A PITCH FORK BATTLE, AND JIM JONES KILLED

Another Chapter In History Of The J. B. Dunn Farm—J. Norman And Burton Lane Engage In Altercation With Jim Jones Colored. And "Reds" White—Sheriff Goodman Make Arrests.

The J. B. Dunn farm played another important part in the annals of Kent county Tuesday when an altercation took place near there resulting in the death of Jim Jones, colored, and the wounding of several others. J. Norman Lane, a highly respected farmer of Quaker Neck, is in jail charged with causing the death of Jones. Herbert Fazerkaker, white, alias "Reds," is in jail charged with assault upon Burton Lane, a farmer of Worton, but who was visiting his brother in Quaker Neck on Tuesday. A warrant for Burton Lane is likely to be sworn out by "Reds' who charges Burton with assault. The facts as best we can learn are these:

Sometime ago the sheriff levied upon some of the implements, crops and goods on the Dunn farm, in Quaker Neck. Tuesday the Lane brothers were engaged in hauling away some of the materials which, it is understood, had escaped the levy and which Dunn had claimed for his own. The Lanes are understood to have been removing from the farm for Dunn such articles as were not involved in the sheriff's levy.

"Reds" and the negro, Jones, are said to have filed claims against the Dunn estate for work. They were at work Tuesday afternoon in the field of George Townsend, which is a half mile from Dunn's farm and through which the Lane brothers pass to get to the Lane place. When the Lane brothers drove through with the load of goods, Jones and "Reds" protested to the Lanes against the removal of anything from the property because of the sheriff's levy, basing their protest on the fact that they each had claims against the estate.

An argument ensued and this led to some hot exchanges which finally resulted in J. N. Lane snatching up a pitch fork and starting in the direction of Jones, the colored farm hand. "Reds" is said to have rushed to the aid of the colored man and to have caught hold of J. N. Lane and thrown him against a fence. This aroused Burton Lane and he went to the defense of his brother. He is said to have been armed with a pitch fork with which he made a jab at "Reds." One of the prongs pierced the latter's finger.

The next instant J. N. Lane is alleged to have grabbed the pitch fork from the hands of his brother, Burton, and then to have plunged the fork into the eyes of Jones. The colored man dropped instantly and the two brothers soon put "Reds" to flight.

Sheriff Goodman was called and also Dr. H. P. Copeland. The doctor rendered first aid and removed the man to Easton Hospital where he died early Wednesday monring.

Early in the day Norman Lane had telephoned the sheriff to come and arrest the two men as he was expecting trouble. The sheriff replied the only way he could do so was to have Lane swear out a warrant for Jones. Nothing more was said about the matter until Mr. Townsend telephoned to Sheriff Goodman that Jones had been nearly killed. He and a deputy then went to the farm and arrested Mr. Lane and "Reds."

The accused man is about 40 years of age, has a wife, mother and two children. He removed here from Baltimore where he was a policeman and bears a good reputation. Burton lived with his brother for two years afterward removing into Worton.

Jim Jones was 20 years of age and did not bear a good reputation. "Reds" came to Dunn's farm to help with the race horses. He is 30 years of age.

BIG SEAPLANE RACE MAY BE HELD ON BAY

Capt. Tipton Of Guard Air Service Submits Course For Schneider Trophy At Rock Hall—Kent Countians May See A Fine Seaplane Race.

The nationally-contested Jacques Schneider Trophy seaplane race may take place in the waters of the upper Chesapeake if the plans submitted by Capt. Wm. D. Tipton, of the Maryland National Guard Air Service are favorably received by the Contest Committee of the American Association of Aeronautics.

Captain Tipton has submitted a map of what he believes to be the ideal course over a triangle from Bay Shore to Gibson Island to Rock Hall, legs of about 30 miles each. The proposed race will cover a 150-mile course.

The Schneider Trophy, which becomes the permanent property of the winner of three year races, was won for the first time last year by the American entry at Cowles, England. The date of the race will be selected for either August or September of next year. The contest is open to civilians of all nations.

Democrats Receive Commissions And Enter Upon Their Duties

The Kent County Board of Commissioners met Tuesday with the two newly-elected members, S. J. Johnson, of Massey, and T. Ringgold Jones, of Rock Hall, installed and organized as follows: President, Jesse H. Usilton, the hold-over member; Clerk, John Medders; Attorney, H. E. Perkins; health officer, Dr. Merritt Brice; Physician to Jail, Dr. H. G. Simpers; Janitor, Charles Ryckman.

Messrs. Arthur Brice and N. V. Walters, the retiring members, have been faithful to their duties and accomplished many reforms. It may truthfully be said "Well done, good and faithful servants."

Sheriff-elect William W. Goodman took charge at the jail Monday, Mr. Hadaway going to the Chester bridge as keeper. Walter Jester, son of Frank Jester, of Rock Hall, has been named as deputy. The new sheriff was called upon to arrest several Quaker Neck folks on his first day as noted in another column.

WEDDING NOTES

A quiet wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Charles H. Reed at Wesley Chapel M. P. Parsonage on Saturday evening, December 1st, when Miss Ursula V. Dickinson, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Dickinson and the late Harvey Dickinson, became the bride of George T. Rollison, son of Mrs. David E. Joyner and the late Thompson Rollison, in the presence of a few friends. A wedding supper and refreshments were served at the home of the bride's mother at Rock Hall where she and Mr. Rollison were guests until Sunday when they returned to Baltimore where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Rollison were former Rock Hall residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Reed announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to A. Roy Woodland on Saturday, December 22nd, at 12 o'clock noon in Christ M. P. Church. No cards in the town.

Mrs. I. M. Blyman announces the marriage of her daughter, Elsie Roeder to James B. Kennedy, on Saturday, Nov. 24, 1923, at Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will reside in Buffalo, N. Y.

A quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Bennett on Washington avenue on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when one of their pretty daughters, Harriett Alice, became the bride of William Thomas Legg, son of Harry H. Legg, of near town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. Sard. Following the ceremony a dinner was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Legg left for a wedding trip. They will reside in New Jersey.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Marie, wore a blue canton crepe dress. The groom's best man was his brother, Marion L. Legg. The happy couple left by auto for their home in Gloucester, N. J., where the groom holds a lucrative position.

Maple avenue, Chestertown, is now open to traffic after being closed for several weeks. This street now has a fine stone roa
