LIGHTNING BOLTS

Strike Down Mr. T. Benjamin Durding at Rock Hall — A House Burned near Rolph's.

Mr. T. Benj. Durding, a prominent druggist, of Rock Hall, was knocked speechless to the ground Wednesday afternoon while standing in front of his store. He was leaning against an iron pillow which supported his porch watching the movement of the clouds. He had heard the thunder rumbling but the sun was shining. It seems that the first flash struck the iron post and felled Mr. Durding.

Mrs. Nora Wilkins, Louis McCoskey and John Satterfield were standing within twenty feet of Mr. Durding when he fell and state that they sensibly felt the shock. Mr. Satterfield ran to Mr. D.'s assistance and carried him into his home where Dr. Selby soon treated him. Mr. D., although conscious, could not utter a word. Thursday morning he was able to be out. He was feeling all right yesterday excepting a buzzing in the head. His friends are glad to hear of his safe recovery.

Mrs. Charles S. Smith was slightly stunned by a bolt of lightning Wednesday evening but has almost recovered at this writing.

A tenant house on the Beck farm owned by Mr. John Evans, was completely destroyed Wednesday by fire resulting from lightning. The colored family with exception of a girl escaped without harm. The contents of the house were also destroyed. The colored girl was shocked and has suffered somewhat since.

During the storm Wednesday evening a number of persons were sheltered under the awning adjoining the entrance to McWhorter's livery yard, when a bolt of lightning struck the telephone pole near by and knocked off about a foot of the top and three balls of fire were seen rolling down and into the street. The parties mentioned were not hurt but considerably dazed and one of them grabbed hold of the nearest one to him inquiring excitedly, "What's the matter!"

Numbers of burners on the electric light poles were destroyed and at the central station the attendants were somewhat alarmed by the repeated explosions from the wires.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. James H. Davis, a former resident of Rock Hall, died on Saturday afternoon in New York, aged 38. He went to New York four years ago and was employed by the Columbia Phonograph Company as electrician. He was taken sick about a week previous and taken to a hospital where he was operated upon for appendicitus but the disease being so far developed he never recovered and died on Saturday. Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche was with him when he died. He leaves a widow who was Miss Mollie Daly, of Balto. Two sisters—Mrs. Charles J. Reiche, Mrs. Wm. J. Hudson—and three brothers—Deputy Sheriff Jackson Davis, Geo. Davis and Wm. Davis, survive him. The funeral services were held in Baltimore on Tuesday and the interment at Holy Cross Cemetery, Balto.

Mrs. Mary E. Jones, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Grape, in Baltimore, Tuesday morning, aged 85 years. The deceased was the mother, of Messrs. E. B. and D. P. Jones, of this town, and Mrs. Richard Groves, of Lankford; another son lives in Seattle. The remains were brought over on Thursday to Quaker Neck and the funeral took place on Friday at 10. A. M. from Walter S. Trew's home. The interment took place in the old family burial grounds on the Comegys farm. The bearers were J. H. Baker, Bartus Trew, T. B. Trew, Phil. Trew, Richard Groves. Rev. A. H. Covey, of Bond, officiated. J. N. Dodd, undertaker.

John M. Ford, aged 71 years, for 27 years proprietor of the Bayard House, one of Dover's largest hostelries, died Wednesday morning at the hotel, after an illness of several months. For several years Mr. Ford has been failing, and recently had two operations performed on him. He went to Dover 27 years ago from Massey's, Md., where he conducted a hotel. Under his management the Bayard House took a new lease of life, and has been run successfully ever since. He leaves a widow, two sons and one daughter. The hotel will be conducted in the future by his son, Harry E. Ford.

LOCAL BUYERS were paying 69 cents for good wheat yesterday.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

Harmonious Meeting of the County Executive Committee—The Plan and Date for Primaries.

The Democratic Executive Committee for Kent county met in the Court House in Chestertown last Tuesday pursuant to call. Representative Democrats from every district in the county were present and a commendable spirit was manifest looking to party harmony and success.

