Locals

The big auction lot sale will take place in Chestertown next Monday morning. An auto is to be given away free and a band will furnish music.

Flick & Company started work on State road on Maple avenue Monday. Their big roller went thru a trench Tuesday and broke a pipe. Wednesday it went thru another trench and required several hours to get it out. Leon Brown has eight double teams with scoops removing dirt. The new Cross street extended is being filled in with dirt. The contractors promise to finish the job by November 15.

Joseph M. Norris, of Lynch, has some magnificent dahlias which are admired by all who see them. He purchased the bulbs from E. S. Davis, of Locust Grove.

The Ku Klux Klan of Queen Anne's county is planning a parade and ceremony which will take place in Centreville on October 18. A band will lead the parade and Dr. J. H. Hawkins will deliver a lecture. The burning of a 40 foot fiery cross and the ceremony will take place on the outskirts of town.

The Peoples Bank of Elkton was organized, Saturday, with Henry L. Constable, Frank B. Evans, J. B. Decker, J. Wesley McAllister, of Wilmington; Dr. Clifton C. Laws, Chesapeake City, and Benjamin Miller, Calvert, directors for the first year. Mr. Constable was chosen president. Other officers will be selected later. The new institution has purchased the old Second National Bank building and will have it remodeled.

A successful supper and festival was held at Raum Chapel on Thursday evening, the proceeds being for the benefit of the church.

The Circuit Court will convene here on Monday, October 15th. There are several important cases to be tried.

Miss Carrie S. Graves who has been postmistress at Black, near Kennedyville, for the past fifteen years, has tendered her resignation to the Postoffice Department. The office is of the fourth class and the vacancy will be filled by competitive examination.

Frank J. Denny, celebrated on Saturday his fiftieth year as an employe of the Cecil Democrat of Elkton, forty-five years as foreman of the composing room. A purse of $50 in gold was presented to him by the editor.

Several Kent countians visited Poole's Island recently, helped themselves to 12 baskets of peaches and were about to launch their boats and return, when officers ordered them off. They left the peaches and returned to Kent wiser than when they left.

Capt. Lem Crouch, of Quaker Neck Wharf made a big haul of rock fish last week.

There were over 300 persons who availed themselves of the opportunity to spend the day in Baltimore Saturday by the schedule advertised by the Tolchester Company.

Scores of boatmen from Jackson's Creek and other places may be seen every day oystering near Quaker Neck Wharf. It is said the oysters in Chester river are the finest to be found. Prices run 55 to 75 cents per bushel.

Friday and Saturday are comedy nights at the Lyceum. Saturdays show starts at 7.00 p. m.

Five race horses, the property of H. Guy Bedwell, was burned to death Cunday night in a fire near the Laurel race track.

Dr. Louis C. Hess has moved his home and office to 113 High street, formerly occupied by Wm. F. Russell, Jr., Esq.

A letter from the U. S. Fire Apparatus Co., from whom Chestertown has ordered their new equipment, says the outfit will be here in two weeks. The delay has been caused by the non-receipt of the pump.

Wednesday W. C. Jackson made a great haul of rock in his nets in the Chesapeake Bay near Tilghman's Island. For some time past the fishermen have been trying to catch these fish, but they have been scarce. Last week's catch proved the big haul for this season. They were shipped to the New York market in time for Friday's sale. There they are known as striped bass. Mr. Jackson realized a net profit of 30 cents a pound. At no time this season have the fishermen realized less than 25 cents for their catches. About 1,700 pounds were landed.

The Tolchester Company has announced a change of schedule as will be seen by advertisement in another column.

A compromise has been effected in the dispute over Cedar Point Ducking Shore by which the former renters are enabled to gun several more years at Hale Point. Hale Point is owned by R. Selson Stevens, one of the men interested in the lease of Cedar Point to the Baltimoreans.

Joe Quartararo has rented the room under Lyceum Hall and will continue his shoe repairing business there. The room now occupied by him Corner High and Kent streets will be tenanted by Thomas Whaley for a barber shop. C. L. Gill occupies the residence portion of this building.

The Rock Hall supper and festival by the patrons of the schools will be held in the High School Building instead of the Elementary Building next Saturday, October 20.

Some auto driver in arriving at the Eliason Motor Co.'s Garage missed the driveway and struck J. Waters Russell's residence, next door. A big hole was punched in the front of the building. No one was occupying the residence.

The oyster treat given Thursday evening at Rolph's Wharf by the Men's Club of P. E. Church was enjoyed by all, the whole congregation having been invited.

