LARGE ASSEMBLAGE

—AT THE—

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Colored Voters Given Equal Representation—Capt. Burchinal Favors Immediate Action, But it is Defeated—List of Delegates, Etc.

Chestertown was invaded by Republicans from all sections of the county on Tuesday, it being the day for the election of delegates to the Judicial and State conventions, and also, to nominate a local ticket. It was generally known before the primaries that Senator Westcott and others were favorable to postponing the naming of local candidates, but on Sunday and Monday the news spread that Capt. Burchinal was in favor of naming the ticket at once. This was the bone of contention.

When the delegates gathered in town Tuesday morning there were some "old-time" scenes. Men were button-holing each other and arguing pro and con. Mr. Franklin H. Harper and Mr. Bartus Trew figured conspicuously among the delegates and the result of their work is shown in convention.

The colored delegates were kept well in hand with a few exceptions by Zack Dunn, of Chestertown, Wm. Riley, of Worton, and Henry Ward Beecher, of Fairlee. Fred. Nichols, Jr., also was evident, but Zack was the "big man."

At twelve o'clock Senator Westcott appeared at his office door and walked to Stam's Hall. This was a signal for cessation of hostilities and the crowd followed to the meeting place. It was in the "upper" room that they met, where the breezes might sweep over the heads of the assemblage and enable all to keep "cool heads," or in the immortal words of Mr. James Brice, "Keep sweet."

Senator Charles T. Westcott was made chairman and Mr. Joseph W. Harper secretary. In accepting the honor Mr. W. made a stirring speech, but not a word was uttered commendatory of Senator Wellington! Perhaps he overlooked the noted statesman (?).

At the conclusion of Mr. Westcott's remarks a committee was appointed to name the delegates to the judicial convention. The following were named: Wilbur Eliason, Joseph W. Harper, Wm. D. Burchinal, Willard Scotten, Harrison Jenkins and Louis Henry.

The selection of delegates to the State Convention was next taken up and the following were named: Sam'l Mallalieu, J. D. Urie, Samuel Comly, Charles T. Westcott, James H. Baker and Fred Nichols, Jr.

In naming the delegates to the Judicial Convention a motion was made tendering Mr. Westcott the privilege of naming the men. This honor Mr. Westcott declined to accept, stating that he was not a candidate for judge, and therefore the delegation should be unpledged and uninstructed. Mr. Westcott, in his declination, informed the convention that the "slate" had been made without reference to Kent. When Mr. Westcott took his seat a prominent member said to him: "I am truly sorry. That means defeat for our ticket in Kent and a majority of at least 250 for Mr. Pearce!"

After the selection of the delegates, the naming of the State Central Committee was taken up, and the old committee, Messrs. C. T. Westcott, F. H. Harper and Louis Henry, were unanimously re-elected.

Convention Deferred.

The most interesting event of the day was the discussion of the question whether or not to nominate a local ticket at once. Capt. W. D. Burchinal, who expected the clerkship nomination, exhorted the convention to nominate at once or select new delegates for a future convention. From best information it is believed that the Captain could have secured this nomination if his motion had prevailed, but it did not, as our readers will soon learn.

Mr. Joseph W. Harper, son of F. H. Harper, Esq., another aspirant for the clerkship, spoke in favor of postponing the nomination and for the retention of the same delegates.

James H. Baker, Esq., who is supposed to represent his friend Mr. Bartus Trew, another aspirant for the clerkship, spoke in favor of postponing. Thus the lines were drawn with Burchinal on one side and Harper and Trew on the other.

Mr. Joseph C. Kendall with his solid delegation of ten votes came to Capt. Burchinal's relief. Zack Dunn spoke in favor of nominating while Fred. Nichols, Jr., opposed it saying that he was opposed to nominating at once because the Democrats wanted it. "I don't want any office but want to see our ticket elected." Harrison Jenkins replied: "Fred may not want any office but some of our people do, because it is fashionable."

More Ice Cream Victims!

It is not human beings in this case, however, but ducks! Mrs. Annie Loud had 180 fine little ducks and cared for them as carefully as she could. She lost two a few weeks ago from eating rose bugs! The bugs seemed to lodge in the throat and choke the ducks. Last Sunday, after the family were through eating ice cream, the colored girl fed some of the brine in meal to the ducks and also set a pan full of the briney water for them to drink. At supper time the ducks acted as if they had been struck along side of the head. They would stagger and fall about and act in a dazed condition. The following morning two or three dozen good-sized ducks were found dead! The servant girl said she had no idea that the stuff would hurt the ducks.

