CAPT. J. H. DELANO SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS

Capt. Joseph H. Delano, marine superintendent of the Baltimore Steam Packet Company and prominent in local shipping circles, died Sunday at his home, 2842 Guilford avenue, Baltimore, after a short illness.

Born in Kent county, Md., Captain Delano started his seafaring career at the age of 16 years. For a decade or more he was master of the Hercules and Sampson, the largest seagoing tugs plying out of this port. Later he was connected with the New York and Baltimore Transportation Company and for years was master of the steamship Chesapeake of that line. In recent years he became connected with the Old Bay Line, and as marine superintendent, built their two new steamers, the State of Maryland and the State of Virginia.

The father and grandfather of Captain Delano served in the French Army, the latter holding the rank of general.

Captain Delano is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ida S. Delano; three sons, John S., Carl S. and F. Shriver Delano; four daughters, Mrs. Milton B. Kegan, Mrs. William F. Cullison, Mrs. Fulton E. Yewell and Miss Helen R. Delano; one sister, Mrs. Barbara Anthony, of Chestertown, and five grandchildren.

Changed Telephone Numbers

Calls for a telephone number that has been changed or discontinued are referred to a special operator whose duty is to supply the appropriate information.

This special operator asks you: "What number are you calling, please?" This may annoy you because you have just given the number you desire and you cannot understand why you are asked to repeat it. But it is necessary in order to advise you of the circumstances.

THE CHANGING OF NUMBERS BETWEEN THE ISSUING OF DIRECTORIES IS ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL REASONS CALLS ARE REFERRED TO A SPECIAL OPERATOR. Numbers must always be changed when subscribers move to another central office area and sometimes when they change their class of service.

When you are advised that a number frequently called has been changed, IT WILL HELP IF YOU WILL MAKE A NOTE OF THIS IN YOUR DIRECTORY.

Sentences varying from three to 10 years and fines of $750 were imposed Monday by Judge Charles F. Stein in Criminal Court, Part 1, on four members of the defunct Smith, Lockhart & Company, brokerage firm, who were found guilty in April of conspiracy to defraud. Allen B. Lockhart was sentenced to 10 years in the Penitentiary, and R. Tynes Smith, Jr., president, was given a six-year sentence. E. Earle Thomas, who acted as bookkeeper, and Herman Zeusler, solesman, were given thre-year sentences each, but were paroled immediately by Judge Stein "during good behavior." The judge stated that Thomas and Zeusler would be allawed to pay their fines of $750 each in installments, beginning immediately, if they are employed, or os soon as they find enployment. He did this, he said that their families might not suffer unnecessarily. He explained in paroling the younger men that he did so in accord with the jury's recommendation of mercy.

SHORE TRANSIT LINE EXPANDS OPERATIONS

According to President A. M. Jackson, of the Shore Transit Line, that Company was on Saturday last granted by the Public Service Commission of Maryland, permits for operating busses to Rock Hall, Chestertown, Denton, Federalsburg, Centreville and Easton.

The line will also operate as far as Elkton in the near future according to the officials.

There are thirty-five applicants for the new rural route to be established at the local postoffice on August 1, an examination for which has been called by the Civil Service Commission for July 14.

The report that Rev. Omar E. Jones, District Superintendent of the Middletown district, was offered the presidency of Washington College, but declined to accept on the ground of his desire to remain in the ministry, is a mistake. The Board of Visitors and Governors of the college have not yet reached a decision as to a successor of Dr. Clarence P. Gould, the retiring president, and Dr. J. S. William Jones, Dean of the faculty, is in charge of affairs pending an election.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS

The County Commissioners for Kent County, by virture of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, Chapter 487, passed at its session of 1880, hereby give notice that a uniform charge of one-quarter of a cent per basket will be made for each basket of tomatoes shipped from or over the County wharves season of 1923.

There will be no charge upon shipments of wheat, corn or other grains this season.

The county wharves have been put in usable condition at considerable expense and the Commissioners feel that a small part of the cost should be borne by the traffic. By order of the Commissioners for Kent County.

IN MEMORIAM.

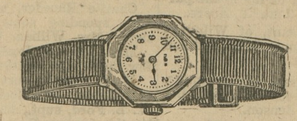

In sad remembrance of our dear sister Katie Anderson.
We mourn for you, dear sister,
But not with outward show;
For the hearts that mourn sincerely,
Mourn silently and low.
1t* Brother Edward and Wife.

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Emma Fowler, who departed this life one year ago July 19, 1922.

One year has passed, dear mother,
Since you went home to rest;
Though gone, you're not forgotten
By the ones who loved you best.

A mother dear, a mother kind
Has gone and left us all behind,
For all of us she did her best,
So God grant her eternal rest.
