Delaware is surely getting a fine reputation for enforcement of the Prohibition law. A young man from Kent was fined $400 on Wednesday for driving an automobile while intoxicated. A few months ago another Kent countian was fined $200 for similar offense. Isn't it a pity, for the good of all that such enforcement of the law does not exist in Maryland?

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church treated the parents and friends to a most delightful entertainment Thursday evening in the Sunday school room. Solos, speeches, play and other features made the program a fine affair. At its conclusion a present of a rug and table cover were presented the Sunday school by the little folks. Miss Mayme Thompson and Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb prepared the affair and are to be congratulated upon its success.

HAND OF DEATH

Our community was deeply shocked Friday morning when word was received that William T. Stanley had suddenly passed away while driving his horse in Betterton. Mr. Stanley has lived in our community for the last fifty years. He was a friend of all, always doing kind acts for others, a loving husband, a father always doing his best for his children. For the last forty years he has carried the mail to the station and his close attention to his duties and his thoughtful attention for others made him a valuable man that will be hard to replace. He was a member of the Young Men's Bible Class of the M. E. Church, Still Pond. Funeral services were held at his late home in Still Pond Monday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev.Truman Smith in charge. Interment in the M. E. Church yard, Still Pond. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Susana J. Price and two sons, Wm. Price Stanley and Harry C. Stanley. The pall bearers were John Robinson, Joe Bowers, Howard Turner, George Rash, Robert Bowers and Stonewall Hackett; undertaker, B. R. Fellows.

Mrs. Mary Eliazabeth Taylor, widow of the late John Taylor, died Friday, April 13th, at the home of her half sister, Mrs. Charles Ayres, in Rock Hall, age 82 years. Mrs. Taylor had been an invalid from paralysis nearly two years and for the last nine months had been faithfully nursed by Mrs. Ayres who, herself, was far from being well. She leaves a daubhter, Mrs. Jesse Rine, a grandson, Millard Rine, and one great-grandchild, all of Baltimore. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Ayres by Rev. W. H. Revelle, of the M. E. Church. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. bearers being Jesse Rine, Millard Rine, Charles Ayres, David Ayres, Robert Shallcross and Benjamin Ashley; Thomas H. Casey, undertaker.

Mrs. Susan M. Kingsland, who was a resident of near Rock Hall until a year ago, died on the 15th instant at the home of her brothers, 1605 Eutaw Place, Baltimore. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock; interment private.

John F. Prettyman, of this county, died in Cambridge Hospital Tuesday, aged 63. The interment took place at Odessa.

The cool weather is keeping back the asparagus season greatly in this section, and no grass will be fit to cut before the first or middle of next month. Arrangements have been made for handling the crop by motor truck service to the large cities direct from the shippers who will bring their crates.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE PLANS TRACK MEET

The second annual Eastern Shore inter-scholastic track and field meet, to be held at Washington College on May 19, is well under way. The committee is making due preparations to care for the contestants while they art guests at the college.

Tome Institutt hold its meet on the same day, but it is thought that the two will not conflict in the least, since Tome draws almost entirely from the territory not covered by the Washington College meet.

With more than 300 contestants present at the initial event last year, Washington College sees prospects for even a more successful season this year. The events are as follows:

80-Pound Class—50-yard dash; standing broad jump; 440-yard relay race.

95-Pound Class—60-yard dash; standing hop, step and jump; 440-yard relay race.

115-Pound Class—70-yard dash; running broad jump; 660-yard relay race.

Junior Unlimited Class—80-yard dash; 220-yard dash; running high jump; 8-pound shot put; medley relay race (Nos. 1 and 2, 220 yards; Nos. 3 and 4, 110 yards.)

Senior Class—100-yard dash; running broad jump; 440-yard run; running high jump; 880-yard run; 12-pound shot put; mile relay race.

UNHAPPY SITUATIONS

President G. I. Humphreys, of the Maryland Annual Conference, has been trying this week to straighten out some trying situations among several churches in Kent of his denomination. Rev. A. F. T. Raum, the popular pastor of Wesley Church, was sent to Snow Hill. This greatly displeased the people of Wesley and they vehevementl protested but to no avail. President Humphreys met the Quarterly Conference Tuesday night and prevailed upon them to release their pastor promising to send a good supply. Rev. Mr. Raum will preach at Snow Hill Sunday but there will be no preaching at Wesley. Rev. Mr. Scarborough, the former pastor of Crumpton charge, has joined the M. E. Church and been sent to Vienna. A supply will be assigned Crumpton.

Rev. J. F. Wooden, that Godly man of Kennedyville, the President of Kennedyville, but the President assigned to Wesley Chapel. He, with the people there, agreed that the work was more than he had been accustomed to and with the people there asked the President for a change. His successor, Dr. J. W. Trout, will come to Kennedyville next week. He is an able preacher, an affable and kindly gentleman and will give to this people a willing and hearty service. He has been at St. Luke's, Philadelphia, 19 years, and returned to Kent where he served when a young man.

We learn that Rev. J. F. Wooden will likely go to Cumberland.

Election Of Vestry

At a congregational meeting of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, on Thursday evening last the four vacancies in the vestry of the church were filled by the election of T. G. Wroth, Austin F. Shure, S. W. Westcott and Ernest Strong. The vestry organized by electing Austin F. Shure registrar, Ernest Strong, secretary, and T. G. Wroth, treasurer. A. A. Harris and S. W. Granberry were elected senior wardens and W. S. Carroll and Raymond Wilkins, wardens. R. H. Collins was elected delegate and T. W. Perkins alternate to the general convention at Easton May 1 and 2.

Wm. F. Malin was elected representative to National Council at Burlington, Vt., by the State Convention in Frederick this week. C. N. Satterfield made the response to the address of welcome.

Low Cost—Comfortable Motoring

This Buick four cylinder, five passenger touring car affords dependable, comfortable motoring for every occasion.

Improvements in the design of both the chassis and the famous Buick Valve-in-Head engine have contributed further to the well known Buick qualities of dependability and economy. Innovations in equipment have provided comfort in the open model that approximate those found in much more expensive closed cars.

For instance, with the Buick designed storm curtains, reinforced by the Buick weather strip, closed car coziness in bad weather has been closely approximated. A signal pocket for the driver, complete instrument board, transmission lock and many other conveniences are features every motorist appreciates.
