Locals

The Organization faction is a faction worth fighting for, and all loyal Democrats should rally around her flag.

At the suggestion of the Business Association all places of business were closed in Chestertown yesterday at 4 o'clock in honor of the late President Harding.

Queen Anne's county public schools will open on Monday, September 3. and the colored schools on October 15.

Walter T. Bennett has been made agent for the Grand Union Tea Co.

An excursion will be run from Chestertown to Atlantic City by the Pennsylvania Railroad on Thursday, August 30. The tickets are $3.50 round trip.

Don't fail to see "The Fourth Musketeer" and the third round of "Fighting Blood" at the Lyceum Friday and Saturday.

The county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Kennedyville M. P. Church on Thursday, August 16th. There will be afternoon and evening sessions and an elaborate program is being arranged.

Chestertown Chautauqua begins on Thursday, August 30th. Season tickets now on sale at H. F. Jefferson's. Number of season tickets limited and positively no tickets will be sold after noon on opening day, August 30th. Please purchase your tickets now so as to relieve the ticket selling committee as much as possible. Prices $1, $2 and $3.

The Rock Hall purse-net fishermen and the hand line fishermen are at odds over the fishing grounds in Chester river and off Tolchester. Both have been making some great catches of rock and other fish. It is said that the anglers tried to put the purse-netters out of business by placing large boxes filled with sand on the bottoms, but the purse netters discovered them in time to remove them before any damage was done..

Tolchester has been the scene of many church picnics this week. Churches as far as Clayton, Del. coming to the famous Kent resort.

Betterton is enjoying a very good summer season. Hotels and boarding houses are well-filled.

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

I hereby announce my candidacy for County Commissioner for Kent County subject to the Democratic Primaries to be held in September.

STONEWALL J. JOHNSON,

Candidate for County Commissioner

After deliberation I have consented to be a candidate for County Commissioner subject to the Democratic Primaries in September.

T. RINGGOLD JONES,
Rock Hall, Md.

Kent county white public schools will begin on Monday, September 10. The colored schools will open on October 1.

The prospect for a fine corn crop in Kent is good.

Politics were rampant at the fish fry at the Cliff's on Thursday, but all had a good time.

The Farm Bureau drive is meeting with success.

Our Chestertown postmaster, T. D. Bowers, besides all his other interests, is a great chicken fancier and has some very fine fowls. His Buff Rocks have certainly made a great record this year in laying as during the past seven months he has gathered 3,785 eggs.

More than forescore boats, including a number of fast bugeyes, skipjacks, work motor boats and canoes from Crisfield and Tangier Sound have signed up for the third annual Chesapeake Bay championship workboat races, to be held at Claiborne, Md., August 18, under the auspices of The Sun and the Evening Sun and the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club. Quite a number from Kent will attend these races.

Wheat price guarantee by the Government is now being urged by Western farmers. The idea is making great headway all over the country.

Despite the fact that the foot passengers over the Havre de Grace Perryville bridge, which just now is realizing "gold mine" returns for the State, are allowed to go over the span free, the proceeds from tolls surpass those of last year, when the bridge was privately owned, by 20 per cent. The revenue for the month of June was $14,566.85, according to the report of Director of Public Works John N. Mackall, who is now the manager of the "gold mine." This financial showing almost equals that during April, when the races were being held in Havre de Grace. The April proceeds were $15,112.17.

While fishing with a party of friends LeRoy J. Waller, of near Fairlee, ran a fish hook into the fleshy part of his right hand and it required the services of a physician to extract it.

The lightning rod people who have been operating in this section for sometime, under the direction of Mr. Getz, of Baltimore, are still very busy and have many contracts yet to finish in Kent.

FOOT BALL AT W. C.

The prospects for Washington College foot ball this fall are bright. September 10th has been set as the starting date for early training of the foot ball team. About thirty men are expected to report on that date and work out once or twice daily until the opening of school on September 27th.

With this statement also comes a rumor that Eddie Keenan, All-Maryland guard for the past two years, will not be back in school this fall. The loss of Eddie will be keenly felt in the line and we sincerely hope that the report is only a rumor.

Personals

Fred. G. Usilton, senior editor of the News, and family, are at Ocean Grove, N. J., for a few days.

Miss Helen Haggerty, Miss Mildred Newton and Miss Kathryn Pennington attended the Young People's-Conference at Westminster.

Invitations have been received by relatives and friends to the marriage of Miss Anne Elizabeth Brice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brice, of Far Hills, N. J., formerly of Chestertown, to Alfred Blake Maury. The ceremony will take place on Saturday, September 1st, in St. Luke's Church, Peapack, N. J., and will be followed by an elaborate reception at the Cross Roads.

