CHESTERTOWN, MD., - MAY 22, 1897.

A CLASH between Cuba and the tariff is on the Senate boards.

"WELLINGTON has taken a shot at creation," was the comment of Senator Daniel, of Virginia.

THE appointment of lady trustees of the public schools in Kent is endorsed by school patrons generally. It is a step in the right direction.

EX-AMBASSADOR BAYARD, of Delaware, reached his home in Wilmington last Monday. He says the defeat of the arbitration treaty "is a severe blow to the English people." Then it can hardly be a calamity to America.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY sent a message to Congress Monday recommending an appropriation of $50,000 for the relief of destitute American citizens in Cuba and for their transportation from the Island if they desire to leave.

POSTMASTER WARFIELD, of Baltimore, professes to be a Democrat, yet he is insisting upon his re-appointment because he voted for McKinley. In other words Warfield wants four thousand dollars for one campaign's "howl against Gorman" and his one Republican vote.

EIGHTEEN THOUSAND tailors of New York and Brooklyn are on a strike for relief from starvation wages. Many of the strikers are women. These workmen have been ground down until now they cannot make by the hardest sort of work, night and day, enough to keep soul and body together. It is hoped their grievance will be righted.

THE Senate yesterday, by a vote of 41 to 14, passed the Morgan joint resolution recognizing the belligerancy of the Cuban insurgents. Before the decisive vote was taken there was a long and at times exciting debate.

Cuban affairs furnished the House with a day of bitter partisan debate. The resolution appropriating $50,000 for the relief of American citizens was adopted without a dissenting vote, but the democrats endeavored unsuccessfully to force consideration also of the Morgan resolution for recognition of the belligerency of the insurgents.

WE have received a set of resolutions adopted by the anti-race track league of Cecil county condemning the race tracks, which in substance are as follows:

"We appeal to the moral sense of the people of the whole State to aid us in overthrowing this infamous traffic by electing only such men to the General Assembly of Maryland as can be relied upon to enact such laws as will effectually prevent race track gambling in the State of Maryland."

The delegates to the legislature from Cecil will surely see to it that the people of that county are properly represented on this race track question in the next General Assembly.

THE Baltimore American says: What is regarded as a "feeler" found its way through Republican channels Tuesday, to the effect that Col. J. Frank Supplee was to be shelved to the naval office by federal appointment to that place; that Mr. William F. Stone was to be collector of customs; that Mr. S. Davies Warfield was to be retained as postmaster, in the hope of preserving to the Republican party the independent vote, and that Dr. Frank T. Shaw intended to resign immediately, in order to embarass the Republican managers with another 'nut to crack.' Dr. Shaw effectually disposed of the latter by saying that it "was without foundation, and not authorized by him." I will remain here," said he, "until removed by the President, or until my commission expires, and that will not be for several months yet." Col. Supplee said he could not be sidetracked by a federal appointment.

MARRIED.

At Still Pond, Md., May 18th, 1897, by Rev. E. H. Nelson, JAMES M. SUTTON and Miss LENORA WHEELER, both of Kent.

THE Baltimore Sun has found a statesman after its own heart. Boss Wellington is now the Sun's idol. It makes frequent mention in its editorial columns of Wellington's Senatorial greatness, and even lauds his conservatism! Ye Gods and little fishes!—what hypocrisy in journalism! The Sun toadying to Wellington! That paper is fully recognized as a Republican sheet but it was hardly expected to commend the "pie distributor" for conservatism!

MR. THOMAS C. MASLIN, of the Fifth district, was in town on Tuesday and frankly stated his position in the local campaign. He said he had no desire to create factional strife in his party and if a stronger man for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner could be secured he would gladly retire. He is desirous for the success of the ticket and thinks there is no cause for wrangling. If the other candidates will look at the matter in the same way, harmony will be secured.

SENATOR WELLINGTON made his maiden speech in the Senate last Monday, and, if we may judge by the telegraphic reports, it was anything but creditable to himself or his State. The report in the Herald states that "the open assertion that the United States absolutely depend upon European monarchies for the future prosperity of their people met no approving voice in the Senate. Though it was his first speech, not a Senator offered him any congratulation. Not even the Republican Senators, who sat on either side of him, tendered him a word of comfort or compliment."

BALTIMORE grain quotations yesterday: wheat 79½; white corn 34c.; yellow 31c.

