Centreville Would Stage Johnson-Wallace "Bout"

If United States Senator Magnus Johnson, of Minnesota, and Secretary Wallace, of the United States Department of Agriculture, accept the invitation of the Queen Anne's County Farm Bureau, which was telegraphed them Saturday, the proposed milking bout between these national figures will be held in Queen Anne's county.

Several days ago the "dirt farmer" Senator from Minnesota, who was elected by the farmers, met Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

Being a man of action and to keep in trim Senator Johnson challenged the Secretary to a milking contest. The date was not set but it was tentatively agreed that the battle should take place in one of the model Government dairy barns at Beltsville, Md.

Queen Anne's county Farm Bureau officials are hopeful that Senator Johnson and Secretary Wallace would see the inconsistency of proving their worth as real "dirt farmers" in an immaculate Government dairy station. In their telegraphic invitation the Farm Bureau points out that farmers all over the country will expect the contest to be staged under conditions as nearly similar to those under which the average farmer works as possible.

DUPONT $4,000,000 BOULEVARD OPENED

Road Enables Farmers To Vastly Increase Their Profits.

The duPont Boulevard, stretching for 90 miles from the south side of Wilmington to Selbyville at the State line of Virginia in Sussex County, which has been under construction for the past 12 years, was formally thrown open to the State and nation by the Delaware State Highway Department last week.

The boulevard which is the gift of Gen. T. Coleman duPont to Delaware, cost $4,000,000. In the construction of the boulevard Gen. duPont not only paid the bill but took a great personal interest, supervising the first few years of the work largely himself.

When the highway was started in Sussex county he was always the first man on the route in the morning and the last to leave when the work had been completed for the day. Through this boulevard farmers of Delaware have had the value of their farms tripled and quadrupled in many sections and have been able to get their produce to market quicker and obtain better prices.

On March 10th, 1911, General duPont appeared before the members of the Delaware General Assembly and told them that he had decided to build a highway through Delaware from one end to the other and that the total cost would be at his expense. He asked that permission be given. Such a collossal gift aroused widespread interest, not only in Delaware, but throughout the nation.

Shore Paper Of 48-Pages

The Wicomico News, published at Salisbury, established a journalistic record for the Eastern Shore of Maryland, last week, when it issued a 48-page edition including a special gravure edition of eight pages, depicting points of interest in Wicomico county. At the same time announcement was made that the News Publishing Company had decided to begin the publication of a daily newspaper, to be known as the Evening Times, beginning Monday. The 48-page edition was, probably, one of the most interesting newspapers ever published on the Eastern Shore.

Where's the Man or Boy who doesn't want a Bang-up Knife for Christmas

THERE'S something about a fine, sturdy pocket knife that reaches right down into the heart of man and boy alike.