SNAP SHOTS.

SHERIFF CASEY has received information that a man answering the description of Sam Schofield has been seen in Somerset and in Virginia. He at once sent printed bill with instructions.

MR. ROBERT J. KEMBLE received a severe fall Tuesday at his home on High street. He started down stairs when he was attacked with vertigo, causing him to fall down the whole flight of stairs. The noise attracted attention and he was carried to his bed and Dr. Dodd summoned. He has been quite sick since.

*

THE wheat market is indeed gratifying to our farmers. Owing to the short crops elsewhere and the large amount of wheat bought for July delivery the price has been steadily moving upward. Messrs. Smith and Hynson sold their Queen Anne's crop yesterday for 72 cts.

Mr. H. M. Brown was paying 73½ cts. for wheat yesterday. Of the 3,000 bushels of wheat thus far purchased, with but one exception, it has graded No. 2 red and weighed from 60½ to 61½ pounds. It is said that large quantities of wheat are going to the Argentine Republic for seed wheat.

MR. A. FRIEDMAN, who has so very successfully conducted the clothing business in Chestertown for the past sixteen or seventeen years, having decided to move to Philadelphia, has determined to turn the entire business over to Mr. J. D. Lucas, who has been in his employ for six years, and who will assume full management on or about Sept. 1st, '97. Mr. Lucas is a very energetic and deserving young man and has many friends in both Kent and Queen Anne's counties, and should, with Mr. Friedman's assistance, command a large trade. We wish him success.

*

THE roller mill at Sassafras, run by Mr. Louis Dreka, was supplied with a large gasoline engine last week. Mr. Wm. Sutton, of Chestertown, assisted the Messrs. Tepper, of New York, in placing the engine. The only other one in the county is in Price & Topping's mill, near St. Paul's Church.

*

MR. J. FORD CAULK met with quite a painful though not serious accident last Wednesday. He had a very sharp knife opened in his hand, and attempting to jump upon a box he slipped and the knife-blade entering his leg just above the knee, inflicted a very painful wound. Dr. Jeter dressed the injury.

COUNTY UNION

—OF—

CHRISTIAN WORKERS.

The Meeting in Chestertown on Thursday Well Attended — Officers Elected — Addresses by Able Speakers, Etc.

THE Kent County Christian Endeavor Union held its fifth annual convention at Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, on Tuesday last. Earnest christian workers were present from all parts of Kent, and every heart and voice joined in singing "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." All through the day the sentiment of this grand old hymn was echoed and re-echoed in the spiritual and social intercourse of the Endeavorers.

A beautiful banner with the name of the society upon it designated the seats of each society. Those representing each society were:

BETTERTON—Mrs. Wilmer, Mrs. Laura Crew, Mrs. Bowman, Sadie Brice, Lizzie Brice, Elsie Crew, Stella Crew, Will Turner, Willie Wheeler, Clara Crew, Lottie Roeder, Harper Brice, Lottse Copper, Bayard Crew, Minnie Jester and Mrs. Young.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Rev. C. K. McCaslin, Judge Samuel Burgess, Misses Ida Wood, Julia Burgess, Esther Scoone, Ellwood Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Satterfield.

KENNEDYVILLE—Rev. Jesse Shreeve, Miss Nettie Whiteley, W. E. Sanders.

ZION—J. M. White, Mrs. W. S. Rambo.

CHESTERTOWN was largely represented by members from the Junior, Senior and Young People's Societies.

Morning Session.

Miss Mary Elliott, of the Chestertown society, had charge of the opening song service. A hearty and whole-souled welcome was given to the Union by Mr. Ralph Barnett, of Chestertown Society, and Dr. J. L. Mills, of Old St. James, responded in his earnest and characteristic manner. The President of the Union, Mr. P. T. McFeely, gave an interesting and able address upon the "Importance of such a Gathering," and made several important and practical suggestions, one of which was that the President of the County Union should visit each society twice during the year. This suggestion was adopted by the convention at the afternoon session.

The reports of the different societies was an interesting part of the program. They were as follows:

St. James—63 members, good attendance, a good sum collected and used for good purposes; a live, active society.

Kennedyville — 33 members, aggressive; $291.61 collected for church improvements.

Betterton — 27 members, good seed sown and several enjoyable sociables held; members active.

Wesley Chapel — 30 members, very active and progressive. Collections of $50, used for benevolent purposes.

Chestertown — Young People's — 35 members; "been casting bread upon the water." The Society has a Missionary Club of 20 members. Prayer meetings well attended.