NEWSY CHURCH ITEMS.

Harry A. Richardson Tuesday night cancelled a debt of $10,340 against the First Baptist Church of Dover. The congregation are jubilant over the news. The Rev. J. C. Pearce is pastor of the church.

The Chestertown Epworth League held its anniversary celebration last Sunday evening. The church was adorned with flowers in honor of the occasion. Mr. M. W. Thomas, president, made an address on "The Spirituality of the League" and Rev. C. A. Grise on "People, old and young." Misses Mary Burchinal and Mabel Toulson read reports of the Junior and Senior leagues. The exercises were enjoyed by a large congregation.

The Northern Convocation in response to a call, met in North Kent Parish, all the members being present except one, who was detained by sickness. The opening service on Tuesday evening, at Holy Cross Chapel, Millington, was attended by a large congregation, and after evening prayer a sermon was preached by Rev. A. M. Rich, of Port Deposit.

On Wednesday morning in the church at Masseys, after morning prayer a sermon was preached by Rev. S. C. Roberts, followed by a celebration of the Holy Communion, after which a beautiful collation was provided in the rectory, and the congregation urgently pressed to remain and partake of it. On Wednesday evening, at the Chapel in Millington, after evening prayer, the appointed subject, the three resurrections, "the raising of Lazaures, the daughter of Jairus and the son of the widow of Nain" was discussed by Messrs. Edson, Roberts and Kimball, of the Middle Convocation.

On Thursday morning at the church in Masseys, after the morning prayer a sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Edson, followed by another bountiful collation, which was partaken of and thoroughly enjoyed by the congregation. On Thursday evening at the Chapel in Millington, the closing service, after evening prayer, the appointed subject of discussion, was: "Our Church's attitude towards other Christian bodies," by Rev. Messrs. Schouler, Denroche and Duncan, to a congregation which overtaxed the seating capacity of the Chapel. It was a most delightful and successful meeting of the convocation, in which the hospitality and cordiality of the people was displayd in the most abundant manner, and most gratefully received and appreciated.

The 29th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Easton, comprising the nine Eastern Shore counties, will be held in Christ Church, Cambridge, on Tuesday, June 1st, 1897. Each parish is entitled to one clerical and one lay delegate. Mr. W. S. Walker has been elected the lay delegate from Chester Parish and Jas. A. Pearce, Esq., is entitled to a seat and vote, ex-officio as chancellor of the diocese. Two lady delegates will represent the Woman's Auxiliary.

Rev. J. W. Prettyman, of Piney Neck, preached in the M. E. church, Chestertown, Sunday morning a most excellent discourse.

Preparations for Children's Day services are going on in many of the churches.

Rev. J. M. Gill is arranging for a special program on Sunday, May 30th. It will be known as "Model Church Day." In the morning the theme of the sermon will be "The Model Church" and at night short addresses will be delivered on the Model Sunday School, Model Endeavor Society, Model Board of Stewards, Model Class Meeting, etc.

The trustees of Centreville M. E. church have decided to hold camp at Wye this year, notwithstanding the discouraging resolution passed by the recent session of conference.

Officers Elected.—The Chester Loan Association elected officers on Monday night. About 400 shares were voted, and the present incumbents were unanimously re-elected, as follows: President, Willard Melvin; vice-president, Clinton W. Wroth; secretary, Harry Rickey; treasurer, M. Wilbur Thomas; directors, James W. Chapman, James W. Lambert, Wm. B. Usilton, Charles T. Westcott, Thomas W. Eliason; solicitor, Marion deK. Smith. The new series starts out with about 250 shares, par value $50,000, which is the largest number taken at the beginning of any new series since the organization.

Another Schofield. — A colored man answering the description of Schofield, wanted by the authorities of Kent county on the charge of criminal assault on Mrs. Godwin near Fairlee, was arrested near Laurel, Prince George's county, on Thursday, by Henry House, Allen Scaggs and Benjamin Merson. "The American says he was captured in an empty house in the act of changing his clothes. His revolver was resting on the mantel. When Mr. House drew a shotgun on him and told him to hold up his hands he said he was guilty, but did not say what of. He was seen in town the morning before, and his actions aroused suspicion. He purchased something to eat and also a cap, throwing away his hat." The authorities here have not been notified of the arrest. It is thought this Schofield had been stealing clothes and it was in reference to the theft that he was speaking.
