

THE STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX SEDAN

Where Quality Counts Above Everything Else

Quality is more important in an enclosed car than in most any other product in daily use.

Regardless of price, it is not economy to buy a makeshift job in which the quality is skimped and cheapened at every turn. Paint, imitation leather and fibre board too often cover serious structural defects and cotton-and-wool trimming cloths are short lived. The chances are that the buyer will more than pay the difference later—in higher upkeep cost, frequent repairs and excessive depreciation.

The price of the Light-Six Sedan is the lowest at which it is possible to obtain a substantial, high grade hardwood and steel body, upholstered in mohair, in combination with a chassis of proved dependability and performance.

Studebaker's South Bend plants build more high quality closed bodies than those of any other automobile manufacturer and consequently overhead costs are reduced and the price to the customer is low.

The in-built quality of the Light-Six Sedan is evident the moment one gets behind the wheel, and is appreciated far more after twenty-five or thirty thousand miles of service.

The Light-Six Sedan, with its sturdy four-door body, its improved L-head motor, and the excellence of its chassis, combines distinction of appearance with a reliability of performance, a degree of comfort and economy of operation unknown in any other car at anywhere near its price.

W. F. M. S. MEET AT STILL POND

The Third Quarterly Meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Middletown District was held at the Still Pond M. E. Church Tuesday, June 5th. The morning session was opened by Rev. J. A. Buckson at 10.30. Rev. E. M. Shockley, of Still Pond Church gave the delegates and visitors a most cordial welcome and in his address gave a very concise history of the foreign missionary movement and a brief survey of its future possibilities. This address was responded to by Mrs. Harvey Moore, of Betterton.

After a very enjoyable duet rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Connelly, of Townsend, Del., the rest of the morning was devoted to routine business. This was brought to a close by the announcement of luncheon which was served in the Sunday school room of the church. To the picnic lunches of the delegates and visitors were added ice cream and coffee served by the ladies of the church.

The afternoon session was opened by a very strong and inspiring address by Mrs. Charles Walters, of Still Pond. This address dealt mainly with the ladies of the society, the opportunities for larger service and the need for greater consecration and determination in the work. Miss Florence Hooper, General Treasurer of the Society, gave a most interesting talk on the general purposes of the Society and its increasing field for work.

The entire day was one of inspiration, both through the talks given and through the association with others in the same work and in larger fields of service.

IN MEMORIAM.

Loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, Clara Elsie Clothier who passed away one year ago June 10, 1922. Gone but not forgotten.

Sleep on dear child, God knew best,
Asleep in Jesus, you are at rest,
A sadder heart no one can know
Than mother's you left one year ago.

Miss her, yes, we miss her,
Just twelve months has passed away,
Time cannot heal our broken hearts
Or fill the vacant chair.
Loving Mother.

When we sit at home sad and lonely
We think, oh it be true
That she has torn from the hearts
That loved her so fell to sleep in the silent tomb.

Never on earth again she'll cheer us
With her loving ways sincere,
But santified with hallowed prayer
Her memory lives a dream most fair.

In the graveyard sweetly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we love so dearly
In her lone and silent grave.
Sister Katie.

In loving remembrance of our little darling, Franklin Holdson, who departed this life three years ago June 13, 1920.

Little eyes so soft and gentle,
Little soul without a strain,
Little lips that smiled so sweetly,
Little form that suffered pain.

Our hearts have been crushed and wounded,
Our life has been lonely and sad,
And only one look upon your sweet face
Would make us content and glad.
His Mother and Father.

God called my brother, oh, how sudden
And he listened to his call,
Hastened to his home in heaven,
Though he had to leave us all.
His Only Brother.

Some time some day our eyes shall see
the face we loved so well,
Some day his hand shall clasp in ours,
And never say farewell.
Grandfathers, Grandmother, Aunts and Uncles.

RURAL WOMEN TO ATTEND SHORT COURSE AT UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

A group of Kent County Women will leave Monday, June 18th, to attend the Short Course for Rural Women to be held at the University of Maryland from June 18th to 22nd inclusive. The Short Course has been planned by the State Home Demonstration Agent Miss Venia M. Kellar in co-operation with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Rural Women's Clubs of the State.

Courses will be given in the following subjects: Food, Clothing, Home Furnishing, Landscape Gardening, Home Dairying, Household Management, Millitary, Health and Poultry.

RURAL WOMEN'S CLUBS MEET

The Rural Woman's Clubs of Kent County held an all-day meeting at Chestertown High School on Tuesday, June 5th. The first part of the morning was devoted to business meeting, followed by a number of interesting discussions. The speakers of the morning were Mrs. Marion Bell, University of Maryland, Extension Service, and Miss Mary Brooks, of Quaker Neck Women's Club.

After a luncheon and a short business session which included a report of accomplishments of the various clubs, a fine musical program consisting of vocal and instrumental music was provided for by the Chestertown Women's Club.

The speakers for the afternoon were Miss Gwynneth Gminder, dietitian of the Health Department of Baltimore City, Dr. J. H. Mason Knox, Chief of the Bureau of Child Hygiene of the State Board of Health, and Miss Wedgewood, of the same department.

HELP CAME JUST IN NICK OF TIME

Elkins Declares He Faced Complete Breakdown When Tanlac Ended Stomach Trouble.

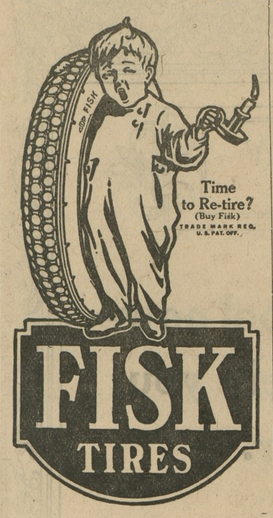

"Tanlac has done me a world of good and I can't praise it enough," recently declared George A. Elkins, watchman for the National Training School for Boys, Washington, D. C.

"For nearly a year I suffered what they told me was auto-intoxication or gastronimic catarrah. My appetite was so poor I could hardly eat a cracker, and my liver was in terrible shape. If I slept as much as seven hours a week I thought myself lucky. I was simply a physical wreck and really thought my time had come.

"I would have tried anything to get well, so when someone suggested Tanlac, I started taking it right away. Well, sir, I've only used four bottles so far, but already I have a ravenous appetite, sleep all night long and have gained five or six pounds in weight. My friends have all spoken to me about my remarkable improvement too. Tanlac is a wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Adv.
