OUR MOTHERS

Were words ever conveyed to prose or poetry, music or song, that adequately expressed—Mother? No artist hand has every portrayed her sublime beauty and wonder of mind, no words ever fathomed the infinite depths of the shrouded intelligence of her soul, nor the power of her mystic touch to the fevered brow; nor the abounding understanding of her worshipful love for the erring offspring. Was there ever a gulf of wrong-doing that could not be bridged by mother's understanding? Or ever a soul so crime-stained by sin, that could not stem the current of mother love. Its great overflowing fullness is divine nature, Godlike. With God, mothers are the creators of the future, they are co-workers with the infinite intelligence, the Supreme Being. They are God creators in the minds of men.

How many men and women owe their success in life to the unselfish toil of a mother's love; and yet time goes on until she is called from this earth life before realization comes to them that she has been their willing slave with gentle forbearance, always working unselfishlessly for their pleasure and comfort, self forgotten in the great absorbing love for others.

As they stand beside the beloved little mother for the last time with the absence of life and love shining in that still, sweet face, there creeps into the heart such depth of loneliness that the soul has ever known, and with realization comes the innate cry of a soul touched with real sorrow. "Oh, had I but understood before too late."

Flowers are lavishly displayed, piled high upon the bier as love offerings, but oh, how little beside such a gift as she had given. A life of service, overflowing with patience and loving sacrifice.

Oh, that we could give the mothers that are with us, the fragrant flowers, appreciation and loving kindness while they are spared on earth, that they may know the wonderful content that gratitude stirs in the heart of a gentle, loving mother. Would we not give more than beautiful flowers to feel again those toil-worn hands caressing our fevered brow! Those beautiful toil-worn hands.

May each day set apart as Mother's Day create in our hearts a firm resolution for a deeper, a greater, more generous expression of love and kindly service for mothers that are with us, that they will not have to wait for the life beyond to gather flowers from their loved ones, but will find them growing each day as the years go by, in loving kindness, the real perfume of the soul, and our regrets when the separation comes, will not be sadness for what we might have done.

Mothers, wonderful mothers, ever marching forward, "carrying on" the flag of eternal progression, giving into the world their sublime service that the world may be enriched by their noble devotion to motherhood, for the betterment of humanity, that the earth may be peopled with greater minds, finer ideals, higher attributes of godly wisdom and justice.

That is a mother's rare, exclusive privilege, her glory unadorned. "God creator in the minds of men."

—Anne Brewington.

Gross negligence of the directors in the management of the affairs of the defunct Second National Bank of Elkton was charged in a suit instituted Friday in the United States Court there by Thomas W. Perkins, receiver for the bank, against Samuel J. Keys, Russel, J. Reed and John Lungren, three of its five former directors. The court is asked to require them to account for their management of the bank and to make good its losses, amounting to $219,832.12. All three of those against whom the suit was brought live in Cecil county. Two other directors of the bank at the time of its failure were Wm. T. Warburton, the president, who died February 28, 1922, and Charles W. Johnson, who served as cashier and director from January 12, 1921. They were not included as defendants. Thus it will be seen that a director in a financial institution assumes large responsibilities when he accepts these honored positions.

JACKSON ELECTED MAYOR

Howard W. Jackson, Democratic nominee, was elected Mayor of Baltimore Tuesday by a plurality of 23,904 over Mayor Broening, carrying nearly every ward in the city and winning with the entire city-wide ticket and a substantial majority of the new unicameral City Council.

The Citizens' ticket, headed by former Mayor James H. Preston, after making a remarkable campaign rolled up a total of 37,835 votes.

But the total vote cast was less than 75 per cent of the registration. The vote for the Democratic candidate for Mayor was 61 per cent of the affiliated Democratic vote. Republicans fared a little better in proportion, with Comptroller Peter E. Tome leading the ticket.

The vote was as follows:

For Mayor—
Jackson 73,899
Broening 49,995
Preston 37,395

For Comptroller—
Graham 65,967
Tome 53,081
Smith 34,880

For President of City Council—
Bryant 68,828
Gould 47,816
Voshell 35,182

Early Dabblers in Dentistry.

The first physician to speak of treating the teeth is Galen (131-200 A. D.) The science of dentistry, however, may be said to date from 1839, when Prof. Richard Newton pointed out "the organic connection between the vascular and the vital soft parts of the frame and the hard substance of the teeth." His work appeared in 1840-1845.

Great Woman and Great Empress.

It was Maria Theresa, empress of Germany (1717-1780) who spoke the memorable words, "I want to meet my God awake." When dying she refused a dose of opium. Carlyle says of her: "She was most brave, high and pious; beautiful and radiant with good nature; though of a temper that would easily catch fire; perhaps no nobler woman lived."

GRATITUDE

The success of the greatest sale in our history—the overwhelming expression of public confidence, evidenced by the making of so many new friends, as well as the confidence of old friends pledged anew—has filled our treasure chest—good will to overflowing—It is the most valuable asset we've realized from our great bargain event that closes this Saturday night.

The building of permanent good will has slways influenced every transaction made in this store—it has established our policy, and it is evident that it must be made deep and firm in the confidence of the public if we continue to extend and to grow.

And, we would be ungrateful, indeed, should we fail to make a public expression of our gratitude, for the passing of this great merchandise sale, and we thank the public in general for the confidence placed in our store,

So, sincerely, we say "THANK YOU" and invite you to visit us again, at your convenience, to view the advance showings of bright, new merchandise so prevalent throughout the store at all times.

If low prices, courtesy and splendid service will hold your friendship and patronage for life, we are going to stretch every point possible to do it.

A CARD

I am a candidate for Sheriff of Kent County, subject to the Democratic Primaries in September.

ADOLPHUS DAVIS,
m5 Millington, Md.

To the Democratic Voters of Kent County, Maryland,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having recently received several letters from different sections of the county, and having been asked by a number of loyal party people, both men and women to present my name again as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator, beg to say that after careful consideration concerning this matter, I have fully concluded to do so.

While thus announcing myself I cordially ask for your assistance, and trust that you may be able and willing to give me your earnest and active support. Should I succeed in receiving the nomination at your hands and then be fortunate enough to win at the polls in November it will be my pleasure and my pride to discharge the duties of said office with promptness, uprightness and courtesy to all.

My attachment to the party which won my early allegiance has grown stronger with the passing years, and I hope to be worthy of your confidence and endorsement once more. I regard the State Senatorship as an important public trust, but am not pressing any special claims or fitness upon my fellow-citizens in this connection.

Realizing my many shortcomings and imperfections I humbly await the verdict of my party, and by this verdict I now promise to abide.

Faithfully yours,
WILLIAM F. RUSSELL.