The Samuel Maslin farm, near St. Paul's Church, has been sold at private sale by W. M. Slay, Esq., attorney, to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Carver, of Baltimore. They will tenant the farm.

I WILL SELL AT

ABSOLUTE AUCTION

100 CHOICE BUILDING LOTS 100

IN THE HEART OF CHESTERTOWN ON THE ROCK HALL STATE ROAD AND HIGH STREET

IN

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15TH, 1923

ON THE GROUNDS 10.00 A. M. RAIN OR SHINE

This beautiful piece of property is a part of the John Gale Usilton tract, is in the heart of Chestertown and has a frontage on two streets and the State Road to Rock Hall This property has been subdivided into Building Lots and each Lot will have a frontage on a wide street or avenue and will be sold at

YOUR OWN PRICE AND ON EASY TERMS

This is an opportunity you may never have again to buy high-class Building Lots in the heart of Chestertown at your own price and on easy terms.

FREE
New Ford Touring Car Given Away FREE

FREE
New Ford Touring Car Given Away FREE

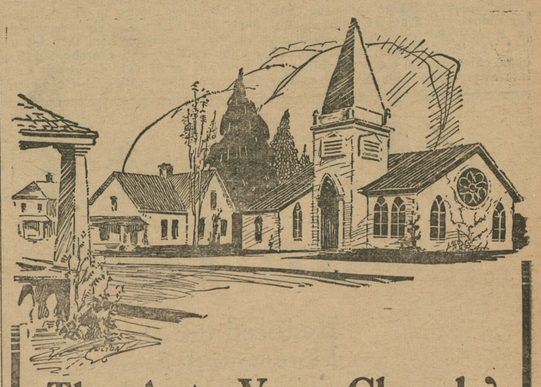

You don't have to be a buyer or even a bidder to participate for the Ford Car or the Cash Prizes that will be given away. All that is required is that you be on the grounds promptly at 10 A. M., Monday, October 15th.

——GOOD BAND OF MUSIC IN ATTENDANCE——

Remember-One Day and Date Only-MONDAY, OCTOBER 15

S. E. DAMERON, Bel Air, Md.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION

The Auto Your Church?

"This is such a fine day, suppose we take the car and go to Othertown for a visit"—and the church for that Sunday is left to itself.

This is not your idea of supporting the best asset our community has. But many persons do put an auto ride ahead of church attendance

The Church Needs You

The pulpit and the press are the two great upbuilding forces in every community. You wouldn't care to live in any town where either was absent. Suppose everyone gave the church the support you do—in time and money. How long would it keep alive?

You have a definite responsibility to support some church. It is helping you whether you know it or not.

Rally Day at Chestertown M. E. Church on Sunday. Sunday school at 10 o'clock, special Rally Day exercises and music. This is also promotion day in the Sunday school. There will be a special address to the school. Preaching at 11 by the pastor. Epworth League at 6.45 M. E. Newsome, leader, topic "The Central Idea of Prayer." Preaching at 7.30 sermon subject "How to Obtain a Revival." Prayermeeting on Wednesday night at 7.30.

Bond Church Aid met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James DeFord last Thursday evening. About 40 persons enjoyed the evening's program which follows: Singing, America; recitation, Doris McClintock; duet, Mrs. William Faulkner and Miss Ruth Townsend; reading, Mrs. Wm Faulkner; chorus, by the men; recitation, Lewis McClintock; duet, Mrs. J. Newnam and Miss Sara Watson; reading, Mrs. R. H. Starr; chorus by the ladies.

Bond Chapel, Rev. Wm. L. McClintock, pastor. Sunday school at 9.45 a. m., Divine worship, sermon by by Rev. Omar E. Jones at 11 a. m., Junior Epworth League Wednesday at 7.30 p. m., followed by the Epworth League service at 8 p. m.

Mowbray Chapel, Rev. Wm. L. McClintock, pastor. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m., Epworth League service at 7.00 p. m., evening preaching at 7.45 p. m.

Revival services will begin in Mowbray Chapel Sunday evening, Oct. 28.

The Y. P. B. will hold the October meeting next Thursday evening at the home of Britton Townsend.

A public meeting of the Y. P. B. will be held in Bond Chapel Thursday evening, November 8th.

A meeting of the By-Kota Club of the M. E. Church will be held at the home of Mrs. John E. Barnes on Monday, October 15th. To be entertained by Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Fred Robinson.

