Kent News

SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1923

At this writing there are indications that Kent will "enjoy" an' old time factional fight with full organization and anti tickets. It should not be, but as long as men have ambitions it is likely to exist. We shall be glad to see the day when the office will seek the man and not vice versa. In the words of the politician "Go to it, boys."

As we view the various drivers who are granted auto licenses it seems that some radical change must be made in the laws. It is suggested that one protection would be to require that every driver carry a liability insurance so that in case of damage the loss may be covered by this policy.

Kent county thru Mrs. Evalyn Harris will be well represented on the Farmers' Commission named by the Governor. Mrs. Harris in her articles on "The Farmer and His Wife" is presenting to the public a view of farm life seldom seen. If it results in better improved conditions all will be delighted.

This has been a most delightful week in Kent and especially in Chestertown where the College exercises prove so interesting to such a large circle of people. At this Commencement time furnishes opportunity to examine carefully and calmly the quality of work our schools do. Out of 125 graduates assembled recently from various States there were just seven whose schooling had taught how to write neatly and grammatically and how to spell more or less correctly. Just one billion dollars are paid out each year for this schooling. This is not too much to spend for an education that educates, but it is certainly a question that should be looked into from a practical standpoint. People can go "daffy" on education as well as on any other subject. It is the amem mediocratatem that we urge.

Better late than never, may well be spoken in the case of Hon. James E. Ellegood, of Salisbury, who was given the degree of Doctor of Laws. Members of Mr. Ellegood's family and a number of close friends were present at the ceremony. Mr. Ellegood attended the Chestertown institution for four years, graduating in 1863 with the A. B. degree. After taking up the study of law, he was admitted to the bar and commenced practicing in Salisbury on July 4th, 1869 and is the oldest lawyer on the Shore in point of years spent as a practitioner. He is now 81 years of age. It is doubtful whether any degree ever conferred by Washington College has fallen to a more deserving person, as Mr. Ellegood has had a long and useful career, and has not only used his learning for business purposes but to set forth the policies of honesty and right as well. Washington College is truly reflecting exceptional honor upon herself by conferring this degree.

The Chestertown Public School Alumni held its reunion in the High School. W. F. Russell, Jr., was toastmaster. The speaker was Mr. Hann, of Baltimore, who spoke on "The Elements of Man's Greatness."

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my son and brother, who departed this life four years ago June 16th. By Mrs. Alice Harrison.

My aching heart is missing,
A bud who is now at rest;
Claimed by God Almighty,
Broke the encircled nest.

No matter what I am doing,
You're always in my mind;
No matter where I am looking
You're no where here to find.

By His Loving Mother.

God called our brother, oh, how sudden
And he listened to his call;
Hastened to his home in Heaven,
Though he had to leave us all.

In my heart your memory lingers,
Tenderly, kind and true;
There is not a day, dear brother,
That we do not think of you.

By His Loving Sister and Brother.

He leaves a memory fair and sweet,
Its fragrance can never die,
Leaving a life not yet complete,
When God called him on high.

By His Grandparents.

Human hands have tried to save thee,
Sighs and tears were all in vain;
Happy angels came and bore thee
From this weary world and pain.

Fold the waxen hands together,
Close the soft and dreamy eyes;
See how like a broken lily,
Pale and beautiful he lies.

By His Loving Aunt Mavis.

A voice is hushed that use to speak
To us in love's low tone;
Dear hands are folded out of sight,
Which oft have clasped our own.

By His Loving Aunt Clara.