Chestertown — Junior — 50 members, good attendance; $6 spent for flowers for sick; fine desk presented to pastor; helped to furnish new parsonage.

The convention sermon was delivered by Rev. W. W. White, of Sassafras. His text was from the 32nd chapter, 31st verse of Deuteronomy—"For their rock is not as our rock." Mr. White gave a logical, instructive and eloquent discourse, and his audience was interested and attentive from beginning to end.

Afternoon Session.

The session was opened with song service led by Mrs. Wilmer, of the Betterton Society.

"What shall be the effect of Christian Endeavor work on the future" was the subject of a masterly and eloquent address by Dr. J. L. Mills, of St. James. The Doctor was at his best and his forcible and earnest words sank deep into the hearts of his attentive hearers.

The Question Box, conducted by Rev. C. K. McCaslin, was an interesting and instructive feature of the program.

"How to interest indifferent members" was the subject of the open parliament conducted by Rev. J. M. Gill. Able papers were read by Mrs. E. V. Gresham, Wesley Chapel; Miss Bessie Miller, Chestertown, and Mr. Walter Gale, of St. James.

The St. James Society, through Dr. J. L. Mills, gave an invitation to the Union to meet there next year, which was accepted.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, P. T. McFeely; vice presidents, Harry Taylor, Miss Nettie Whiteley, Miss Marion Lusby, Mrs. Wilmer, Miss Ella Melvin, Miss Ida Ford; treasurer, Miss Sadie Morris; sec., Miss Bessie Miller; cor. sec., W. E. Sanders; lookout committee, Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. W. S. Rambo, Miss Sadie Brice, Mrs. Annie Usilton, Miss Mollie Parks, Mrs. Essie Barwick.

The afternoon program closed with a grand Junior Rally by the Junior Society under the direction of Mrs. Barnett and Miss Gussie Cannan. This feature of the day was an extremely enjoyable one and was thoroughly appreciated by the large audience. The Vice-President of the Juniors, Miss Blanche Elliott, had charge of this part of the program and announced the following which were executed to perfection:

Night Session.

Miss Sadie Morris led the early song service which was followed by an open parliament conducted by Rev. Jessie Shreeve. The subject was "The Best Methods on Committee Work," discussed by Mr. Shreeve, Mr. Sanders, Miss Miller and Mr. Walter Gale.

Rev. C. K. McCaslin was asked "What shall be done with active members who attend regularly and yet do not take any part in the service, other than singing?" This was discussed in a pleasant manner by Mrs. E. V. Gresham, Mrs. Wilmer, Dr. Mills, Mr. Samuel Vannort and Judge Burgess.

At 8.30 P. M. Rev. F. T. Little, of Baltimore, made a stirring address on "Consecration," which did credit to the able divine. He never fails to present the truth in a most striking manner and on this occasion did his best. An impressive consecration service closed the services of the day.

Mrs. B. F. Fleming was chairman of the Provision Committee and clinched her reputation as a manager on such occasions.

Dinner and supper were served on the church lawn and the ladies set before their guests a feast of good things in abundance.

Rev. C. K. McCaslin on behalf of the visiting delegations thanked the Chestertown society for their hearty welcome and warm reception.

Solos were sung at night by Mrs. Hennick, of Baltimore, and Miss Mollie Parks, of Chestertown; Miss Clara Usilton presided at the pipe organ during the day.

Messrs. Ralph Barnett and Wm. Sherwood acted as a lookout committee.

Baseball.—The Chestertown club, accompanied by a number of friends, left town yesterday morning on the tug "Rescue" for Cambridge where they will play for the State championship. The Cambridge team were defeated for the first time last week 13 to 3 by the Lafayettes, of Baltimore. Chestertown defeated the Lafayettes by score of 10 to 1. We predict a victory for our boys. The team will play thus: Stevens and Bader, battery; Deakyne, Dill, "Doggie" Trenchard and Usilton, infield; Wm. Trenchard, Boston and G. Brice, outfield. Burris does not expect to pitch for Cambridge.

The Rock Hall team went to Church Hill Wednesday and were defeated.

The scrub-team from Chestertown defeated Centreville at Queenstown by score of 8 to 6. Pippin and Vickers were the home team's battery.

