MARYLAND GIRL WINS LAURELS IN MOVIES

After a brilliant scholastic career, and several years of stage and screen success in Philadelphia and Hollywood, Cal., Miss Madeline Hurlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hurlock, of Federalsburg, Md., formerly of Still Pond, has attained new laurels, according to announcement by Mack Sennett, movie producer. Miss Hurlock has just signed a contract with Sennett to appear in his productions the first of which will be "Keep Your Eyes on Madeline."

Miss Hurlock developed histrionic ability before she graduated from Federalsburg High School. She led her class at graduation, and as an elocutionist won for her school the Col. A. W. Sisk trophy.

After graduation Miss Hurlock started her dramatic and movie career in Philadelphia with the Lubin Company. Later she went to Hollywood, and has appeared in a number of photo dramas.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

The Intoxicated Driver A Menace On The Public Road—Does The Sober Driver Believe In Law Enforcement?

While returning from Preston on Sunday evening the automobile belonging to Robert V. Moffett was struck by a car driven by an intoxicated man. Mr. Moffett's car was badly damaged and Mr. Moffett, who had just alighted from the machine to adjust something, narrowly escaped fatal injury. He was able to get the license number of the car, which belongs to a Federalsburg garage. Mr. and Mrs. Moffett and his cousin, Miss Rebecca Moffett, secured another conveyance and returned to their home here.

A touring car belonging to Chas. E. Eshman, proprietor of the Voshell House, was totally destroyed by fire on the State road near town on Sunday morning. The fire was caused by the short circuiting of wires. The loss is placed at $3,500. This was the third car to be burned here within two weeks.

A car containing George Williams, colored, G. A. Needles and others, of Chestertown, ran into Thomas Tucker's car at Edesville Sunday and badly wrecked same. No one was in Mr. Tucker's car else some life would have likely been lost. A hearing was held in Chestertown Monday

Fines amounting to about $400 were paid after a few days in jail.

HAND OF DEATH

Lemuel Thomas, well known in lower Kent, died Monday morning at the home of his cousin, James Ashley, in Piney Neck, where he had lived the past five years. Mr. Thomas was 65 years old. He was stricken with paralysis on Wednesday and fell from his chair just after having eaten a hearty dinner and in apparent good health. He leaves seven half brothers and sisters, John Thomas, of Worton, Josiah and Charles Thomas, Mrs. James Baker, Mrs. Robert Joiner, and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, of Rock Hall, and Mrs. Mollie Sewell, of Chester, Pa. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in Piney Neck M. E. Church, being conducted by the pastor, Dr. T. S. Barrett, interment in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Boone Slater, wife of Arthur Asby Slater, and daughter of the late James and Elizabeth Thompson Rankin, died on Sunday morning, September 9th, at her home in Long Beach, California.

Mrs. Slater was a native of Maryland, having been born at historic "Caulk's Field," Kent county, July 3rd, 1884. She was niece of Mrs. J. H. Weedon, of Church Hill. Besides her husband she is survived by four children.

Mrs. Mary Thornley, widow of the late James C. Thornley, of Sassafras, died suddenly of apoplexy at her home on Saturday night at the age of 78. She leaves the following children; Charles P. Thornley, of Smyrna; Mrs. John W. Tucker, Smyrna; Raymond Thornley, Sassafras; Mrs. James Mulford, Galena; Mrs. Harry Stidham, Reading, Pa., and James Thornley, Sassafras. Funeral services were held at her late home with interment at Sassafras. It was only a month ago that her husband, Jas. C. Thornley, a Grand Army veteran was laid to rest.

PENNSY' STANDS PAT

Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, does not look with favor on the propositions for the rehabilitation of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway, as advanced by the Warfield Commission, when they are at variance with the Pennsylvania's own proposition for handling the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia situation.

He made this clear in a letter to Governor Ritchie Wednesday, which the Governor gave out Tuesday.

The Governor said he would refer it to S. Davies Warfield, chairman of the Eastern Shore Railroad Commission, who will take up the matter with the members of the commission when he returns next Saturday from his vacation.

William M. Maloy, chairman of the Public Service Commission, said the commission stood on the plan advanced by the Warfield Commission, which he thought was the best plan offered for the solution of the problem.