Rally Day will be observed in the Crumpton M. E. Church Sunday, Oct. 14th. There will be love feast at 9.30 a. m., followed by preaching at 10.30. Exercises by the Sunday school at 2 p. m. Preaching by the Rev. L. Jackson, of Sudlersville at 3 p. m. Preaching 7.30 p. m. Rev. D. W. Bounds, of Wilmington, will be with us to preach both morning and evening. Come and bring your lunch, coffee will be served.

The 32nd Annual Convention of the Maryland Christian Endeavor Union will be held on October 16, 17 and 18, 1923, at Cambridge, Md. There will be inspirational talks, conferences, addresses and special speakers on all phases of Christian Endeavor work. Six hundred delegates are expected to attend and the State officers are planning to make this convention the best ever.

Still Pond M. E. Church. The Annual Harvest Home Service will be held tomorrow, Sunday, October 14, at both the morning and evening services. The church will be decorated with all kinds of fruits and grain, etc. Special music by the choir. The hours for service are as usual. Sunday school 9.30 a. m, Divine worship 10.45, preaching by Rev. J. B. Matthews, D. D., of New York City. Doctor Matthews will also preach at the evening service which begins at 7.30 p. m. Everybody is invited to worship with us on this day.

Betterton M. E. Church. Sunday school 2 p. m. Bring some one with you. Remember the membership contest. Divine worship 3 p. m. Prayer service Wednesday 7.30 p. m. Betterton Church will observe Harvest Home Day, Sunday October 21st.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Sunday, Oct. 13, Dr. J. W. Trout, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m., L. W. Ford, superintendent; 11 a. m. preaching service by pastor, 7.30 p. m. Endeavor, subject "What My Denomination Is Planning for the Future," led by L. W. Ford. All welcome.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church will present the folloing progrom the coming week. The first house of worship of this congregation was built in 1827. The corner stone of the present edifice was laid in 1887 and on October 14, 1888 the church was dedicated. Rev. N. O. Gibson is the present pastor.

The program for the week is as follows:

Sunday, October 14—11 a. m., Divine worship and sermon, minister, The Rev. G. I. Humphries, D. D., President of the Maryland Conference. 2.30 p. m., Sunday school Rally, Fred. G. Usilton, Superintendent. 6.45 p.m., Christian Endeavor, topic "What My Denomination Is Planning for the Future," leader, Mrs. N. O. Gibson. 7.30 p. m., Divine worship and sermon, minister, The Rev. J. W. Trout, D. D., pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, Kennedyville, Md.

Monday, October 15—7.30 p. m., musical by the choir and membership roll call by the pastor.

Tuesday, October 16—7.30 p. m., sermon and consecration service, minister, The Rev. G. M. Clayton, pastor of Grace M. P. Church, Centreville.

Wednesday, October 17—3.30 p. m., Junior Christian Endeavor. 7.30 p. m., sermon and Penecostal service, minister, The Rev. E. W. Simms, pastor of St. James M. P. Church.

Thursday, October 18—7.30 p. m., sermon and evangelistic service, minister, The Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Baltimore.

Friday, October 19—7.30 p. m., sermon and Christian fellowship service, minister, The Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor of Dover M. P. Church, Dover, Delaware.

The third quarterly conference will be held in Mowbray Chapel this Saturday evening at 7.30 p. m.

Fairlee Salem M. E. Church, W. B. Horner, pastor, services for Sunday. 10 a. m. Sunday school, Walter Barnes, superintendent; 11 a. m preaching by pastor, subject "Things That Will Bring To Us Riches and Homes; 7.30 p. m. Epworth League.

Worton M. E. Church, W.B. Horner, pastor. 2 p. m. Sunday school, B. F. Rash, superintendent, 3 p. m. preaching by the pastor; 7.30 p. m. special revival services which will continue each evening during the week. We expect to have with us Rev. J. T. Graham, of Parsonsburg, Maryland.

St. James M. P. Church. Sunday school 10 a. m., at 11 a. m. Rev. Mr. Mr. Simms, subject "Forgiving and Forgetting;" Christian Endeavor 7 p.m., led by Ralph Usilton and Walter Rees. Rev. G. I. Humphries, President of the Maryland Conference, will make the address.

Lynch M.P.Church. Sunday school 2 p. m. preaching at 3 p. m. The Ladies Aid of Lynch met at St. James parsonage Wednesday afternoon.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church met at the home of Mrs. Frances Needles Thursday evening.

The Ladies Aid of the M. P. Church met at the home of Mrs. Mollie Simpers last week.

For Sale

Fine Building Brick, prompt delivery by rail or water.

NEW BRICK & TILE CO.
Phone 262-520
je23t-f. Faston, Md

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_43_1-0370