Repair Those Old Walls

SHEETROCK is easily and quickly applied directly over walls or ceilings without the muss and litter of removing the old plaster. Sheetrock is gypsum plaster encased in a protective covering.

Its broad ceiling-high sheets make smooth, permanent walls and ceilings. Sheetrock takes any decoration.

Judge Pere L. Wickes Dies

Pere L. Wickes, for many years an associate judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore, died suddenly Saturday at his residence, 920 St. Paul street. His death was said to be due to heart failure.

Judge Wickes retired from the bench in August 1907 when he was 70 years old, as is required by law, though he had not completed his 15-year term, to which he was elected in 1893. He had been on the Supreme Bench for a year before that, having been appointed by the late Governor Frank Brown to complete the unexpired term of Judge Duffy.

Judge Wickes was the youngest son of the late Colonel Joseph Wickes 4th, a lawyer of Chestertown, Md. He was born in Chestertown August 14, 1837. He studied at Washington College and Princeton University, having graduated from the latter institution in 1856. Later he received the degree of master of arts from Princeton.

Studying law with the late S. Teakle Wallace, Judge Wickes was admitted to the bar in 1859. In 1862 he married Miss Henrietta Welsh, of York, Pa., and took up the practice of law there. Elected associate judge of the Nineteenth Judicial District if Pennsylania in 1875, he later became president judge. Upon completion of his term he returned to Maryland to engage in law practice.

Judge Wickes is survived by seven children: Joseph L. Wickes, traffic engineer if the Public Service Commission; Miss Catherine B. Wickes, Dr. Henry W. Wickes, of the United States Public Health Service; B. C. Wickes, Harry L. Wickes, of Chicago; Henrietta E. Wickes and Dr. Walter F. Wickes.

Judge Lewin W. Wickes attended the funeral.

FARM BUREAU EXPERIMENT

Farm Bureau women of Anne Arundel county have taken a step forward in their farm bureau activities. About the middle of November they have arranged to open at Annapolis a thoroughly up-to-date Farm Bureau Women's Exchange for the sale of pies, cakes, pickles, marmalades, jellies, jams, preserves, canned goods, eggs, butter and scores of other dainty and toothsome dainties which have their origin in the kitchen of the Farm Bureau women of that county.

The exchange will be open on Tuesday and Saturday of each week and if, because of its popularity, it becomes necessary, it will be kept open for another day or two each week. It will be in charge of apaid woman attendant.

They have also arranged to serve luncheon on court days. Miss M. Luckett Iglehart, chairman of the Home and Community Work of the Anne Arundel County Farm Bureau and County Agent Norris, are directors of the exchange. The experiment will be looked forward to with much interest by the Farm Bureau women in the other counties of the State.

MARYLAND POULTRY SHOW

The only exhibition of the magnificent display of poultry and appliances to be made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture this season will be made in conjunction with the Great Baltimore Poultry Show, to be held at the Fifth Regiment Armory, December 3 to 8, according to information received yesterday by Gen. Clinton L. Riggs, president of the Baltimore Show, and of the Maryland State Poultry Association.

This exhibit will include motion pictures, lectures by Government experts, demonstrations, and a free bulletin service from the Washington Bureau, and a fine exhibit of the breeding fowls maintained at the Government poultry plant at Beltsville, Md.

Judges at the Baltimore show will include Geo. O. Brown, C. N. Myers, President of the Hanover Shoe Co., Robert J. Walden, Wm. Boileau, W. W. Lander, Wm. J. Hobbs, Charles Nixon, John Kriner, A. Mowll, Harry M. Lamon, D. G. Witmyer, and Jos. P. Quinn, of the Department of Agriculture.

Maryland poultry fanciers are urged to make an exhibit, and a postal card addressed to Howard S. Thompson, 33-34 Franklin Building, Baltimore, will bring the premium list about November 1.

The students of Chestertown High School have chosen a business-like method for earning money for athletics. They launched the course in salesmanship provided by The Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, which gives them training in salesmanship, and at the same time provides them with a method for earning this money through securing subscriptions for The Ladies Home Journal outside of school hours this week. This course has been conducted thru more than 6000 schools and has the endorsement of some of the country's leading educators and foremost business men. C. L. Seeley, Vocational Director for this district, delivered a very interesting lecture to the students. The school is divided into two teams, with Miss Martha Trew as leader of one and Miss Louise Startt as leader of the other. Gold and silver pencils will be awarded by the school to the boys and girls making the best record in salesmanship. Keen rivalry has developed between the opposing sides.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Now Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

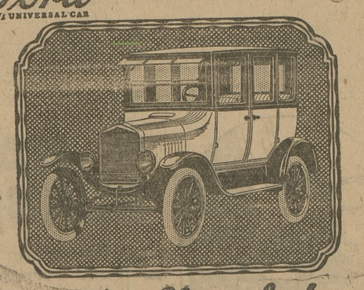

Washington, D. C.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which a physician said I would have to have for a very bad case of female trouble. My system was all run down for two years after my little girl was born. Then I read of your wonderful medicine and decided to try it. I could hardly drag one foot after the other, and after taking six bottles of the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I now do all my housework, also washing and ironing, and do not know what real trouble is. My health is fine, and I weigh 140 pounds. When I started taking it I weighed 97 pounds. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any one who is suffering from female trouble or is run down. You may use this testimonial for I am only too glad to let suffering women know what the Vegetable Compound did for me."—MRS. IDA HEWITT, 1529 Penna. Ave. S.E., Washington, D.C.

Such letters from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Sedan

Changes featured in the new Ford Sedan make it a better looking, roomier car.

A higher radiator with a trim apron at its base lends dignity befitting a closed car. The higher hood and enlarged cowl curving gracefully to the dash give a stylish sweep to its body lines, and afford additional leg room for occupants of the front seat.

All body fittings—window regulators, door grips, door latch levers, door lock, dome light—are finished in nickel. The upholstery carries a fine dark line on a soft brown background that does not easily show dust or dirt. Silk window curtains to harmonize for the three rear windows enhance the style of the car and add to the comfort of its passengers. See the new Sedan and other new Ford body styles at our showroom

These cars can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
