Locals

There is talk of another automobile show room on High street, near Kent.

Kent Island oystermen are enjoying one of the most successful seasons in recent years and as an indication of the prosperity that prevails among local watermen, T. C. Tolson, and Roland Thompson, received $77 for one day's catch.

The Chestertown Public Library managers gave the first of their current events talks by A. Hunt Vantier, of Philadelphia, Monday evening in the Chestertown High School. There was a fine audience and the lecturer proved very interesting. The Chestertown Orchestra under C. Arthur Bacon furnished plenty of fine music.

A lady claiming to be from Church Hill visited several stores in Chestertown recently and left several bad checks. One was for $4, another was for a trip to Elkton for $7.

Omar D. Crothers, of Cecil, a former State Roads Commissioner, announces that arrangements have been made to build a concrete bridge over Bohemia river, near Cecilton, next spring to replace the wooden structure, which is in bad condition. The bridge is over a half mile long. The Chester river bridge is about 100 feet longer than this bridge. The next Legislature will be asked to appropriate money for these two bridges.

The Peninsula Horticultural Society will hold its annual meetings in Salisbury November 20, 21 and 22, 1923. An exceptionally strong program has been arranged. It is one which no fruit grower or truck grower can afford to miss. The meetings will be held in the Court House. The exhibits, which will consist of a large display of apples, vegetables, potatoes, etc., as well as a full line of commercial exhibits, will be held in the State Armory. Copies of the full program and premium list as well as other information concerning the meeting can be had by writing to W. Lee Allen, Salisbury, Md.

The Massey Electric Light and Power plant was offered at public sale Monday by the receivers, S. W. Granberry and R. Hynson Rogers, but because of the lack of a bidder the plant was withdrawn. The town of Massey, which has been supplied with light from this plant, has resorted to the use of private lighting arrangements in the homes, and the oil lamp on the streets and it is believed that the loss to the stockholders of the company will amount to about $1,000 apiece.

The large crop of tomatoes which was grown this year, may be judged from the payroll of the Sudlersville Cannery, which paid to the farmers of that section Thursday the sum of $40,000.00.

HAND OF DEATH

Miss Lena Stewart died at her home in Baltimore Sunday after a long illness, aged 45. The body was brought to Kent county Tuesday and interred at St. Paul's Cemetery, Rev. George W. Hadaway, of Starr M. P. Church, officiating. The deceased was the daughter of the late James and Emily Stewart, former residents of Kent.

John August Hinefeld died at his late home in Skinner's Neck Tuesday, aged 64. He leaves a widow and three brothers. The funeral took place Thursday at Raum Chapel, interment in Wesley Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Reed officiating; Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Hannah A. Bigelow died at her home near Rock Hall last Friday, aged 75. She was the widow of John W. Bigelow and leave the following children: Mrs. Wm. Wheat, James A., Chares W., Sarah E. and Perison W. Bigelow, Mrs. Clifton Downey and Mrs. Bert Atkinson. The funeral was held Sunday at 2 p. m. with interment in Wesley Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Reed officiating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were three sons, two sons-in-law and grandson, George Wheat.

The Rev. Dr. Fred. Heisse, supt, of the Anti-Saloon League in Md., and a great leader in the temperance movement, died in Baltimore Thursday, aged 60.

John M. Perry, a leading citizen in Queen Anne's county, died at his home near Centreville Monday night, aged 65. Among his children are Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, and Miss Isabelle Perry, of Chestertown.

MRS. SAMUEL ROLPH

Mrs. Samuel Rolph, aged 82 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Fields, in Church Hill, Friday morning after a lingering illness.

The deceased leaves two sons, Geo. Rolph and William Rolph, of New York, and two daughters, Mrs. Archie Fields, of Church Hill, and Mrs. Annie Blades, of Sudlersville.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fields, conducted by Rev. A. B. Frye, and interment will be in Church Hill Cemetery.

Wm. L. Spry, of Middletown, went to his garage Monday morning and found that some time during the night thieves had entered the place and stolen his automobile. Neighbors say they heard a car running about four o'clock that morning and it is believed it was about that time that the Spry automobile was taken. Samuel Pierce's automobile was removed from his garage and later found in the street. The would-be thieves abandoned the car when they found the steering gear locked.

