BURTON EDWARDS

MASSEY GARAGE

My auto tis of thee short cut to poverty, of thee I shant. I blew a pile of dough on you six years ago, now you refuse to go—or wont or can't. Through town and countryside you were my joy and pride. Oh. happy day. I loved thy gaudy hue, thy tires so white and new, but now you're down and through in every way. To thee old rattlebox came many thumps and knocks. For thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn. frayed are thy slats and worn, whoopingcough affects thy horn I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, while good folks choke and sneeze as we pass by. I paid for the a price, would buy a mansion twice, now everybody's yelling ice.—I wonder why. Gone is my bank roll now, no more Would choke a cow, as once before. Yet had I it again, so help me John, amen, I'd buy a car and then I'd speed some more,

AND EVEN THAT CAR MIGHT HAVE BEEN REPAIRED AT BURTON EDWARDS' GARAGE.
