SOMETHING NEW FOR AUTOMOBILE TRAVELERS!

Kent County's Reputation For Hospitality Upheld By Our People—C. Kent Lambert A Man Of Vision. Free Camping Site, Rest Room, Etc., Near Chestertown.

Kent county has long been known for its hospitality. A practical evidence of this is now shown in the Lambert Rest Room and Free Camping Site at the old camp meeting grove about two miles from Chestertown on the State road between here and Tolchester Beach. C. Kent Lambert, the hustling proprietor, has seen a great deal of the world and has spent considerable time at Panama in the service of the United States and in private work. He has seen the need of such a place in his home county and invites the public to take advantage of his offer.

He offers a free camping place for all auto travelers who want to spend a night or day camping in the woods.

He has provided a rest room with all conveniences for both ladies and gentlemen.

Lunches of chicken salad and sandwiches will be on sale and on holidays a special menu will be provided.

Good drinking water will be right on the spot.

He has also opened a garage and gasoline depot at this place.

His camping place and rest room will go a long way towards advertising this section as our attention has been called to this need a number of times.

Just the other day an auto porty came to Kent with the object of buying real estate. They wanted to camp for the night on the edge of the farm, but the man on the place asked them $10 to camp on the grounds. This is not Eastern Shore hospitality. Lambert's camping grounds will meet just such an emergency.

Another auto party camped nearly all night on an up-town Chestertown street and cooled their milk by the ice left on the front porch of a Chestertown lady by the ice man. The visiting auto party thought it a good joke on the ladies by leaving a number of empty bottles on the front porch on the cake of ice.

FARM BUREAU

Five hundred Kent county farmers and farmer's wives attended the 15 publicity meetings of the Farm Bureau in all parts of the county. The story of the Farm Bureau was told at these meetings. The large majority were very much enthused and farmers in all communities readily gave days of their time to the organization work.

The membership drive was held last week with very successful results. Four hundred and sixteen Kent county farmers signed up for three years at $10, dues per year. Considering Kent has the largest farms in the State and only 1032 farms of three acres or more, it will be seen that the membership percentage is good. Kent is close to the top of the counties in the State in percentage of members. The "clean up" campaign may put Kent at the top in percentage.

The organization meeting was held yesterday afternoon. The meeting will be held too late to publish in this edition the officers elected or the plans decided upon. They will appear next week.

GAS WAR ON

Kent county motorists are looking with pleasure at the gasoline war now on. The Standard, Hearn and Gulf Companies have cut the price in Chestertown to 21 cents a gallon.

An immediate, searching investigation by the Federal government into the gasoline situation was urged by Governor A. V. Donahey, of Ohio, in a telegram to President Coolidge, and announcement of a national inquiry by the National Motor Association, which will report the result of a survey being made to Federal authorities was made by automobile club officials in Louisville, Ky. Governor Clifford W. Walker, of Georgia, asked an immediate State investigation.

KENT FARMERS, ATTENTION!

The Farmers' Day Committee of the Kent County Agricultural Council has postponed the Kent County Farmers' Day Picnic, which was tentatively set for Thursday, August 23rd, in order to co-operate with the Inter-County Dairy Rally to be held at Easton that day.

Every Kent County farmer's attention is invited to the wonderful program arranged for the Inter-County Dairy Rally to be held at the Community Park, Easton, Md., on Thursday, August 23rd. Can you afford to miss the following:

1.00 p. m., Judging Contest, Boys' Club Teams, $40 in prizes.

2.30 p. m., Why a Dairy Rally? C. I. Cohee, Philadelphia Inter-State Dairy Council.

2.45 p. m., Address and Awarding Prizes, Dr. A. F. Woods, President University of Maryland.

3.30 p. m., Cow Judging Demonstrations, H. E. Van Norman, President World's Dairy Congress Association.

4.00 p. m., The Market Situation, H. D. Allebach, President Inter-State Milk Producers' Association.

4.15 p. m., The Inter-State in Legislation, R. W. Balderson, Secretary Inter-State Milk Producers' Association.

4.30 p. m., The Future of Dairying, Hon. Fred Rasmussen, Farmer Secretary of Agriculture for Pennsylvania.

Everyone is expected to bring a box supper. Ice cream will be furnished free to all by the Philadelphia Milk Dealers in Maryland and Delaware. There will be music by Spence's Band and Community Singing. Motion pictures will be shown at eight p. m.

Kent will have its Boys' Club Judging Team in the contest. This is an opportunity for all Kent farmers and dairymen which should prove very instructive and entertaining. Everybody invited.

Governor Ritchie, Thomas H. Robinson and William S. Gordy, Democratic candidates for Attorney General, Comptroller and Governor, will arrive in Ocean City Saturday night, August 18th, and spend Sunday and Sunday night at the seashore.

KENT DAIRYMEN

Your attention is called to the Inter-county Dairy Rally to be held at Easton next Thursday, August 23rd. Mr. H. D. Allebach, President of the Inter-State Milk Producers' Association will be present and speak at 3 p. m. on the "Milk Market Situation." There is some discussion of this subject in Kent and it is felt that Mr. Allebach will tell the dairymen present the real situation.

EDGAR R. PENNINGTON,
Director.

A CARD

To the Democratic voters of Kent county. It has been reported in some sections, that I had withdrawn my name as a candidate for Sheriff. I take this method of notifying you that I positively have not, and do not intend to, under no consideration and ask for your support.
