DEATH OF MRS. NICHOLSON.

The following beautiful tribute was made at the funeral of Mrs. Nicholson by her beloved pastor, Dr. Mills.

Mrs. Sarah Nicholson, aged 74 years, fell asleep on last Monday, May 10 at 15 minutes past noon. She and her sainted husband joined St. James Church in Oct. 1860, under the pastorate of Rev. John R. Nichols, assisted by Rev. J. E. Maloy, and they were received into full membership Feb. 10, 1861. Thus for more than 36 years she walked with God in the communion of the Meth. Prot. Church. Always quiet, mild and undemonstrative by nature, her christian life was not like the babbling brook, but like the deep waters of the river in its onward march to the sea—every day performing the present duty, every hour brought her nearer the earthly completion of that Christlike character which will be continued forever in the boundless ocean of eternal blessedness, in the presence of her Lord. In the language of one of her children "She was a Christian every day." There was no need therefor for a dying testimony, since her living testimony was so uniform and constant. A few hours before she died she seemed to see dimly and hear indistinctly voices and people from the spirit world. Those near her thought her mind wandering. "I know not," she said, "Emma who is it calling, don't you hear somebody calling?" No mother. "I thought I heard somebody calling." Then she said, "Emma who is that standing there?" No one mother. "Don't you see someone standing there?" No mother. "Why there he is just going out the door." Then after a little she looked up and said, "Emma who are all these?" I don't see any one mother. "Don't you see them?" raising her hand and pointing towards them. No mother I don't see them. "O, yes, they are all around," and she beckoned and waved to them as if in response to their call. Whether she heard and saw the angels of God as did Elisha's servant at Dothan, I know not. Whether she saw her sainted husband who had preceded her to the spirit land 11 years before, I know not. Whether she heard him calling her I know not. But this I know that "the angel of the Lord encampeth about those that fear him and delivereth them." I know that angels carry Christ's redeemed, at the time of their death, to their heavenly home. I know that sometimes, near the death hour, God gives to his own, as he did to Stephen the power of seeing the Heaven's opened and the Savior standing on the right hand of God.

This much I know, that when Christ's beloved walk throug the valley of the shadow of death they fear no evil for He is with them; his rod and his staff does comfort them. Had I known of this experience as I stood by her dying bed an hour or two after I should in addition to the prayer we offered have sung page 589:

My latest sun is sinking fast
My race is nearly run
My strongest trials now are past
My triumph is begun
O come angel band, come and around me stand
O bear me away on your snowy wing to my immortal home.

I know I'm nearing the holy ranks
Of friends and kindred dear
For I brush the dews on Jordan's banks
The crossing must be near.

I've almost gained my heavenly home,
My spirit loudly sings
For I brush the dews on Jordan's banks
I hear the noise of wings.

O bear my longing heart to him
Who bled and died for me
Whose blood now cleanses from all sin
And gives me victory.

Thus she fell asleep as quietly as a child, and thus ended a long and good and useful life on earth to be continued forever in heaven.

To the children and grand-children who most severely feel this affliction, we would say you have everything to comfort you. Had it not been for your loving care and the skill and care of her son-in-law, who said to me the day she died, "I loved her almost as my own mother," she would probably have joined her husband long ago, but in that greatest sorrow of her life you comforted her as only loving hearts can, and assuaged her grief, and made her pathway down the declivity of age smooth and bright by that filial respect which her motherly character commanded, and by that watchful solicitude which your loving hearts prompted. You had a good mother and she had kind children. She has left you an example of thrift and industry, of usefulness and piety. She has bequeathed to you the rich legacy of a life of devotion to duty and love for Christ and the Church, and the blessed assurance that she has already heard from the Master's lips the welcome "well done good and faithful servant enter thou into the joy of thy Lord. May you all meet her in heaven.

Members of St. James—Within a month God has called two of our oldest members from the church militant to the church triumphant. The second name on our church record, Sister Usilton, and now the fourth name on our roll, Sister Nicholson, is transferred to the roll of our honored and immortal dead. The Lord is saying unto each and all of us, "Let your loins be girded about and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are those servants whom the Lord when he cometh shall find waiting."

GOVERNOR PINGREE, of Michigan, has vetoed the anti-cigarette bill, which makes boys under seventeen years of age liable to imprisonment for smoking cigarettes. The governor says it is a parental, not a State duty, to correct bad habits in children. The Governor fails to appreciate the fact that a seventeen-year old boy who smokes cigarettes now-a-days is way beyond the corrective powers of the parents.
