The Caroline Sun says, "That Caroline county's dog fund is now dwindling down is a foregone conclusion. Hundreds of dollars have been paid out of this fund during the past few months to owners of young turkeys in all parts of Caroline county. The turkeys were killed by worthless dogs that are allowed to run wild on land of farmers not only in this section, but in all sections of the county. The farmers will be heavy loosers, as in most cases the turkeys killed on Sunday averaged from 8 to 10 pounds each. Wm. A. Lynch brought a carriage load of dead turkeys to this office on Monday morning, 16 in all. One turkey weighed 7 pounds. It had been torn to pieces and much of its meat and feathers had disappeared. Chas. H. Cole had 13 turkeys killed by dogs about the same time as Mr. Lynch. These turkeys averaged about four pounds each. G. M. Downes also reports the loss of nine turkeys by dogs."

Fans Pay More Than Million To See Series

Receipts For Six Games Total $1,063,115, Setting Record; Attendance Is 301,430—Yankees To Receive About $6530 Each For Winning; Giants Share Is 4363 Each.

The sum of $1,063,815 was paid by 301,430 persons to see the world's series of 1923, ended with the sixth game Monday. These figures make a new record, the old record having been established in 1921, when the Giants and Yankees, in an eight-game series, attracted 269,977 persons, with receipts of $900,233.

Advisory Council's share, $20,887.80; each club's share, $59,182.10; Figures for six games, attendance, 301,430; receipts, $1,063,815; advisory council's share, $165,672.25; each club's share, $267,729.96.

The players' pool this year, $362,783.04, is more than $100,000 larger than ever before. Seventy-five per cent of this amount is to be divided among the Yankees and Giants. The Yankees, for their victory, will receive 60 per cent and the Giants 40 per cent. Figured on a basis of 25 eligible players, each Yankee will receive $6530 and each Giant about $4363.

Each second-place club will receive about $27,208 and each third-place club about $18,139.

STATE CANDIDATES COMING OCTOBER 25

Will Speak At Mass Meeting In Chestertown, Thursday Afternoon, October 25th. Everybody Is Cordially Invited.

Governor Ritchie, Comptroller William S. Gordy, Hon. Thamas H. Robinson, candidate for Attorney General, and Hon. James A. Young, candidate for Clerk Court of Appeals, will all come to Chestertown, and participate in a Democratic mass meeting here on Thursday afternoon, October 25th. Governor Ritchie and his colleagues have been touring the State for a week or more and he is making telling speeches. Hon. Alexander Armstrong, Republican nominee for Governor has been attacking the public school system and charging Governor Ritchie with using politics in them, but Governor Ritchie comes back at him in convincing ways. He said in one of his speeches this week:

"The public school system means more to the State than any other department of government. It vitally concerns everybody. Upon its integrity and efficiency depend the standards of citizenship which the next generation will have. Nothing could be more reprehensible than to allow politics to play any part whatever in it. When, therefore, Mr. Armstrong charges that the public schools are being used and run for political and partisan purposes he makes a statement which must either be substantiated or retracted.

Inquires About State Taxes

"It is incumbent on Mr. Armstrong to tell the public what his plan for reducing State taxes is. He must get down to details in his attack on the Reorganization act. He must give a bill of particulars to support his platform charge that State road contracts and appointments are influenced by political considerations. These charges are all unfounded, but more important than any of them is the school question.

"Everything else can wait on this. The criticism of State auditing is easily answered. The delays there have not cost the State a cent and the Reorganization act has remedied them. But that charge can wait, too. The thing that cannot wait is this attack on the school system.

Free From Politics, He Says.

"For three years the State school system, under Albert S. Cook, has been free from politics and partisanship of every kind. When Mr. Cook resigned the superintendency in Baltimore county a Republican was appointed to succeed him. There was a Republican superintendent in Garrett county and another in Frederick county, and nobody has disturbed either. The Republican superintendent in Prince George's county was changed, but the reasons had no relation to his policies.

"At different times I have been told that unless a change were made in this or that school official that my political fortunes would be injured. I have made only one reply, namely, that I had appointed the very best executives I could find to run the schools, that my part was to leave them free to do their work and to back them up, and that no personal or political considerations of any kind could influence me in the slightest. And they never have.

"I had rather have the inheritance of the kind of State school system we have in Maryland now than anything else that public life could give me."

MINUTE TALKS

IN THE INTEREST OF
BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION
OF CHESTERTOWN

By Wm. R. Moody

When you stop to consider the fact that the executive work of the B. M. A. is being done by a few individuals who are serving entirely without pay of any kind and solely because of their belief that such an organization can do something toward making Chestertown the kind of a town you want to live in—then it is up to you to do your little share toward making your town what you want to see. If anything is wrong with the town, it is'nt your town—it's YOU.

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You need'nt slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.

You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town,
It is'nt the town—it's you!

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else get ahead,
When everyone works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead.

And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbor makes one too,
Your town will be what you want to see;
It is'nt your town—it's you.

