MY FURNITURE FOR SALE

As I am moving to the city in a fw days, I am selling the following items cheap to quick buyer, namely: 4-piece living-room suite, made of genuine leather and fumed oak, in very best condition, 1 Victrola to match, 4 rugs, 1 gas range, 1 double heater stove, 2 kitchen tables, and chairs, 1 porch swing, 1 settee and porch chairs, window screens, door screens, 1 grass cutter and several other articles too numerous to mention. Buy quickly. MRS. A. SACHS, 416 High St., Chestertown. n17

Metcalfe Bros.

We wish to announce to our trade that our elevator and warehouse at Chestertown, Md., are about complete and in the very near future we will move our office and scales to our new location.

Our building is open daily for inspection. Whenever you are in town stop by and give it the once over. We think that it will meet with your approval and you are sure to find the warehouse well supplied with all kinds and sorts of dairy, mill, hog and poultry feeds. Not to mention the excellent grade of both spring and winter wheat flour.

We built this plant to do business, and the only way for us to accomplish our purpose is to have a part of your patronage.

We have a similar plant at Kennedyville, Md., a feed warehouse at Worton, Md. If it is more convenient for you to patronize either of the above, do so, but give us a chance not only on your feed and flour wants, but on your corn and wheat.

Thanking you for your kind and most valuable patronage, we are

Yours very truly,

Metcalfe Bros.

Nov. 17.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To My Friends and the General Public

I Have Returned to Chestertown, Md. to represent

The National Life Insurance Company
Of Montpelier, Vermont.

This is one of the oldest and best companies in business today. Organized in 1850.

This is the same company represented by me in Kent County since 1919.

JAMES B. DUNN ARRESTED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

James B. Dunn, owner of a racing stable which includes St. Quentin and other well-known mounts, was given a hearing in Chestertown, Thursday night on a charge of contempt of court lodged against him for refusal to comply with a court order requiring him to pay his wife $300 of alimony in arrears.

Dunn was arrested Wednesday night and placed in jail for alleged refusal to comply with the order. His wife entered suit for divorce in April. She was allowed $25 a week pending trial of the case.

A friend from New York arrived here Thursday night in time for the hearing and planked down six fifty dollar notes and Mr. Dunn was released.

OFFICIALS TERMS BEGIN VARIOUSLY

Newly Elected Men Will Be Sworn In In Very Near Future.

The newly elected officials chosen at the election on Tuesday have been certified to the Governor by the election supervisors and in the very near future their commissions will arrive. All will be sworn in by the Clerk of the Court. State's Attorney Beck will qualify January 1; Treasurer Sutton, June 1 next; Commissioners Johnson and Jones will swear in as soon as their commissions arrive, and the Orphans' Court likewise. The Governor has the privilege of designating who will be Chief Judge. Sheriff Goodman will take office December 1st. Members of the Senate and House of Delegates qualify when the Legislature begins.

Chestertown, Rock Hall and Betterton are tied in the number of points, won in soccer and field games the past month.

WEDDING NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haggerty of Kennedyville, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Helen and R. Gerald Myers. The wedding will take place Saturday, November 24, 1923.

Sewell Milbourne Moore, of Cambridge, announces the marriage of his daughter, Vashti Whiting to Emmett Robinson Ewell, on Saturday, Nov. 10th, 1923, at Cambridge, Md.

The Greensboro Daily Record notes a wedding if interest to our readers as follows:

A wedding of interest throughout the Carolinas was solemnized Monday morning at 10.30 o'clock at the home of the Rev. G. T. Bond, pastor of Spring Garden Street Methodist Church, when Miss Alice Virginia Copper, niece of Mrs. J. C. Holleman, and Council Abbott Tucker were united in marriage. The Rev. Mr. Bond officiated, and only a few relatives and intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a brown imported coat dress with hat and accessories to match.

She has been living in Greensboro for the past year, making her home with her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Holleman. She is an unusually pretty, attractive young woman, and her personal charm has won for her a number of friends in Greensboro. She received her education at Salem college, and has numbers of friends throughout the State. Mrs. Tucker came here from Anderson, S. C., where she formerly lived.

Mr. Tucker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tucker, of Pleasant Garden, and is a young Greensboro business man, connected with the Jefferson Motors Company. He is well known in the city.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tucker left for a northern trip, and upon their return they will be at home at 677 Percy street after November 25.

The bride is also the niece of Mrs. H. B. Rote, of Chestertown.
