Distinct Telephone Speech

Best results are secured in telephone conversation by speaking directly into the mouthpiece of the instrument. If you try to telephone with your lips turned away from the mouthpiece or while smoking a cigar, your conversation is certain to be indistinct at the other end of the line.

INDISTINCT SPEECH CAUSES DELAY, OFTEN RESULTS IN NEEDLESS MISTAKES AND IS ANNOYING TO THE PERSON TO WHOM YOU ARE TALKING, who may be reluctant to ask you to repeat or to speak louder.

Should you be asked to "Speak louder, please," move closer to the mouthpiece and talk with a full natural tone. Then there can be no misunderstanding.

There is no doubt that DISTINCT TELEPHONE SPEECH PREVENTS ERRORS, MAKES YOUR TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS MORE SATISFACTORY AND PLEASANT, AND GIVES DEFINITE RETURNS IN IMPROVED SERVICE.

SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Alice Florer, successor to Miss Langvick, the new supervisor of the elementary schools of Kent Co., has arrived and taken up her new duties. Miss Florer is a woman of thorough training and considerable experience, and continuance of the good work is assured the schools of the county.

Miss Merle White, secty. to the Kent county Board of Education, left today for Baltimore to take a three weeks course at a business college in that city.

The white schools of the county opened on Monday. The enrollment at the Chestertown elementary school was 280 pupils.

Miss Edna Kirby left this morning for Baltimore where she will enter the State Normal School for a special course.

EMORY JOHNSON'S "WESTBOUND LIMITED" IS EPIC OF THE RAILS

An American railroad system is the greatest in the world. No other commercial organization is as thorough and efficient in all its minute details except, possibly, Uncle Sam's gigantic mail service. A report in duplicate and triplicate is made on every little piece of business transacted on the entire road with all its branches.

When the agent receives the railroad mail he signs for it. When the engineer receives his engine from the yards and when he receives his orders for engine movement, he signs a receipt. The conductor signs for his train orders and the brakeman verifies them. No incident is too trivial to escape having complete report made of it.

Emory Johnson, the famous director-producer who filmed the great policeman picture, "In the Name of the Law," and later the stupendous fireman drama, "The Third Alarm," perceived in the life of the railroad man a marvelous opportunity for filming an epic of the greatest commercial organization in the world, not in the actual concrete system in itself, but in the lives of the men who, by their honesty and integrity of purpose and their self-sacrifice, have been responsible for building up the organization.

Johnson has taken the life of an engineer with his unswerving loyalty in face of danger, his unfailing courage and his love of home, and built one of the most verile dramas that has ever been shown on the screen, in "Westbound Limited," which will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Ralph Lewis plays the role of the veteran engineer, with Ella Hall as the feminine lead. A splendid supporting cast, including Claire McDowell, Johnny Harron, Taylor Graves, Wedgewood Nowell, David Kirby, Richard Morris and Jane Morgan, appear in the production.

The drug store of J. H. Black, Cecilton, was entered by thieves on Saturday night last who gained entrance by prying open a shutter with a heavy screw driver and helped themselves to Eastman Kodacks, safety razors, flash lights, cigarettes, candy and other articles. This is the second time that Mr. Black's store has been robbed in less than three years.

"Get your foot off that pedal!"

The Fleet Boss says he has seen hundreds of clutch thrusts and bearings needlessly worn out because of the bad habit of riding with the foot on the clutch pedal. A little wear on the thrust is multiplied 3 or 4 times in the loss of throw in the clutch—until finally the clutch doesn't throw out clean and begins to drag. Just one of many everyday experiences of the practical Fleet Boss that make his advice decidedly worth following.

This is an age of specialists. A long and comprehensive refining experience of over a half century has enabled us to give you a motor oil that you can trust in every particular. Long practice and study have made it right. This experience is built into every quart of Polarine you buy—and it counts 100% when the oil gets to work on the bearing surfaces of your motor.
