Winding Up

The Remainder of my Spring and Summer Line of Men's and Boys' Clothing!

I have appreciated your liberal patronage with me this season, and it is a great pleasure to know that those who availed themselves of the opportunity offered them, are money in pocket. Now, I am with you for about another month, during which time I shall offer far greater inducements in further appreciation of the patronage extended me in the past sixteen or seventeen years. Cost no consideration. My one object is to dispose of the remaining stock of goods.

First comes the broken lots of Men's and Youth's Suits, $3.25, $4.37 and $5.00. Some of these are worth double the price, but they must go. Next, a line better assorted, and consist of Fancy Plaid Worsteds, Cassimeres, Plain Cheviots, &c., at $4.75, $5.87 and $7.62. Among these are found the finest goods. All Children's Clothing will be sold at half price. A big line of Men's Trowsers, excellent values, some all wool ones among them, to go at 98c. More at $1.50, $1.87 and $2.00, worth twice what I ask for them.

All those Zinc Trunks with Tray, Worth $3, are to go at $2.

Paper Cover'd Trunks Strongly Made, with Tray, only $1.20.

Telescopes, all sizes to 24 inches, only 75c.

The remainder of those 50c. Undershirts and Draws that have been selling at 39c. will be run off at 33c. In fact Everything that is left will be sold at a Great Sacrifice.

Yours for Greater Bargains,

A. Friedman & Co.,

The Reliable Clothiers.

NOTICE—All persons indebted to us will kindly call and settle their accounts, either by cash or note, on or before August 15th, 1897.

Snap Shots Around Morgnec.

Our school is closed and the children are enjoying their vacation. Oh, happy days to the children! Our Sunday-school is in quite a flourishing condition and a noticeable increase in attendance to what there was at this time last year, thanks to our superintendent, Mr. Minner. Bro. White has a very good attendance at the preaching services and able support in the class-meetings. Glad we are to have such an energetic young minister in our midst.

The continued downfall of rain has stopped threshing for a while. But what is one's loss is another's gain, so while it is too wet to thresh our farmers are plowing fallow. Quite a good many have stacked their wheat. Every one seems to be well pleased with the prospect for a good crop. Those who have threshed report fair yields.

Corn is growing fast, but is a little behind time, owing to the late spring.

A good many around here visited Tolchester, "the queen of Maryland's summer resorts," last Thursday, and every one reported a good time.

Miss Annie Beckley, a charming young lady from Wilmington, has been visiting Miss Hattie Lecates.

Mrs. Hattie Crouch, of Wilmington, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. B. A. Robinson.

Mr. J. Frank Harris and friend, Mr. Harwood, of Baltimore, have been visiting at "River View," the home of Mr. John B. Harris.

Master Ralph Crouch, of Wilmington, is visiting his cousin, Mr. F.C. Robinson.

Mrs. Mollie Carsons and daughter, Maude, is visiting her brother, Mr. Jas. Lecates.

Miss Clara H. Bryan is summering at the Hotel de la Watts and other places of interest.

Owing to the rain storm last Sunday, we were disappointed in not hearing Dr. Grice, but he will be with us next Sunday, 25th instant.

The sudden change and excessive heat of two weeks ago caused a good deal of sickness around here, but we are glad to report every case improving and in most cases entire recovery. HILDA.

J. H. SIMPERS,
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Miss Ida Weeks, of Baltimore, has resigned her position as teacher at Mill Branch, having taught there three years in succession. The vacancy will be filled by Miss Ethel Sollaway a popular young lady of our village. Miss Sollaway has been teaching for several years in the lower district and is considered one of the best in the county, as all home made teachers should be.

Mr. Willard Dill our well-known merchant is having his store and house thoroughly repaired and painted which make quite an improvement to the town.

Mr. Enoch King is making an improvement around his place by repairing and painting.

Misses May and Lizzie Jones are visiting friends around Kennedyville.

Mrs. Wooters and Robert Lusby spent Sunday with Mrs. W.'s daughter, Mrs. Johnson, near Masseys.

Misses Dora Loller, of Crumpton, Susie Sutton, of Kennedyville, and Gertie Coleman, of McGinnis, are visiting Mrs. Thomas Jones.

Mr. Lusby Loller, of near Crumpton, is spending a pleasant two weeks at his uncle's, Mr. Wm. Lusby's.

The new mail route went into effect the first of July and Mr. Elmer Jarman is the contractor instead of Johnson as mentioned in one of our recent letters.

Master Bradford Johnson and sister, Fannie, of Sassafras, are visiting their grand-mother, Mrs. Wootters.

We have had a very refreshing four days rain which we badly needed, but the farmers are very uneasy over threshing wheat.

Quite a crowd of our folks went on the excursion to Tolchester last Thursday. SOUTH SIDE.

STILL POND NEWS.

Mr. Webster, of Baltimore, has been spending a week at Mr. H. L. Crew's.

Miss Theressa Schofield is visiting in New Jersey.

Mr. Frank Rasin, Baltimore, visited his father this week. Frank looks well and is very fortunate in securing a good position.

A party of our young folks consisting of Misses Myra Crewe, Daisy Moffett, Arthur Harris, Edgar Pennington and Harris Crewe enjoyed the dance at Tolchester on Friday evening.

Mrs. Hyland, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Howard.

Miss Daisy Moffett has returned home after a three weeks visit to Miss Myra Crewe.

A party of young men from Chestertown were badly treated near here this week. We mention this fact with shame for it was an act of no one but an ill-bred boy and hope it will not occur again.

Melitota Items.

Mrs. John Corey is attending Washington Grove camp.

Miss Ida Beck has returned home after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives near town.

The Misses Nickerson, of Morgnec, visited Miss Meud Hasson last week.

Mrs. Laura Ramdo is visiting friends of this neighborhood.

Mrs. Rhoeder, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jas. Bennet.

The heavy rain of Monday last played havoc with some of our neighbors' poultry, causing them to turn their front porches into poultry houses.

Addicks Buys Klondike Land. — J. Edw. Addicks has organized a syndicate of persons in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Buffalo to develop the new Alaska gold fields. Mr. Addicks' company recently bought for $300,000 twenty miles placer diggings on the banks of the River Quesnelle, in British Columbia, and they will explore all the river sheds between Cariboo and Klondike. Charles H. Kittenger, Monday, received a telegram from his brother, George B. Kittenger, now of Seattle, Wash., but formerly of Wilmington, stating that more gold is ready for shipment from Alaska than has been announced, and that Mr. Kittenger and party, comprising ex-Governor McGraw, of Washington, and General Carr, will leave for the gold fields to-morrow. The telegram says that the gold fields are the richest ever discovered, and that the miners are trying to hold back much of the information.

Warning to Thieves. — For some time past a Fairfield county farmer has been troubled by thieves, who raided his watermelon patch. In order to get even with the thieves the farmer plugged several of the choicest melons in the field and injected strychnine into the melons. Two colored boys raided the patch late one evening, ate the melons, and the next morning the lads were found dead along the roadside.

READ Moody & Lusby's card of thanks in this issue by adopting the square dealing principle and strictly adhering to same. This establishment has succeeded in gaining for themselves a prominent place in the category of honest trading business houses where one may deal with implicit confidence and coupled with an active business training of 23 years places them second to none in country or city. Read what they have to say in this issue, and if in need of anything in their line you will find it at this house just as represented.