Personals

Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, of Chestertown, has been spending sometime with her son, James. in New York.

Frank Taylor's family, of Chestertown, were in an automobile accident near Gettysburg this week. Mrs. Taylor and child were bruised but not seriously hurt.

Norman Crow is extremely ill at Sabellasville.

Walter Wright was able to return from Easton Hospital Tuesday and is convalescing at home.

Miss Mildred Colburn is assisting in H. B. Rote's Jewely Store.

Mrs. Frank H. Greenwood is spending the winter in Baltimore with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert J. Bardy.

Norman Crow left on Wednesday morning for Sabillasville, Md.

Mrs. Edgar McGinnis, of Chester, spent last week the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ralph Barnett.

Mrs. Denver Benton, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her parents, Mr. nad Mrs. James Kirby, the past week.

Mrs. Mary Aldridge, of Baltimore is visiting her brother, T. D. Bowers and wife.

James Metcalfe returned from Virginia last Friday. The baby, James, Jr., and nurse remained in the latter place for an extended visit.

Capt. Washington Woodall is enjoying ten days vacation which he is spending with his family here.

Mrs. Wm. C. Sutton and Mrs. W. I. Woodall spent Sunday the guests of Mrs. Winnie Grvaes at Cambridge.

Mrs. Dr. Peterson, of Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins on Water street.

Mrs. Frederick Gemmill, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Page Gale.

Miss Mae Crow, of Brooklyn, N. Y. and Mrs. Lillie Backay, of New Jersey, have been guests of Mrs. Owen B. Crow, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks returned home on Monday after spending two weeks the guest of their daughter in Fayetteville, N. C.

William Smith, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Belle Smith.

Mrs. Edward Shuman, of Washington, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linsay and family, of Media, were guests several days last week of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foxx, of Baltimore, spent several days last week the guests of latter's brotehs, Ralph and Vernon Barnett.

Miss Olevia Woodring, of Virginia, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Owen B. Crow, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Davis, of near Sassafras, are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter, on October 20th. Mary Josephine and her mother are progressing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Crane and daughters, of Cambridge, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnett, last week.

Miss Rebecca Kendall, of Wilmington, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kendall.

On Hallowe'en night quite a number of masked friends visited Mrs. Stauffer, of Fairlee, among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ammel, Mr. and Mrs. Hayman, Miss Emma Hayman, Engene Ammel, Harrison Hayman, all of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. John Forman, Mr. and Mrs. Sudler Loller, Mr. and Mrs. Pardee, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson. Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Stauffer, Misses Florence Pardee, Miriam Stauffer, Elsie Pardee, Charlotte Elliott, Oliver Scott, Harry Pardee, David Pardee, Will Stokes, Alfred Stauffer. The evening was very enjoyably spent with music, singing, dancing, refreshments were served at a late hour.

Robert G. Nicholson has been attending the Eastern Ice Manufacturers' Association held at Hotel Astor, N. Y., this week.

Ensign Harry Derringer, son of Mrs. Alice H. Derringer of this town, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant in the United States Navy. Lieut. Derringer is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, and has recently been stationed at the Naval Station in San Francisco. He has been confined to the Naval hospital on Mare Island for sometime on account of a physical ailment which he contracted while engaged in athletic sports at the Naval Academy. He expects to receive a transfer to the eastern section of the country shortly, and hopes to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his mother here.

Washington College Notes

At the regular weekly meeting of the Adelphia Literary Society of Washington College last Thursday evening, November 8th, the following program was rendered: Scripture reading, Chaplin; discussion, "The Establishment of a Student Y. M. C. A. at Washington College; Quartet, Cavanaugh. Galvin, Fiore, Reiger; impromptu session; special selection, Kelly's Kollegians; Moonbeam, Beaulac; Critics Report, Critic.

The Adelphia Literary Society of Washington College gave their first dance this year last Saturday night, Nov. 3, in the Washington College Gymnasium. Music was furnished by Kelly's Collegians.