Midsummer Dance.—A delightful dance was given in Stam's Hall by the young men of Chestertown on Wednesday evening, it being enjoyed to the fullest extent. Music was furnished by Charles Bushaw and violinist of Baltimore. Sandwiches and coffee were served during the evening. The guests were from various cities and towns, among the number we noticed the Misses Earle, Miss Wilson, Misses Metcvitz, Miss Deaver, Miss Etheline Crisfield, Miss Potter, Miss Valliant, Miss Lillie Ware, Miss Walnut, Miss Solomon, Miss Jessop, Miss Lottie Wickes, Miss Hayes, Misses Sophie Beck, Nannie Brice, Minnie Massey, Lucile Rasin, Grace Whaland; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Perkins, Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, Mrs. Wm. McKenney, Jr., Miss Russell; Dr. Jas. Bordley, Messrs. T. J. Keating, Jr., John E. Wilson, John B. Brown, Jr., Page Strong, Chas. Jessop, Chas. Massey, Thomas & Eben F. Perkins, Jr., Jos. Local Notes.

Team Stolen.—Mr. Frank H. Plummer's carriage, horse and set of harness were stolen from his farm on Worton creek last Saturday evening. Search was instituted and about noon Sunday a former colored employe of Mr. P. found the team standing along the road side. It is supposed that the darkey used the horse and then turned him loose on the public road not caring what happened to him.

On last Friday morning at 8 o'clock the "death messenger" entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kendall, Fairlee, and called from their embrace little Julia Marie, one of the two jewels the pride and joy of the household, aged 2 months. She was sick only a few hours when death ensued. At this writing her little sister, Clara Pickens, same age, is critically ill, having been taken several days before Julia. Dr. Dodd her faithful physician is doing everything in his power to restore the little one, but chances seem to be against her recovery.

A House Party.—'Belmont,' the pretty home of Mrs. Herman Massey, near Masseys, was the scene of a delightful "house party" last week. Among the party were some of Maryland's most beautiful danghters and when the company were gathered about the table it made a most picturesque scene. Among the guests were Misses Nellie Gale, Mamie McMaster, Lenette Ford, Camilla Diggs, Sara E. Beck, Messrs. Herbert N. Fell, William Bye, E. Thos. Massey, Arthur and Stephen Ford. Dancing, driving and bicycling were the chief amusements and these were enjoyed to the fullest extent. Miss Lenette Ford entertained the party Saturday evening at her home near Ford's Landing, Cecil county. Mrs. Massey gave a tea Wednesday evening.

Big Crops.—J. F. M. Woodall, Esq., of Georgetown, was in Chestertown Thursday and reported the wheat on the Woodall lands to be turning out very well—from 30 to 35 bushels to the acre. The wheat threshed in the first district thus far will average 30 bushels to the acre.

Mr. Thos. Trew's yield of 41 bushels has not yet been beaten in the State!

Mr. Lonnie Stevens, on Mr. Hynson's Swan Point farm, had a big yield of wheat. He got 4500 bushels on less than 150 acres.

Mr. J. C. Loud, on "Riverside," had an average yield of 30 bushels to the acre, and on one-half the field it was over 40 bushels to the acre.

The Baltimore Sun reports Gorman's yield of wheat on his "Fairview" farm near Laurel at 3,000 bushels on 100 acres. This proves the Maryland Senator to be a successful farmer as well as statesman. The Senator takes great interest and pride in his farm operations.

Bicycling. — Mr. Sam. Greenwood made an attempt at lowering the road record between Chestertown and Centreville, a distance of sixteen miles, last Monday. It was necessary to get certain papers from the court officials at Centreville for Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and return here in time for the non-jury term. Not-withstanding the strong wind and extremely hot weather he made the run in 2 hours and 25 minutes—1 hour and 10 minutes from Centreville to Chester bridge. He was 3 hours and 15 minutes making the whole trip. But Sam will have to try it again as Mr. David B. Ford on one occasion left W. W. Hubbard's office at 3.20 P. M., delivered papers in Centreville and arrived in Chestertown at 6 o'clock, covering the distance of 32 miles and attending to business in 2 hours and 40 minutes, his actual riding time being little over 2 hours! On another occasion Messrs Ford and Shuster made the run one way in one hour and five minutes under favorable circumstances.

THE National and State 24-hour cycling record for road cycling was broken Sunday by Elmer C. Davis, of Baltimore, who covered 316 miles in that time.

Pardon Asked. — Application has been filed with the Governor for the pardon of David West, who was convicted at the April term, 1897, of the Circuit Court for Kent county for dredging on forbidden grounds and having unculled oysters on board and sentenced to be confined in Maryland House of Correction for three months. The Governor will take up the said case for final decision on or after Saturday, the 17th day of July until which time protests against such pardon will be heard, and the papers filed open to inspection, at the discretion of the Governor. David is a well-known colored politician and remarked when taken to Baltimore that his friends would soon take him out.
