MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Other Mothers

Windom, Minn.—"I was so run-down that I was just good for nothing. I was to become the mother of my ninth child, and I thought I did not have the strength to go through with it. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has surely done all I could ask it to do and I am telling all my friends about it. I have a nice big baby girl and am feeling fine. You may use this letter to help other sick mothers."—Mrs. C. A. MOEDE, Box 634, Windom, Minn.

My First Child

Glen Allen, Alabama.—"I have been greatly benefited by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for bearing-down feelings and pains. I was troubled in this way for nearly four years following the birth of my first child, and at times could hardly stand on my feet. A neighbor recommended the Vegetable Compound to me after I had taken doctor's medicines without much benefit. It has relieved my pains and gives me strength. I recommend it and give you permission to use my testimonial letter."—Mrs. IDA RYE, Glen Allen, Alabama.

CHAMPION MOTHER

Harry C. Stevens, a farmer living in the First District, is the proud owner of the champion mother cow of Queen Anne's county, and perhaps of all Maryland. The cow owned by Mr. Stevens is thirteen years old and has had fourteen calves. Nine of these calves have been born during the past six years. The mother has had three sets of twins, the last set being born on Thursday of this week and according to Mr. Stevens, "are as nice a set as a man ever owned."

CRUMPTON VISITED BY FIRE

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the garage of A. P. Story, at Crumpton, Wednesday morning. The contents of the building were moved to a place of safety.

The fire alarm was sounded by the ringing of the church bells and neighbors and citizens of the town quickly formed a bucket brigade to combat the flames. Their attempts were useless however, as the fire had gained so much headway, that the large building soon burned up. Women of the town joined with the men in helping to fight the conflagration.

CANISIUS SQUAD BEATS WASHINGTON COLLEGIANS

..Washington College, of Chestertown, Md., lost a nip-and-tuck struggle to Canisius College, 14 to 0, Saturday. Forward passing was directly or indirectly the cause of both scores.

Canisius launched a pretty pass to Beloit in the first quarter for the initial score. Late in the final period the same player pulled one of Cavanaugh's tosses out of the air and ran 40 yards for the final touchdown.

Beloit and Flaherty starred for the home team, while Reiger, the flashy little left end, Captain Duffy and Crowe played best for the Southerners. Reiger played one of the best games at end seen here in a long time.

Canisius—Leahy, L. E.; Nolan, L. T.; Currier, L. G.; Knauff, C.; Coglins, R. G.; Geist, R. T.; Guarauier, R. E.; Flaherty, Q. B.; Beloit, R. H.; Weldon, L. H.; Redmond, F. B.

Substitutions — Washington. Conant for Reiger, Lohran for Galvin; Canisius, Hale for Leahy, Kour for Redmond. Touchdowns—Beloit (2). Point after touchdowns—Weldon (2). Referee—Dolan, U. of B. Umpire—Tiesler, Canisius. Head linesman—Russell, St. Bohaventuress.

MRS. ANNIE W. R. WRIGHT DIES IN CENTREVILLE

Centreville lost one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens on Friday morning at 1 a. m., when Mrs. Annie W. R. Wright died, after an illness of almost two years.

Born April 2, 1839 on the Locust Hill Farm, now occupied by J. R. E. Turpin, the deceased spent all her life in and about Centreville. She was a daughter of the late Dr. Walter S. Turpin, a State-wide prominent physician, and Luranah Potter Turpin. On April 29, 1863 she became the bride of the late J. Spencer Wright, a Queen Anne's farmer who died August 28, 1882.

The late Mrs. Wright, up to the time of her death, was the oldest member of Grace M. P. Church, from a standpoint of service and activity.

The deceased is survived by the following sons and daughters; Mrs. John G. Wighman, Mrs. J. Thomas Holdand, Nannie T. Wright, Rebecca L. Wright, Spencer Wright and Walter T. Wright, all of Centreville. Surviving sisters are: Mrs. Edwin H. Brown, Sr., Centreville, Mrs. Wm. C. Cahall, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Harry Frazier, of Richmond, Va.

EASTERN SHORE DISTRICT FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

The rapidly increasing interest in women's club work was manifest at the fourth convention which was held in the Masonic Temple, Federalsburg, Md., October 10th, 1923, which was called to order by the President, Mrs. A. A. Hathaway, and opened by singing America, the Beautiful, followed by invocation by the Rev. F. S. MacSorley. Mrs. Fernandes Davis, President of the Woman's Club of Federalsburg, delivered the address of welcome which was responded to by Mrs. Hathaway. The usual reports of the officers and chairman of departments of work followed. The morning session closed with the biannual election, resulting unanimously in re-electing for President, Mrs. A. A. Hathaway, Vice President, Mrs. J. L. Robins, Secretary, Mrs. J. W. Stowell, Treasurer, Mrs. Reginald Constable. Adjournment for lunch being in order all returned greatly refreshed for the afternoon session to be inspired by the addresses of Dr. Ella Lonn, of Goucher College, and the Hon. T. Allan Goldsborough, and the vocal and instrumental selections of the Misses Anne Brown, Frances Hackett and Evelyn Covey. About two hundred were served with lunch and a greatly increased number attended the convention.

The passing of the late Mrs. Francis Sanderson, the beloved honorary State President, was deeply felt by all, and resolutions upon her death presented by Mrs. Edward A. Lamkin were adopted. The convention adjourned to meet in the spring of 1924 with the Cambridge Women's Club at Cambridge, Md.

THE CHESAPEAKE & POTOMAC TELEPHONE CO. BELL SYSTEM AMERICAN TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO.

CALLED IN ERROR

Your telephone rings and on answering, the operator asks "Number, please?" Your bell rang, so you feel someone wishes to reach you and you cannot understand why the operator answers in the same way as if you were making a call.

In this case, the operator who answered you was not the one who rang your bell. It may have been rung by any one of the operators in your exchange. The operator who answered you did not know that your telephone had been rung, but was responding to the signal that appeared when you lifted your receiver.

Usually such a "call in error" occurs because the party calling abandons the call; i.e., hangs up the receiver before the called subscriber has had an opportunity to answer.

"Calls in error" cause great annoyance. Telephone users can assist in preventing them by waiting until the person being called has ample time to answer the telephone. When the called party answers, if you do not want to talk or if you have asked for a wrong number, explain it to the person answering.