In a political survey of the party affiliations of Washington College students last week (before Ritchie was elected Governor of Maryland) the following results were obtained in a test vote of the 152 students: Ritchie, 114; Armstrong, 27, and scattering, 11. Of the fathers of the students, 95 were for Ritchie; 36 for Armstrong, and 9 scattering. There were but 5 mothers who thought differently from father. 91 were for Ritchie, 37 for Armstrong, and 12 were scattered. Most of the students are from the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society of Washington College gave the following program at the regular weekly meeting in William Smith Hall, Wednesday evening, November 7th: Scripture reading, Culley; five minute talk, Harry Dussell; practice debate, Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt Universal Military Training; affirmative, Miss Katherine Kibler; negative, Lusian Powell; bedtime story, (broadcasted) by Reginald Simpkins, Reporter of the Los Angeles, California Star; Following this an address was given by an old member of the Mt. Vernon, Gilbert V. Byron, of Kennedyville; Aw-gwan, Miss Hill.

An appeal to the student body of Washington College to subscribe to the Washington College Alumni Fund was made last Monday through the student body representative, Preston P. Heck. Mr. Heck clearly explained the situation confronting the college in regards to the endowment Fund campaign, stating that the student body should raise $2500 as their part. And he was not disappointed when all subscriptions came in. The result was that $4000 had been pledged, $1500 above the mark, to aid Alma Mater.

Accepting the resignation of Prof. W. R. Howell as Faculty Representative on the Student Council of Washington College, the Faculty immediately elected Prof. J. W. Johns as his successor. The student body approved of the selection by the vote of 118 to 11.

A new marking system of marking with letters has been established at Washington College. This system is similar to that used in local high school.

WEDDING NOTES

The wedding of Miss Adelaide Isabel Perry and Mr. Philip George Wilmer will take place at Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Saturday evening, at half after six o'clock instead of eight o'clock as originally planned. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Charles L. Atwater, rector of the church.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John W. Perry, will wear a gown of white chiffon velvet, trimmed with rose point lace and pearl ornaments and a court train of satin. The veil of tulle will be fastened with a coronet of rose point lace and orange blossoms. Her flowers will be a shower bouquet of orchids, white sweet peas and lillies of the valley.

Mrs. S. Scott Beck will be her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Frances Perry, sister of the bride, Mrs. Donald Stam, sister of the groom, Mrs. A. W. Hamilton, of St. Louis, and Miss Elizabeth G. Brown, of Chestertown. Little Miss Ellen Skinner, niece of the bride, will be flower girl.

The best man will be Mr. William B. Wilmer, brother of the groom and the ushers will be Mr. Jessop Wilmer, of Chester, Pa., Mr. Malcom Wilmer, of Baltimore, Mrs. Louis E. Skinner, of Swarthmore, Mr. S. Scott Beck, Mr. Donald Stam and Mr. Brown Metcalfe, all of Chestertown.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, there will be no reception except to the immediate families.

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott, of Chestertown, and William Robert White, of Rolph's Wharf, were married on Monday evening, November 5th, at the Rock Hall M. E. Parsonage by Rev. W. H. Revelle, at 8 p. m. The bride was becomingly attired in a Navy blue Poiret twill coat suit with hat to match and carried chrysanthemums. Eli Elliott, brother of the bride and Miss Estelle Kersey, were the attendants. Upon their return to Chestertown a reception was held from her parents home. Only the immediate family being present. They will reside at Rolph's Wharf.

A wedding of much interest to Lower Kent was solemnized in Chestertown Saturday evening, November third, 1923, by Rev. Charles L. Atwater, at Emanuel P. E. Rectory. The interested parties were Mr. Hilry Bogle Akers, son of Capt. and Mrs. George Akers, of Rock Hall, and Miss Kitty Hetty Smith, of London, England. Mrs. Akers is a daughter of Mr. James Smith, of London, and became acquainted with Mr. Akers when he was in that city three years ago on one of the long trips, several of which he has made about the world. Miss Smith was booked to sail on the Paris last July but the necessary papers were delayed until the ship had sailed. She arrived in New York on the S. S. Suffren, via Le Havre, on November first and came to Baltimore Saturday where she was met by Mr. Akers and his sister-in-law, Mrs. G. Franklin Akers. They came to Rock Hall by steamer and had supper at the home of the groom's parents then, accompanied by Mrs. G. Franklin Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Stevens, the latter the groom's sister, Mr. Lloyd Stevens and Miss Helen Warner, motored to Chestertown for the ceremony. Mr. Akers is very popular among the young people of Rock Hall and is at present mate on the ferry that runs between that place and Baltimore. The young couple will reside with the groom's parents and have the best wishes of their townfolk for a long happy life.