William F. Russell, secretary of the county committee, called the meeting to order, the honored chairman, Wm. S. Walker, Esq., having died since the last meeting of the committee.

Upon motion of A. S. Crawford, seconded by A. C. Wilson, William F. Russell was made chairman of the committee by a unanimous vote. Mr. Russell accepted the honor conferred in a few remarks expressing his high appreciation of the honor conferred and his acceptance of the trust reposed in him, which he recognized as entailing great responsibility and arduous labor.

Upon motion of Joseph R. Usilton, seconded, by B. H. Cobourn, Abraham S. Crawford was elected secretary, and the meeting was then declared ready for business.

On motion of Josiah Massey the following committee—one from each district—was selected to suggest a plan for county primaries, and time for holding same: First district, W. H. Ford; second, Tilghman Shafer; third, John H. O. Stokes; fourth, C. C. Hopper; fifth, A. C. Wilson; sixth, Wm. T. Nicholson; seventh, C. M. Brown.

The committee retired and after due deliberation, Mr. C. C. Hopper, as secretary, reported the following as in their judgement combined the best time and a proper plan for holding the Democratic county primaries:

Pursuant to the action of the County Executive Committee, the Democratic voters will meet in their respective election districts and precincts on Saturday August 17, 1901, between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of appointing ten delegates from each district to meet in Chestertown on Tuesday the 20th day of August, 1901, at 11 a. m. to nominate candidates for House of Delegates, one candidate for sheriff, one candidate for county treasurer, two candidates for county Commissioners and one candidate for county surveyor. If there is any contest for the election of delegates and a desire is expressed for a vote, the judges named in each district shall appoint two clerks and shall open and close the polls at the hours herein prescribed and when the polls are opened, shall receive the votes of all Democrats offering to vote, whose names shall appear upon the registration books and who shall vote in the districts where they are registered and shall also receive the votes of all young Democrats, who on account of their age are not now registered but who will be entitled to registration and to vote at the ensuing November election. And, upon the closing of the polls at the hour herein directed, the said judges shall proceed to count the votes cast, and shall certify to the persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates. Whereupon it shall be the duty of said delegates to proceed to Chestertown on said Tuesday in August, and cast the vote of the district in convention and nominate the county ticket.

Should no desire be expressed for a ballot, then the district meetings may select delegates by a viva voce vote, or by committee nominations. If a ballot is desired then those present shall select judges and clerks.

In districts where there are two precincts it is advised that each precinct be accorded five delegates.

WM. F. RUSSELL, Chairman.
ABRAHAM S. CRAWFORD, Secretary.

To Wed At 73?

The Baltimore papers of Wednesday have the following:

"A marriage license was granted on Tuesday at Towson to Thomas J. Vickers, aged 73 years, and Mrs. Emma J. Davis, aged 57 years. The residence of both parties was given as Kent county. Mr. Vickers is a prominent farmer, and owns two farms in Broad Neck, seventh district, Kent county. He has been married twice, and has four or five children. H. J. Vickers, of this city, is a son. The elder Mr. Vickers' last wife died about two years ago. Mrs. Davis was the wife of a Mr. Davis, who was a member of a firm of several brothers, iron moulders, of Baltimore. She is the daughter of Capt. Edward Hadaway, of Kent county.

When seen at the residence of his son, Mr. H. J. Vickers, and asked if he was married, Mr. V. said, "I have nothing to say." The son said his father had promised not to marry.

THE Sun yesterday says the license will not be used and further says that Mrs. Davis after procuring the license went to the parsonage of Towson Methodist Episcopal Church and made arrangements with the pastor, Rev. John R. Edwards, to marry them on Tuesday, but said she could not tell what hour they would come. She said it might be in the morning, afternoon or evening. The pastor said he would keep himself in readiness and not go far from home, so that he could be easily reached when the couple came.

MARRIED

At Piney Neck Parsonage, on Wednesday evening July 17, 1901, by C. K. Morris, Mr. Stewart Edwards, of Piney Neck, and Miss Evelyn Vansant, of Rock Hall.