The sentiment of agricultural and business interests in every part of Maryland is being sought regarding the calling of a conference to meet at Frederick about the middle of November to discuss legislative measures for the farmers that should be submitted to the next General Assembly.

The purpose of this conference is to obtain the best thought of the State on the agriculturists' problems, which are considered of vital interest to the business men as well as to the farmers themselves.

The consideration of these problems will be entirely dissociated from political prejudices. It is an effort on the part of the business men to express by practical action their interest in the farmer and their willingness to cooperate with his efforts.

Western Maryland Backs Plan

Following a recent meeting of the executive council of the Western Maryland Chamber of Commerce that body has gone on record as indorsing the conference. Whether the conference will be a truly State-wide representation depends upon the sentiment of the business men and the farmers themselves.

Members of the Salisbury-Wicomico Chamber of Commerce, headed by President Oscar L. Morris, have also expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the plans. With these two organizations, probably the largest in the State in which are represented both interests, practically every section of the 23 counties is expected to send a delegation.

Subjects that have been tentatively suggested for consideration at the conference are:

1. A sufficient appropriation by the General Assembly to eradicate tuberculosis among the cattle of the State in three years.
2. A general marketing program and the standardization of products and the containers.
3. A survey of the water power of the State.
4. Drainage of waste lands and their utilization.
5. Inspection and grading of products at points of shipments as well as at the markets.

For Better Marketing

Maryland's legislative policy in the past has been looked upon as lax in providing measures governing the marketing of crops, it is claimed. The delegations will seek to have placed upon the statue books at the next General Assembly Statewide legislation which will aid in developing and improvement of farming methods in Maryland.

The eradication of tuberculosis by putting dairy herds through tests at more frequent intervals is a matter in which Western Maryland dairymen are greatly interested for the improvement of thoroughbred herds. A small appropriation made by the Legislature for this work would forestall heavy losses each year, it is believed.

A survey of the water power for utilization in rural sections, as well as the towns and cities, would also be of inestimable value to the Western Shore counties. The topography of the Eastern Shore is such that other motive power must be used.

Maryland has a total of 4,758,000 acres in farm lands, but the approximate acreage actually under cultivation is estimated by the University of Maryland Extension Service at 2,000,000. Much of the farm land which is improved, but not under cultivation, is left idle each year because of improper drainage.

OBITUARY

In loving remembrance of our dear son, William C. Beck, who departed this life seven years ago October 19, 1916.
The last farewell was spoken,
Seven years ago today;
Our hearts were well-nigh broken
When our son passed away.
And while he cannot come again
To this vile world of sin and pain,
I hope we will meet on Heaven's shore
And dwell with him forever more.
Farewell dear son, but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn;
We shall meet to part, no never!
On that resurrection morn.
By his loving Mother.

Farewell, dear brother,
Till we meet on the golden shore,
On the banks of the beautiful river,
Where we shall meet to part no more.
By Brother Herbert.

Hush! Blessed are the dead,
In Jesus' arms who rest,
And lean their weary head
Forever on His breast.
By His Sisters.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst His shinning band;
And so He bent with a loving smile
And clasped our uncle's hand.
By His Niece Etta.

From a world of pain and sorrow
To a land of peace and rest;
God has taken you, dear uncle,
Where pou have found eternal rest.
By His Nephew Oliver.

DEFEATED CANDIDATE SINGS SWAN SONG

W. Dick Reamer, unsuccessful aspirant for the republican nomination for County Commissioner in Westmoreland county, Pa., to succeed himself, who has gone through many campaigns generally landing on top sings his swan song in his expense account, just filed. Here it is:

September 9th, from an unknown friend, may he rest in peace, $200.
June 18, to get my name in papers, $50.00.
July 4, to get the church vote of S. G. B. G. (?) $10; to get Mr. Jones' support, $5.
August 11, to get about, being footsore and weary, one Lizzie, $325.
August 22, guts for Lizzie, $16.82.
August 24, Butch Newnam, $20.
August 29, more repairs to the "Girl," $3.25.
August 30, colored support I did not get, $5.
August 31, Scotchdale Independent, printing my picture, $12. Lizzie broke her hind leg, $17.60.
September 3, Lizzie refused to function, $12.
September 12, to J. F. Troy, a mighty good man, $30.
September 13, to printing beautiful cards and posters of myself, $136.75.
September 15, another great help advertisement in Vandegrift Citizen, Appoli fair, Armstrong county, $10.
September 20, advertisement manor booklet, $10; Lizzie took sick again, doctor bill, $16.82.
September 24, by old friend, Page King, hauling the faithful, $10.
Total, $700.24.

This, as far as I know, is all of my expenses, not counting the numerous 50-cent cheap voters I ran across during these hard and turbulent times that tried men's souls and their patience.

God pity the man who runs for office and expects a thankful public to remember what good he may or may not have done for them.

Unpaid debts and obligations—none thank God.