Dividend Paying Co.

THE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.
Of Kent County.

is the institution which pays its Policy-Holders a dividend each year. This dividend is credited to the policy and forms a nice saving fund. As an example::

DIRECTORS

James P. Brown, Church Hill; R. G Nicholson, J. D. Bacchus, F. G. Usilton, T. W. Eliason, Jr., Allan A. Harris, Eben F. Perkins, Edward W Emory, P. Medford Brooks, Chestertown, Howard Turner, Betterton; Wm. A. Hyland, Galena; Dudley G. Roe, Sudlersville.

APPLICATION FOR INSURANCE MAY BE MADE TO

F. E. Thomas, Stevensville; E. Bowers, Lynch, Md.; Joseph Downey, Rock Hall; R. Wesley Moffett, Millington; Charles H. Jefferson, Chestertown; Frank H. Ruth, Galena; G. W. Owens, Betterton; Allan S. Walls, Sudlersville; Howard Turner, Betterton; T. B. Kilbourne, Chestertown.

FRED. G. USILTON, President.
EBEN F. PERKINS, Sec. and Treas.

For Sale

Fine Building Brick, prompt delivery by rail or water.

NEW BRICK & TILE CO.
Phone 262-320
j-23-tf Easton, Md.

FERTILIZER

Old reliable brands—the kind that drill right—Trustworthy, (2-8-5); Propagator (2-8-2); Crop Producer (1-9-3); Try Me ½-9-2); 12-5, 12-3, 10-5. High Grade Acid Phosphate. Delivered on your farm by truck. Place your order now.

SEED

New Alfalfa, Crimson Clover, Rye. We are booking orders for Timothy and Clover Seed, having bought before the advance we can save you money.

LIME

Hydrated, Lump, Shell. We carry hydrated and shell lime in stock.

SALT

Rock and Fine. Get our wholesale prices.

Massey & Kilbourne
Phone 183 Chestertown, Md.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To My Friends and the General Public

I Have Returned to Chestertown, Md. to represent

The National Life Insurance Company
Of Montpelier, Vermont.

This is one of the oldest and best companies in business today. Organized in 1850.

This is the same company represented by me in Kent County since 1919.

I shall devote my entire time to the LIFE INSURANCE business only.

Until I am permanently located in Chestertown I may be found at my father's store in Still Pond, Md.

Thanking you for past favors and asking for your continued patronage.

I am yours for service

R. GOLDEY WARREN.

"HAVE A TALK WITH WARREN"

TIMOTHY SEED

Our car of fine NEW CROP Western Seed has arrived.

The Purity and Germination are the best.

The price is right.

We advise placing your order at once as the market is very strong and continues to advance.

Order now and save money.

Yours to serve

JONES & SATTERFIELD

PHONE 51. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Safety and Service

SAFETY is the goods we sell a customer—Service the wrapping with which we do it up—Courtesy the string with which we tie it.

Do you like to do business with a bank of this kind? Then this Bank would like to do business with you.

IT TAKES NO HOLIDAYS.

ITS ALWAYS ON THE JOB.

Start a SAVINGS ACCOUNT at this Bank today and your money becomes an earning power independent of your personal efforts.

The Chestertown Bank of Maryland

CHESTERTOWN KENNEDYVILLE
BETTERTON GALENA

BORDLEY & SON
THE MEN'S STORE

When You Stop in to See the O'coats Here You May Think You Need Other Glasses

If you have been used to the average Chestertown size Overcoat stock this display will come as a severe shock.

You may think you are seeing things—and there you have it—you are. You are looking at coats that seldom get past the 15 mile limit signs of cities 10 times this population.

We didn't stop and say, "Oh, this is good enough for business in Chestertown"—Instead we bought fashions that would give us the O'coat business of the city.

Ready now:

Hart-Schaffner and Marx O'coats.
Michael Stern O'coats.
Griffon O'coats.
And Wool Hose—
And New Caps—and Sweaters to burn!

BORDLEY & SON
THE MEN'S STORE
CHESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAND

ADLER-ROCHESTER-CLOTHES

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_43_1-0411