Prof. Mark Creasy and party at Leland Stanford University are having a most pleasant time with all well. They expect to be home in about two weeks.

Mrs. Nesbit Trenchard and children, of Baltimore, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Dixon, in Chestertown.

Thomas H. Healey, Esq., of Chestertown, has been on a business trip to Hagerstown this week.

R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., is out after being housed by a painful hurt on his foot.

Officer Samuel E. Cooper, of Chestertown, visited his daughter in Washington this week. He witnessed all the ceremonies incident to the funeral of President Harding and says it was a wonderful and sad affair.

Kirk Gordy, pitcher for the Buffalo Club, was in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, of Chestertown, are entertaining the former's sister, Mrs. Annie Chapman and Miss Mary Chapman, of Baltimore. Miss Mary Chapman is an expert pianist and often delights her friends with music.

Rev. Frank Cain, of Leeds, Cecil county, was a welcome visitor at the News office this week.

Lewin W. Wickes, the little son of Judge Wickes, of Chestertown, is now free of fever and getting along very nicely.

Dr. H. C. Hughes returned this week to his home in Chestertown after a fine motor trip to Quebeck, Canada. He traveled about 1500 miles in his Chevrolet and never had a puncture. He was gone thirteen days and encountered no rain.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Elizabeth Reed on Monday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Reed, High street, Chestertown, by the Triangle Club of Christ M. P. Church.

Prof. H. H. Ransom, of Cambridge, spent several days in Kent the past week renewing old acquaintances.

George W. Bell and family, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting Kent & Queen Anne's friends.

James W. Crouch, teller of Chestertown Bank of Maryland, is enjoying a two- weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wheat, of Chestertown, returned from their honeymoon on Sunday last. Mrs. Wheat was taken sick at Atlantic City and has been confined to the house since her return.

Mrs. J. A. Brotemarkle, of Harrington, is sick with fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kendall.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Latham and Mr. and Mrs. John Latham and children, of Chester, Pa., were week-end guests of their brother, Mr. and Mrs. George Latham.

Mrs. Louise Smith and Wm. Kline, of Pikesville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allcutt last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones and daughter, of Baltimore, were guests of his mother, Mrs. E. D. Jones last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilyard, of Chestertown, have had as guests for the past week the former's sisters, Miss Leona Hilyard, of Wilmington, and Miss Lillian Hilyard, of Collingswood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Goldsmith moved to Baltimore last week.

Mrs. John Kiloff and son, of Baltimore, were guests of Mrs. E. D. Jones last week.

John Bartley visited his sister in Philadelphia last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hicks, of New York, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Pippin at Pippins Hotel.

Wilson Hatcherson and friend, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of the former's grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Hatcherson.

Dr. and Mrs. Marion Twilley, of Dover, Del., were guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Joiner.

Capt. Frank Kerr, commander of the Baltimore fire boat "Cataract," Mrs. Kerr and their three sons are spending a vacation at the home of the former's parents, Capt and Mrs. Charles R. Kerr. Mrs. Nannie Kerr Strong finished her summer course at State Normal School and returned Friday.

Alfred L. Wilson, of Newark, Del., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Harry Lake, of Rock Hall.

Misses Helen and Ethel Shirley, of near St. Paul's, spent last week with their aunt, Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy, of Kennedyville.

J. Walter Sutton says he is still in Rock Hall and not manager of a Baltimore lunch room.

MAY END JITNEUR'S WAR

Monopoly will likely end the long struggle of rival Elkton jitneurs for the patronage of brides and grooms bound to the local Gretna Green, arriving at the railroad station. It was learned that the exclusive privilege of conveying wedding couples to the Court Clerk's office and ministers' residences as well as passengers in general to any point within the town limits had been granted to John W. McCool & Co., by the P., B. & W. R. R. management at their bid of, it is said, $5,200 a year. A rival bidder had offered $3,600. The winners, known as "The Gang," figured with the usual yearly run of patronage and shares of ministerial fees, on at least doubling the purchase price of the privilege in profits, which they will share individually. The arrangement became effective on Wednesday week with the fares set at $3 for wedding couples and 25 cents for ordinary passengers.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S DOG

High potentates of government, religion and every other form of human endeavor have bowed down in grief over the death of President Harding, but Laddie Boy, Mr. Harding's dog, just sits in the cellar at the White House and mourns.

There will be ostentatious homage for a man to the degree of how far he rises in the world. But no matter who a man is if he has the friendship of a dog that dog will never stop mourning his death and later will crawl to the man's grave himself to die.

Laddie Boy has been expectantly waiting for his boss. The White House is giving the late President's dog every attention pending the arrival of Mrs. Harding, who is expected to take him with her when she leaves for Marion or wherever President Harding's widow will make her home.
