35TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The 35th anniversary celebration of the building of the new Christ Methodist Protestant Church was begun Sunday with the sermon by Dr. G. I. Humphries, President of the Maryland Annual Conference. His text was "God is a Spirit and he who worships Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." It was a discourse of unusual depth and impressiveness delivered in a manner that held his large audience as if riveted to his thoughts and convincing all by his unanswerable arguments. It was a great sermon on a lofty theme delivered in a masterly manner. Rev. N. O. Gibson, the pastor, was in charge. The church and Sunday school were tastely decorated with ferns and cut flowers of exquisite beauty. Special music by the choir under the leadership of Miss Clara Usilton was enjoyed. The choir on this occasion comprised: Sopranos, Mrs. G. H. Cannan, Misses Dorothy Woodall, Flora Wheatley, Amy Wheat; altos, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Miss Jessie Moffett; tenors, T. D. Bowers, J. H. Thompson; bassos, A. L. Sparks, Fred. G. Usilton, Roy Woodland, Jos. N. Wheatley; cornetist, C. Arthur Bacon.

In the afternoon a rally day program was presented in the Sunday school. It included songs by classes, exercises by classes taught by Mrs. Ella Robinson and Miss Maud Duyer, study of the lesson, etc. It was the regular missionary day and the offering was over $50. Miss Clara Usilton's class of ladies won the banner which was presented in a happy speech by Prof. Hart, of Washington College. Dr. Humphries was present and made a few remarks. The singing was accompanied by orchestra composed of Arthur Bacon, cornet; Jos. N. Wheatley, N. Graves, David McMenamin, violins; Miss Clara Usilton, pianist. Souvenirs were given all present.

An interesting feature of the service was the reception of two young ladies into church membership.

Come to Sunday School TOMORROW And Every Sunday

Kent county is favorobly known for many advantages, but none surpass the facilities for training the young in the great need of the age — Christian character.

It is not only a great privilege of parents to send their children to Sunday school, but a duty. Come with the child if possible, otherwise see that he goes without you.

God needs you in our Sunday schools. We must run our farms to produce bread. So we must run our Sunday school to develop Christian character.

Superindendents of the different Sunday schools of our good county join in asking everybody to attend and support our schools. Go to the church of your choice, and become partners with God. Gather up the children and lead them to Sunday school, help to bring them up with perfect Christian habits. We can do no greater service for our homes, our town, our county, our nation and our friends.

After Sunday school Rev. N. O. Gibson baptized the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill.

At night the sermon was preached by Dr. J. W. Trout, of Kennedyville M. P. Church, a former pastor of this church. He delivered a most impressive discourse on the Provinces of God as shown in the life of Joseph. Special music was furnished by the choir.

Monday evening there was a fine attendance to hear the roll call and a history of the church read by Rev. N. O. Gibson. Special music was rendered by the male sextette, Miss Flora Wheatley, Prof. Woodland and the choir.

Rev. G. M. Clayton, of Centreville, preached Tuesday evening in connection with the consecration service. Rev. E. W. Simms, of St. James, delivered the sermon Wednesday which was followed by pentecostal devotions. Rev. J. L. Ward, of Baltimore preached Thursday evening, it being evangelistic night. Last night was goodfellow night and Rev. Avery Donovan, of Dover, delivered the sermon. It has been a remarkable celebration and enjoyed by excellent congregations.

Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton is the oldest member of the church now living and was present at all the services. She joined the church in 1863. Her sister, Mrs. Milton Baker, now in her 83rd year, joined in 1876. Mrs. Sallie Rollison is the oldest person on the roll she being 93 years of age. Others over 80 are Mrs. S. J. Coleman, W. J. Vannort, J. W. Chapman.

This beautiful edifice with organ, etc., cost $30,000. The contract was let to Milton Baker for $17,500. Robert R. Calder did the brick work. Rev. Walter R. Graham was the pastor in charge. The building committee were J. K. Aldridge, J. W. Chapman, T. R. Hubbard, James W. Lambert, T. W. Russell, S. F. Smith, W. J. Vannort, J. H. Simpers, Wm. Archibald, Jr., and Wm. B. Usilton. All are deceased excepting three, Messrs. Chapman, Vannort and Archibald. The corner stone was laid July 19, 1887, and Dr. B. F. Benson delivered the sermon.

The dedication took place October 14, 1888, and every dollar raised to complete the payment of the building. Dr. L. W. Bates preached the morning sermon, his theme being "Truth." Rev. W. S. Hammond had charge in the afternoon and at night Dr. Drinkhouse preached. A week of services followed in which Revs. J. R. Nichols, G. I. Bacchus, D. L. Greenfield, J. J. Murray, B. F. Benson and others participated. The music was in charge of Wm. W. Chapman and Prof. Rinehart, of Western Maryland College, organist. The choir was as follows: Sopranos, Mrs. Kenton, of Centreville; Miss Alice Edwards, Baltimore; Linda Watson, Clare Vannort, Etta Usilton; altos, Mollie Parks, Julia and Coe Thompson, Marion Lusby; tenors, C. H. Hurlock, T. D. Bowers; bassos, C. I. Snyder, Wm. A. Biscoe, T. S. Dodd, L. B. Russell, Fred. G. Usilton; cornetists, John N. Dodd and W. H. McFeely.