It is expected that Mr. Rea will come to Baltimore soon for a discussion of the whole proposition.

Mr. Rea, for all practical purposes stands pat on the Pennsylvania plan for the handling of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia situation.

While thanking the Governor for his interest in the matter, he points out that, in determining the questions raised the Warfield commission, because that had a duty to the stockholders of his company, that this duty must be considered as well as the welfare of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and that he cannot recommend that "losses should be absorbed in the operations of the Pennsylvania system" without compensating results.

WEDDING NOTES

A pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the bride's home on Queen street. The contracting parties were Mrs. Lydia Terrell Barrett, of Chestertown, and Rev. George White Dawson, of Georgetown, Del. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. Sard in the presence of only the immediate family. The bride wore a bay-colored suit of fetching fit. After the ceremony the couple took a short trip returning in a few days to Georgetown where the groom is quite popular.

Cornelius G. Hadaway, of Worton, and Miss Sarah Jane Lambert, of Chestertown, were united in holy wedlock Tuesday evening by Rev. W. B. Horner. The bride is well-known in Chestertown being a sister to Mrs. W. A. Burke, Wm. H. Lambert and Frank Lambert, while the groom is also well-known in Worton, Quaker Neck, and elsewhere in Kent.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Jesse W. Moffett, of Kent county, and Margaret A. Sanders, of Hanover, Pa. James Roy Middleton and Jessie Watson, both of Kent county.

Mrs. James S. Taylor announces the marriage of her son, Arthur E. Taylor, to Miss Edythe M. Quarles, of 626 Madison street, Wilmington, Del., on Wednesday evening, Sept. 12th, at St. Pauls M. E. parsonage, Dr. Carlisle Hubbard officiating.

James Roy Middleton and Jessie Watson, both of near Rock Hall, were united in matrimony at the parsonage of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church on Thursday, September 13th, at 8.30 p. m., Rev. Charles H. Reed officiating.

HARRY HAMILTON KILLED

Betterton Resident's Skull Is Fractured When Car Hits Telegraph Pole.

As a result of injuries sustained Wednesday night when an automobile in which he was riding collided with a telegraph pole on the Lincoln highway near Wilmington, Harry C. Hamilton, 58 years old, of Betterton, died shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday morning in the Delaware Hospital.

Hamilton was riding in a car the owner of which had offered him a "lift" while on his way to the city. The driver was George Meyer. He is said to have lost control of the automobile and steered it into a telegraph pole. The driver escaped injury.

Hamilton, however, according to hospital officials, sustained a fracture of the skull and fractured right leg.

He leaves a wife and two children Harry and Anna. For some years he resided at Georgetown.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

We are republishing the editorial below for two reasons, viz., to correct an error and to show how one word can change the meaning of a whole article.

In the sentence "Such men SEEM to take an unfair advantage," it should have been "such men SCORN to take an unfair advantage." The corrected article follows:

We are confident the people of Kent county join in the sentiment "We're glad its over." The Democratic Primary in Kent is ended and the calm after the storm is certainly appreciated by candidates and voters, however much damage might have been wrought by the storm.

One thing was certain—all could not win and somebody had to lose. The result at first glance is not what the Organization had hoped for, but when it is considered that the Judgeship, County Commissioners, one member of Legislature, Treasurer, Sheriff, State Central Committee, Delegates, Judges of the Orphans' Court and State'sAttorney are of that faction and won under most adverse circumstances, there is much of which to be proud.

The contest while warm was remarkably free from personal bitterness. There were no personal attacks, no insinuations of dishonesty, no charge of immorality, no intimation of political rascality. That clashing ambitions are bound to create some friction is certain. They always have and always will as long as humas nature remains unchanged, but this does not mean that a candidate cannot be open and fair, that he cannot be generous in his recognition of his opponent and this has been the News' position. We have preferred to stand or fall on the merits of those whom we espoused without playing to the prejudices or arousing unworthy passion in order to win. We were endorsing big men, big of heart, big of soul and big of vision. Such men scorn to take an unfair advantage.

But the preliminaries are over and the News today places at its masthead the men whom the majority of voters have selected as the Democratic standard bearers. A united Democracy will be sure to elect them
