill out the unexpired term of the late William W. Beck, of Kent county. At the same time the Governor designated Commissioner J. Enos Ray, of Prince Georges county, as chairman of the Commission. Mr. Beck had held the chairmanship. The term for which Mr. Price was appointed expires May 1 next.

DAY-LIGHT SAVING

If Baltimore city votes on Day-Light Saving it will have to be put on the ballot by order of Court as Attorney General Armstrong has given an opinion that the law is not constitutional. The daily intercourse and relations of both business and social nature existing between city and country require that each should be regulated by the same general laws of life, no element of which is more important than the reckoning of time. For the good of the thousands of toilers within her own boundaries to whom a day-light saving plan is altogether unwelcome and for the benefit of her rural neighbors on whom she is largely dependent we hope Baltimore city will avoid "confusion worse confounded" and stick to the observance of standard time this summer.

Clarence Shriver, of the Ericsson Steamboat Co., committed suicide in Baltimore Thursday.

HELP THE NEAR EAST

Howard Turner, Kent's Near East Chairman, says Kent's quota to the Near East Relief is $2,000. On April 1st the county was credited with $1,945.10 leaving a little less than $100 to make up the full quota.

The Executive Committee of the Near East Relief for Maryland meets next week and the State Director, Mr. Harold F. Pelegrin would like to announce that Kent had over subscribed its quota.

Those who have not already sent in their subscriptions could by paying part at once, put Kent on the Honor Roll, provided payments are made by April 25th.

Another Lady Voter's Views

I note in the issue of the News for April 14, that a woman voter would elect women to office to cut down expenses.

I think that would be a fine idea providing the proper ones could be elected, but who ever heard of a real honest, capable, economical person getting an office, who ran it for the people's good only?

If the women were elected to office who are made to eke out an existence and get clothes for a family out of the allowance some men give their wives, it would be some use to elect them. But the women we now have in office in the county are proof that the other fellow is not considered, either in money or feeling, by women either.

The women could not make things any worse than the men have done, but I doubt if they could better it unless the men were all put out.

MINUTE TALKS

By The Business Men's Association of Chestertown.

This column makes its initial bow to the public with high hopes of meeting with the friendly attention and hearty co-operation of all those who have the welfare and progress of the comumnity really at heart. The Business Men's Association, under auspices it will be conducted, realize the need of a regular means of communication with the people of the town and county. And, to that end, the public-spirited editors of the Kent News have donated this space for these little weekly chats on subjects of timely interest to all of us.

We want the active interest of all Kent News readers. We want you to give us your own ideas of community questions and problems. If, from time to time, you have information dealing with agricultural problems or business conditions; send it to us. If there are any newsy matters pertaining to town or county improvement; let the secretary have them.

This is not an organization primarily for Chestertown; it is not an organization especially for business men. It is a public spirited, co-operative movement for the progressive uplift of the entire town and rural commuity. Whether you be farmer, lawyer, physician, merchant; whether you live in one of our county towns or in the country; whether you are a member of the association or not; you are interested in the betterment of your community and we want you and ask your active co-operation and support. Whoever you may be—this is your organization.

We ask you to be present at our regular monthly meeting on Monday, April 23, at 7.30 p. m., at the association rooms in the Imperial Hotel. A buffett luncheon will be served and subjects of vital interest to everyone will be discussed. If you are a member, bring your friends; if you are not a member, come anyway.
