OUR LOW PRICES

Set the People Talking.

WHY? We are going out of business. Never were we so busy. Just come to our store and see what a change there has been made since we first announced our intention to discontinue. We still have a large assortment to select from and everybody can get suited. The people know a good thing when they see it, and when we offer to a sensible, intelligent community

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing,

intelligence bids them take advantage of the opportunity. Its no use for the silver-tongued to blow and brag, the people have passed their opinion and his success is only temporary. Our patrons hold fast to us because they know that we serve them better and cheaper than others and since our Closing Out Sale started, our store is like a Merry-go-round with a prize in it for every passenger. CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. John Stevenson gave her little daughter, Pearl, a birthday party last Saturday afternoon. Games suitable to the little ones were indulged in until about 3 o'clock when they were invited out to refreshments, consisting of the delicacies of the season. The little folks went home early well pleased with the pleasant afternoon spent with their little school mates.

Mrs. Thomas Jones entertained a few of her friends Monday evening. The event being in honor of Master Urie's birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing croquet until twilight when the company was invited in to supper. All doing ample justice in filling the inner man and wishing Master Urie many happy days in the future.

Mr. Peter Clare has been to Trenton, N. J., this week, having his arm treated at the hospital there. He returned from the Hopkins Hospital last week but little improved.

Mr. C. Goldie Carey returned Saturday after a pleasant visit to Newark.

Misses Susie Sutton and Lillie Redmile, of Kennedyville, are visiting Miss May Jones.

Misses Bertie Murphy, of Calvert Co., and Susie Edson, of Locust Grove, are guests of the Misses Penningtons.

The McKinley bug seems to be doing a great deal of damage to the wheat, many farmers report the bugs in their wheat.

The great holidays are over and the colored race are the only ones who got any pleasure out of them. On Monday they had picnics at several different places and on Tuesday they had a big one at Crumpton and no fighting.

Misses Gussie Cannan and Annie Copper, of Chestertown, and Mr. Whittier Copper, of Sassafras, spent Monday at Mr. Thomas Jones'.

Miss Mary Roe and brother, Clarence, spent Sunday in Kenton, Del.

SOUTH SIDE.

B. & O. Summer Book.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has just issued a very handsome book for summer travel describing the mountain resorts, springs and baths located on and adjacent to its lines; also the various watering places on the Atlantic Coast. The routes for reaching them are set forth in a comprehensive and clear manner. The book is printed on fine paper, beautifully illustrated, and will prove a valuable assistance to parties contemplating a summer tour. Copies can be had by applying to various B. & O. Agents or by sending 10 cents in stamps to cover postage to J. M. Schryver, General Passenger Agent, Baltimore, Md.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

The Children's Day Services at Salem were duly observed. In the morning Dr. Merritt preached an able sermon—"Burning Brush" being his theme, and in the evening the Sabbath school rendered a most excellent program. The singing was a marked feature of the occasion and enchanted all. Two little boys, Masters Edgar and Alfred Hague, sons of Mr. P. W. Hague, age respectively 8 and 6 years, in a beautifully rendered duet captivated the audience. Those having recitations acquitted themselves superbly.

The Heptasoph's entertainment on last Wednesday evening was a most pleasant occasion and many attended.

June 7th, so many riding by with winter overcoats on, and they are not too warm either.

Tolchester is open now and until the closing thereof, all will be life there and in Fairlee too. The village is so located that two-thirds of the country people pass through going to this favorite resort making it a business centre.

Many bicycles are seen now. On last Saturday we noticed a tandem with two gentlemen thereon. One of them being minus one limb, carrying his crutch before him.

The young people's festival this (Saturday) evening on Salem Church green bids fair to be a very pleasant event. All who will, may come, being cordially invited to attend and help in a commendable effort for good.

Some of our little ones seem to have gotten right down hungry last week. One of the little boys up-town, three years old, whom we will call Walter, to designate him, ate one or two raw eggs happening to find them, and one of the down-town little girls, same age, tried a moth ball thinking it candy. Needless to say she didn't quite finish it.

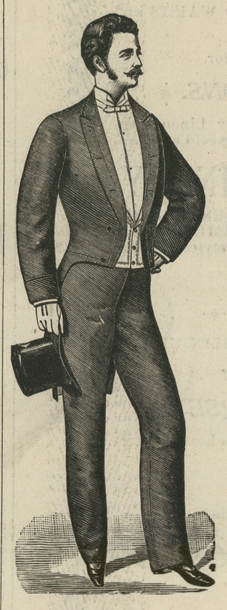

Prof. Joseph Peterson was taken right sick on last Wednesday afternoon and wasn't able to attend the banquet.

Messrs. Arthur and Warren Hurlock, James Crouch and David B. Ford rendered one or two quartetts at the Heptasoph's entertainment very creditably, thus entertaining all present, perhaps one-hundred and fifty. WEST END.

Seventy Cents for Wheat. — Mr. Wm. M. Conn, representing Messrs. Wm. Hopps & Co., Baltimore, dropped suddenly into Centreville Tuesday morning June first, and by 2 P. M., purchased ten thousand bushels of wheat for July delivery at seventy cents per bushel. Many farmers refused to sell hoping to realize seventy-five cents net.—Record.
